

Subject Area: COMMUNICATIONS ARTS
Course Title: FILM STUDY/PRODUCTION 1A
One semester course
Five units credit
Level: ☒ I II III

ESSENTIAL COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. The student will demonstrate the ability to identify the characteristics which make film an art form.
2. Given information about the aesthetic and technical qualities of film making, the student will demonstrate the ability to correctly answer questions about the given information.
3. The student will demonstrate the ability to critique a film in written form according to established criteria.
4. The student will demonstrate the ability to participate in oral film criticism and class discussions according to established guidelines for film criticism.
5. The student will produce a super 8 mm. film. This production will include:
 - a) developing a story board and writing a script
 - b) demonstration of selected film techniques studied in class
 - c) editing
 - d) splicing
 - e) synchronization of sound to the film

APPLICABLE GRADUATION PROFICIENCIES:

Rdg.	Comp.	M.S.
GP.01.01	GP.06.01	GP.04.03
GP.01.02		GP.04.08
GP.01.03		GP.04.14
GP.01.04
GP.01.05
GP.01.07		