

Reading Clubs

with Mrs. Bailey

- Rising First Graders-Focus on decoding and word attack skills to build fluency as we read a variety of books together and introduce reading strategies.
- Rising Second Graders-Learn reading strategies (Tuesday and Wednesday) and guided reading practice (Thursday and Friday) to understand The Magic Treehouse: Revolutionary War on Wednesday by Mary Pope Osborne
- Rising Third Graders-Review reading strategies (Tuesday and Wednesday) to increase comprehension and guided reading practice (Thursday and Friday) to comprehend The Mouse and the Motorcycle by Beverly Cleary

Dates: Tuesday, July 25th
Wednesday, July 26th
Thursday, July 27th
Friday, July 28th

Time: 9:00-10:00 a.m. for rising 1st graders
10:15-11:15 a.m. for rising 2nd graders
11:30-12:30 a.m. for rising 3rd graders

Cost: $30 per session (Fees will be charged through FACTS)

Contact: lbailey@westminsterknights.org

Register: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0b4eaead29a1fc1->

The primary grades are important years for children as they build phonics skills and develop the fluency, comprehension, and accuracy needed to become strong independent readers. Mrs. Bailey will provide a summer reading program that will help children develop strong phonics skills needed to achieve fluency and accuracy, as well as build comprehension through guided reading strategies practiced in a small group setting.