5. PUBLIC ADDRESSES THE BOARD

Upon a motion by Commissioner Brown and duly seconded by Commissioner Serrano-Adorno, it was voted unanimously to suspend the regular order of business at 5:34 p.m. to allow the public to address the Board.

Roslyn Sotero, 25 Woodward Avenue, is the Director of Equity and Learning for Waterbury Bridge to Success. Bridge to Success is a local non-profit in the City of Waterbury; first cradle to career initiative in the State. Their goal and mission is to create an equitable agenda created by community members, residents, parents, students, and organizations.

Members of the BTS group Let Youth Lead were introduced. The group's goal and purpose was for young people in the Waterbury public school system to directly inform the work that they do; to have their voices and perspectives at the table. They are expanding the work that we're doing and created and generated their own action plan with a focus to ensure they are inviting other young people to recognize their power.

Brianna McCalla, 116 McArthur Drive, Chairperson for Let Youth Lead and is currently a sophomore at Naugatuck Valley Community College. Let Youth Lead is a collective of Waterbury students and alumni whose goal is to build youth power in Waterbury by having the information and access we need to directly informed decisions that impact our lives.

Upon a motion by Commissioner Brown and duly seconded by Commissioner Serrano-Adorno, it was voted unanimously to return to the regular order of business at 5:41 p.m.
