FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LaGrange, GA., April 27, 2023 – It's career week at Hollis Hand Elementary, organized by school counselor Lindsay Morris. There are various activities set up for the different grade levels.

Six guest speakers brought engaging presentations to third-grade students at Hollis Hand on Thursday morning. The students listened attentively and inquired about different/shocking aspects of the guest speakers' jobs. Laura Mirarchi brought out a snake, to the students' surprise (for some, terror). To the children's delight, Malone Otwell brought several items, including a prosthetic arm and leg. It was an eventful series that students would talk about for days to come.
