Preface

Cordelia C. Nevers Marriott (class of 1886) and Roberta H. Montgomery McKinney (class of 1897) compiled the first edition of Songs of Wellesley in 1896. This expansive book was a collection of class and crew songs, along with advertisements for corsets, shoes, and the late 19th-century candy factories of Boston. It is a wonderful resource for those wishing to take a look back to where Stepsinging originated.

Stepsinging, as it is known today, began at the dedication of the Houghton Memorial Chapel in 1899. Prior to this event, Wellesley students would often gather informally at College Hall to sing as a form of after-dinner entertainment. After the dedication, they continued the tradition, but moved the location to the steps of the chapel. In the 1950s, Stepsinging was modified yet again, and its occurrence was reduced to four times a year. Presently, it is held three times a year—after convocation, the last day of classes, and at reunion. Current Stepsinging utilizes many of the same songs as those of the original performances, though there have been some variations in tempo and lyrics over the years. The songs collected for this Songbook range from 1886 to 1946, and are the most popular songs of the bunch.

We hope you enjoy learning and singing these songs for years to come. We are grateful to Leslie Meyer Holmes '58 for her assistance with this edition and to the Wellesley College Archives and their staff's continuing enthusiasm for Wellesley College traditions.

The Wellesley Cheer

Composed by:
May Sleeper Ruggles, Class of 1886

*Fast and energetically

The musical score is written on a single treble clef staff in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are: 'Tra la la la, tra la la la, tra la la la, la la la, W - E - L - L - E - S - L - E - Y, Welles - - - ley.' The first line contains measures 1 through 5. The second line starts with a measure number '6' and contains measures 6 through 8. A fermata is placed over the eighth measure, which contains the notes G4 and A4. The piece concludes with a final cadence in the eighth measure.

Tra . la la la, tra la la la, tra la la la, la la la, W - E - L -

6 L - E - S - L - E - Y, Welles - - - ley.

To be sung briskly, no slower than metronome 84; there ought to be no pause before the eighth measure.*
