A. National Seat Belt Day Update (Shirley Guzman-Kailee Miles Foundation) – Monday was National Seat Belt Day and many Klein ISD schools participated. A few highlights include the following campuses:

- Lemm Elementary had almost 500 students participate in coloring the Kailee Mills logo as well as writing essays.
- Frank Elementary invited the fire department to come in and talk about seat belts, boosters, and car seats.
- Krimmel Intermediate implemented the poem contest into their English lesson for the day.
- Klein High School distributed materials to students about seat belt safety.

These efforts that took place across Klein ISD on November 14th helped to save lives.

B. KISD Wellness Plan Survey Results (Derek Koonts) – Reviewed results from the 2021-2022 Klein ISD Wellness Survey and discussed a variety of ways to support campuses to have more goals fully in place for the 2022-2023 school year. Will post the survey results on the SHAC website.

C. Klein ISD Health Services Grant Update (Pam Ogletree) – Grant Award $69, 530.19
