Course Overarching Essential Questions:

- Why do I sing?
- How will learning to sing well enhance my life and my well-being?
- How do I sing well?
- How can I improve my own performance?
- What can I learn from listening to recordings of my own performances?
- What can I learn about the culture of society through music?

Subject: Music		Course: Honors Chamber Singers		Grade level(s): 10-12		Last updated: July 2021 by Gwynne Chapman
Unit Title/Topics	Time Required	Essential Questions	Knowledge Students will know:	Enduring Understandings Students will understand that:	Transfer Skills Students will be able to independently apply:
Unit 1: Vocal Production	Two weeks and on-going application.	What is proper vocal production? What does diaphragmatic breathing entail? What do vocal registers mean? Why are vocalizes necessary?	Students will learn how to develop proper vocal production in all registers Students will know the purpose of a proper vocalize routine. Students will know all aspects of excellent vocal production and apply those skills to the ensemble choral literature: Vowel Production, Diction, Breath Support, Posture, Vocal Registers, Tone quality, Timbre, Dynamic range	Singing is a means of expressive communication that transcends the limitations of spoken language and is present in every culture. Using appropriate vocal technique results in a more effective performance. Through teacher demonstration and modeling, students will learn a variety of vocalizations that encompass all facets of proper vocal production.	Students will apply the vocal production techniques learned to all facets of their singing and the choir literature studied in class. Self-evaluation assists the performer in developing strategies for improvement. Students will learn to use hand mirrors to self assess and understand the technical aspects of proper vocal production in the facial structures: jaw, lips, teeth, tongue, mouth vowel and consonant formation.

Common Misunderstandings:
Diaphragmatic Breathing - how to do it properly
Vocal Registers - what they are and how to recognize the Tongue/Jaw Tension
