NEW SCIENCE BUILDING APRIL, 1957

PUBLISHED BY THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF MAINE CENTRAL INSTITUTE IN THE INTEREST OF THE SCHOOL AND ITS FORMER STUDENTS

MAINE CENTRAL INSTITUTE Founded 1866 PITTSFIELD, MAINE

To the alumni:

If it be true that a man's best friend is his mother — and who would doubt it — then it is certainly equally true that a school's best friends are its alumni. The accuracy of that statement has been amply demonstrated at MCI over the ninety-one years since its founding.

Today on campus a new science building is rapidly approaching completion. It would not be there were it not for the faith of the trustees in the School's bright future, and that faith is and long has been nurtured by the loyalty of the alumni body. Without a firm conviction that the alumni are genuinely interested in the welfare of the School, the trustees could hardly have ventured to undertake so costly a project; with that conviction, the trustees were emboldened to meet MCI's grievous space problem intelligently and effectively.

In a year — or two at the most — MCI's campus will be graced by another fine new building, the William H. Powell Memorial Library. This, too, will come to MCI as a direct consequence of the loyalty and sincere regard of an alumnus and his wife.

New buildings, wonderful as they are, would mean but little to your MCI were it not for the fine people who are to use them. Here again, your loyal support has been of tremendous aid. Each year we receive more and more fine students who come to us with the message that John Doe '38 or Jane Roe '16 (or '11 or '96 or '47!) has recommended the School to them. Good teachers enjoy working with good students, and the School's success in attracting and holding outstanding teachers may in no small measure be attributed to the fine type of boy and girl we enroll year after year. In five years as your alumni secretary, I learned to appreciate something of what MCI means to so many of you. Although I do not know many of them personally, I think I have come to understand your affection and regard for so many of the great teachers of other years at MCI — men and women like Professor Ramsdell, Miss Bishop, Professor Landman, Miss deReynolds, to name but a few. As I approach the close of my first year as principal, this knowledge has stood me in good stead. God willing, I hope that the MCI of today may measure up to the high standards I know you expect of it.

On August 3, I hope to be able to meet many of you on campus, to enjoy with you the dedicatory ceremonies at the new science building, and to thank you personally for your interest in a School that, having served you, seeks only to continue to serve young men and women of our New England area.

Sincerely,

EDWARD R. STANLEY

Dear Fellow Alumni:

After many years of work and planning, a dream is about to be fulfilled. Through the combined efforts of the students, alumni, teachers, and town people, the New Science Building is to be dedicated on Alumni Day.

It is with personal pride that I cordially extend an invitation to each and every friend and alumnus of Maine Central Institute to attend the 1957 alumni day reunion. Your attendance will indicate your approval and appreciation of a job well done.

We, the officers of the alumni association, are very happy to inform the alumni that from 1956 to now, the gratifying amount of $11,000 has been sent to us to carry on our building efforts. Our peak load of students has yet to come. The need and thirst for education throughout the country is very great, and requests for admission from boys throughout the state and our high rate of college acceptance are an indication of the high esteem in which our MCI is held.

On August 3, 1957, our mid-summer reunion will honor the class of 1907. We certainly hope as many of this class as possible will attend. Our outstanding banquets are certainly a highlight of our reunion. This year promises to be another. We are preparing for the largest gathering ever held at MCI. With 2600 alumni we sincerely urge all our friends to make all effort to attend this outstanding reunion. I hope to see many more friends and alumni than ever before.

Sincerely,

C. K. CLAUSON '48

Elect Four New Trustees

New Members from the Alumni, Parent Groups

MIRIAM McMICHAEL ROBINSON '25

PROF. HERBERT A. LEONARD '35

When the Board of Trustees met last August at their annual meeting, not the least important item on the agenda was the selection of four new members for the board. The action brought the total number of trustees to twenty-five. These twenty-five men and women, serving without remuneration, are trustees in every sense of the word, for it is their principal responsibility to see that the School continues to fill its historic function, established for it by the founders ninety-one years ago. They must do this, of course, without losing sight of the needs of a society that is by no means static. The best measure of their success is the position the School holds today.

The Board of Trustees are a representative group, despite the fact that their members are chosen by balloting within the group, as is customary with similar educational governing bodies. They are representative in a geographical sense of the word: their members come from ten of Maine's sixteen counties and from three other states and the Federal District as well. They are representative, too, in that their membership includes those who attended MCI as day students as well as those who attended as boarding students. They represent not only the alumni of the school but its friends who have not attended MCI, including that important group of friends who are our MCI parents.

The four new trustees, elected last August, are Miriam McMichael Robinson '25 of Newton Lower Falls, Mass., E. Richard Drummond of Bangor, Dr. Charles Barbour '29 of West Hartford, Conn., and Prof. Herbert A. Leonard '35 of Orono, Me.

Mrs. Robinson was graduated from Bates College in 1929. She taught in high schools in Maine and Massachusetts and took graduate work at Columbia University.

She has been a loyal alumna of her college, serving in many capacities, most recently as 1956 Special Gifts Director of the Alumni Fund. In June she was elected to the Bates Key "for outstanding loyalty to her college and marked contributions to her community."

Always closely associated with educational work, she is now serving as president of the Faculty Wives of Northeastern University, whose faculty numbers 600, as well as faculty advisor for Kappa Tau Phi sorority.

Also devoted to every phase of community affairs, she is a member of the governing board of the Newton Community Council. Of her many charitable associations, perhaps Salvation Army claims her longest service. Her title has been village residential chairman for the past ten years.

In the church, she has just completed a term as choir mother and now serves on the music committee and also as first vice-president of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Mr. Robinson is an industrial consultant as well as head of the Department of Industrial Management in the School of Business of Northeastern University. The Robinsons have two sons, David and Donald, of high school and junior high school age. Long identified with P.T.A., Mrs. Robinson now serves as vice president of the organization in one school

American Academy Honors Paul Legge

Granted Coveted Elizabeth Thompson Award

Paul W. Legge, chairman of the science faculty at MCI, received a signal honor this winter when he was named recipient of an Elizabeth Thompson Award for outstanding science teaching in the secondary schools of New England by the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. The award carries an honorarium of $100.00. Mr. Legge and his wife were the guests of the Academy at the awards ceremony, which was held in Boston's Museum of Science on February 13.

A native of Bridgetown, Nova Scotia, Mr. Legge came to MCI in 1944 after successful teaching experience at Jay High School and Wilton Academy. During his thirteen years at MCI, he has done much to develop and enrich the science curriculum, adding new courses and giving generously of his time and energy in the promotion of the department. He was named departmental chairman by Principal Edward R. Stanley shortly after the latter became principal last summer.

A fine example of Mr. Legge's devotion to MCI and the best interests of its students is afforded by his contribution to the new science laboratory-classroom building. This structure, when it is completed for use next fall, will represent hundreds of hours of work on the part of Mr. Legge, who has voluntarily assumed the responsibility of planning the utilization of floor space in the building. Unlike many secondary school science facilities, which are largely patterned after college science structures, MCI's science program will be

MORE HONORS FOR LEGGE

Shortly before the Alumnus went to press, word was received on campus that Paul W. Legge has been awarded a National Science Foundation stipend for summer study at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, N. Y. The stipend includes full tuition in addition to generous maintenance allowances for the recipient and each of his dependents for the eight weeks of the program.

THIS IS HOW IT WORKS—Paul W. Legge, chairman of the science faculty, earned his Elizabeth Thompson Award, granted by the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in recognition of his outstanding position among the secondary school science teachers of New England, through the effectiveness of his teaching of such boys as (left to right) Thomas Hallee and Lawrence Dysart, jr., both Pittsfield underclassmen. (Photo by Sylvia Lehr '42) housed in a facility designed especially for the peculiar needs of secondary school students.

Mr. Legge's great contribution to life at MCI has by no means been restricted to the classroom. He has made an enviable reputation as a coach in all major sports — handling the school's entire boys' athletic program single-handedly in his first years on the staff. As coach, he fielded some outstanding squads, including state championship teams in both football and basketball. In the current school year, his undergraduate football charges went through an undefeated season.

Commenting on the role of secondary school science in the United States today at the time of his award, in response to inquiries from the press, Mr. Legge stated that he believes that "in other than moral, political, and economic considerations, the destiny of the United States depends on the quality of students in fundamental research in the atomic area. This is the basis of all progress along biological, physical, and chemical lines, since new developments in science must come from this area of research, demanding greater and greater training for men of ability. Today most students are interested in applied sciences such as engineering, and not in fundamental research. The stumbling-block is the tendency today for students to avoid courses that require disciplined thinking in favor of those courses that entertain or are not demanding in exactness."

Mr. Legge and his wife, the former Vivian Moore of Strong, make their home on Chester Street with their two sons, Burton, 14, a freshman at MCI, and Jeffry, 6. An avid deer hunter, Mr. Legge has earned the reputation of being the faculty's most successful sportsman during the late fall season.

MCI and its alumni are proud to salute Paul Warren Legge and to congratulate him on this latest evidence of his outstanding service to the school and its students.

The school and its alumni look forward with confidence as Mr. Legge and his colleagues prepare to take over the new science building this fall. MCI's service in the science area should be assured with so fine a teacher in charge of its science program.

Powell Library Eagerly Awaited

Construction Anticipated in Summer of 1958

With campus interest understandably centered on the new science classroom-laboratory building now fast approaching completion, it is not surprising perhaps that relatively little thought has yet been given to the wonderful new library willed to the school by Mrs. William H. Powell, widow of Judge William H. Powell '84. The gift promises, however, to be one of the most important ever to be received by your MCI in the ninety years since its founding. With this building, the School will for the first time have really adequate library facilities—the lack of which has long been deplored by all those interested in strengthening the School and its program.

Under the terms of the Powell bequest, the executors of the estate were allowed two years to complete their work, so that funds for the construction of the William H. Powell Memorial Library should be available to the School not later than the summer of 1958. In keeping with the donor's instructions, the building will be of brick or stone construction. presumably the former in order that it may harmonize with other campus

The donor very thoughtfully provided in the terms of her bequest that the School may utilize some of the rooms in the Powell Library for general classroom purposes. With en-rollments at MCI apparently destined to continue to swell for some years to come, this provision is doubly important and is an effective guarantee that the Library will be utilized to the fullest extent. The younger alumni particularly will readily understand the importance to the MCI program of this assurance of superior accommodations for those courses most dependent upon good library facili-

In the extra-curricula program, too, the Powell Library promises to be a very welcome addition. humanities colloquium, an especially valuable new member in the roster of "outside" activities, should find in the new library a real home for its meetings and an environment that will make its program much more meaningful. The staffs of school publications, the Key Club, the Student Council, and similar groups in years to come will be certain to find that the Library will afford them superior accommodations for their gatherings.

Most important of all, though, the Powell Library will mean for MCI books, books, and more books! For several years now, MCI has been quietly adding to its stock of books. Mrs. Frances Piper, chairman of the English faculty, has taken on the added responsibility of librarian, and largely through her efforts, the present library in what was once one end of Room 1 has come to house a fairly respectable collection of useable books of all types. Obviously, though, more room and more books are badly needed, if the School is to meet the demands of its students.

MCI is proud and grateful that Ella S. Powell saw fit to perpetuate the name of her husband, a loyal graduate of MCI, in this manner. By her gift, she has assured that and recording secretary in the other. Following her return to the MCI campus at the annual reunion last August, she wrote, "As alumni we were gratified to learn of the continued growth of the school. I was certainly honored to be chosen a trustee, and as a member of the Board, I hope to have the opportunity to take a more active part in the planning and building of an ever better MCI."

Mr. Drummond, the father of Richard Drummond '56, who is now a freshman at Colby, is president of Pierce, White and Drummond In-corporated in Bangor. A native of Waterville, he was graduated from Coburn Classical Institute in 1924 and received his A.B. degree from Colby in 1928. After attending the University of Pennsylvania, from which he received the M.B.A. degree in 1930, Mr. Drummond was with the Guaranty Company of New York for four years. From 1934 to 1938, he was with Burr, Gannett & Company of Boston, in the latter year joining his present organization.

Mr. Drummond's interest in education is long-standing, as he has served as a trustee of Colby College since 1948. He is also a trustee of the Maine Baptist Convention and a member of that organization's financial committee. His affiliations also include membership on the board of trustees and financial committees of both the Bangor Y.M.C.A. and the Good Samaritan Home. A past president of both the Bangor Rotary Club and the Bangor-Brewer Community Chest, he is a retired officer in the U.S. Naval Reserve.

Dr. Barbour, a Bowdoin graduate, has made an enviable reputation in the field of medicine. He is an associate in the department of anesthiology of the Hartford Hospital.
Married to the former Doris Linscott, he and Mrs. Barbour have two children - Charles III and Betsey

Professor Leonard, a native of Thorndike, received his B.S. degree from the University of Maine in 1939 and his M.S. from Cornell University in 1950. His work at the University of Maine was preceded by valuable experience in the field as a 4-H Club agent in Cumberland County, an assistant county agent in Penobscot County, and a county agent in Oxford County. He joined the staff at Maine as extension dairy specialist and is now associate professor of Animal Husbandry.

The Leonards have two children — Charlene Rae, age 12, and Colin Arthur, age 10.

Professor Leonard is a member of the Church of Universal Fellowship in Orono. He maintains membership in the Unity Lodge, A.F. and A.M., in Thorndike; the Harvest Moon Grange No. 57, P. of H., in Thorndike; the Orono-Old Town Kiwanis Club; the American Association of University Professors; and the American Dairy Science Association. He is currently a corporation trustee and treasurer of Phi Kappa Sigma Social Fraternity. In June, 1956, Professor Leonard was honored by the Maine Chapter of Future Farmers of America with an honorary membership. At that time also he was granted the State Farmers' Degree. His hobbies are fishing, gardening, and hunting.

Humanities Colloquium Unique in Maine Secondary Schools

June will mark the conclusion of the second year for a rather unusual student group at MCI, the Humanities Colloquium. This group, unique at the secondary level in Maine, and possibly in the United States, was organized last year in an attempt to provide for the most capable and interested juniors and seniors some intellectual stimulation in addition to that possible to supply in the classroom.

This is not a course, in the usually accepted sense of the term, for it is offered on an informal basis to a selected group of students who receive no academic credit for attendance at the meetings. The Colloquium is under the direction of co-advisors Mrs. Frances C. Piper and Norval B. Lewis, Chairman of the English Department and Senior English Master respectively. With their advice, the group studies informally one evening a week a wide range of subjects commonly termed the humanities: literature, music, painting, architecture, etc., as well as discussing problems of current concern.

Occasional guest speakers are invited to talk with the group. During the course of the year, for example, at one meeting Mr. Allen Simons, director of music in the Pittsfield schools and at MCI, talked about music and played a number of recorded selections to illustrate his talk; Mr. Peter Bradshaw, of the MCI Social

Four years ago, when the editor of the Alumnus chose a picture of a promising young athlete to grace the cover of the magazine, he knew that he was choosing wisely. It is doubtful, though, that he realized just how well justified was his faith in Thurlow Cooper. Since that time, "Big Coop" has made an enduring place for himself in the annals of Maine athletics. The crowning climax of a wonderful amateur sports career for Coop came on April 8 this year, when he was signed by the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League at a salary reported to be approximately $9,000.00.

Cooper's four years at Maine have reflected great credit upon himself and upon MCI. A top-notcher for Coach Nels Corey in his year here, he went on to become one of the all-time greats in U. of M. football annals. In 1956 alone, as co-captain with Pete Kosty, an MCI classmate, Cooper was named on the Bangor News All-Maine college selection for the second consecutive year, selected for the All-Yankee Conference team, selected for the Boston Globe's All-New England team, selected by football authority Paul Williamson for his All-America team, and given honorable mention on the Little All-America team.

When Cooper inked his contract with the Browns, he became the first Maine gridiron star ever to sign a National Football League contract. Setting records, however, is nothing new for Coop, who holds the State AAC high jump record at 6' 2". The big fellow has found time to win his letter in basketball, as well as in football and track, while maintaining good grades at the University.

MCI salutes Thurlow Cooper for Mary Weymouth Dodge '74, MCI's beloved oldest living graduate for many years, passed away peacefully on May 2, 1956, at the Yarmouth nursing home where she had been confined to her bed with a broken hip for nearly a decade. Although 101 years old, Mrs. Dodge had retained her keen faculties throughout almost the full span of her long life, displaying a keen interest in her alma mater on the occasion of her 100th birthday.

A native of Burnham, Mrs. Dodge was the daughter of the Reverend Nathaniel Weymouth, one of the School's founders, and Judith Simons Weymouth. From her early years, MCI played an important role in her life, and her many friends delighted to hear her tell of the founding of the School and its struggles in its first years. Today Weymouth Hall stands as a continuing memorial to her father.

Mrs. Dodge received her education in the Pittsfield schools and at MCI. A member of the Baptist Church in Pittsfield, she was married to Dr. Mark T. Dodge, MCI '76, and lived in Troy, where her husband was a general practitioner for a quarter century until his death in 1911.

Returning to Pittsfield after her husband's death, she made her home with her only son, Arnold W. Dodge '10, who passed away in 1944.

Survivors include a sister, Miss Carrie Weymouth '80 of Amherst, Mass., who is now the School's oldest living alumnus; a granddaughter, Marie Dodge Joy '36 of Falmouth; a niece, Helen Weymouth Garcelon '06 of Troy; a nephew, Frederick Weymouth '07, of West Valley, N. Y.; and her daughter-in-law, Afton Smith Dodge Searles '14 of Cumberland Center.

Funeral services were held at the Lindquist Funeral Home in Yarmouth, with committal services at the Fairview Cemetery in Troy. Principal Edward Stanley represented Maine Central Institute in tribute to a loyal and distinguished alumna at the graveside service.

MCI lost one of its all-time great athletes and a loyal friend on September 12, 1956, with the passing of Clarence "Clara" Emery in his hometown of Dixfield. A graduate in the class of 1919, Emery was employed by the Roger Holman Sawmill in Dixfield as an office worker and lumber surveyor at the time of his death.

He was a World War I Navy veteran and had been actively identified with the Civil Defense organization in Dixfield during the Second World

"Clara" Emery achieved not only local and state but also New England acclaim for his outstanding athletic ability during his undergraduate days at MCI. He was a protege of Coach Ray Shepard, who later became head coach at Andover Academy in Massachusetts. Shepard developed Emery—about 5' 10" and 208 lbs.—into a top-notch track and football performer and even today rates him as one of the best athletes he ever coached.

In track, Emery was virtually a squad all by himself. He could run the 100 in ten seconds—and was once clocked at 9.14 in a workout. He was top man in all the weight events and still holds the 220 yard hurdle-record at MCI which he set in 1918. On one occasion, Emery captured a state track title for MCI virtually singlehanded with first places in the 100, 220, hurdles, shotput, and hammer and a second in the discus

ALUMNUS COVER

Last year your Alumnus cover was graced by an artist's conception of the new science laboratory-classroom building, carefully drawn by Evelyn Webendorfer Austin '45. The cover this year is an actual photograph, taken on the campus in early April by Peter Bradshaw, school photographer. The present cover should serve two purposes: it should let all good friends of MCI see how the School has turned a dream into a reality in 12 short months, and it should help to inspire a good many to plan to include MCI on the first Saturday in August in their calendar of summer activities.

Following his graduation from MCI, Emery entered Brown University and as a freshman made one of Brown's greatest football teams. He was a standout in the Brown-Harvard game of that year. Had he continued his studies at Brown, it was the consensus of sports writers of that day that he would definitely have been in strong contention for All-American honors in football.

He is survived by his wife, Helen Williamson Emery; two daughters, Ruth Hurley of Rumford and Eleanor Wilcox of St. Louis, Mo.; and an uncle, Frank Emery of Portland. To all his family go the sincere sympathy of his many, many MCI friends.

Make Your Plans Now For Saturday, August 3rd, Homecoming Day at MCI

Not since 1936 have MCI's alumni had the opportunity that will be theirs on Saturday, August 3, the date of the annual midsummer reunion. In that year, MCI completed a new building, the George M. Parks Memorial Gymnasium, and this summer, on homecoming day, the School will mark the completion of another splendid addition to its facilities. This is your invitation to be present for the dedication of the science building and to take in all the other good times one learns to associate with homecoming day.

Early in the summer, each of you will receive more details on the plans for homecoming day, 1957. Until then, why not make a note of the date and begin your own personal plans to spend the day — or the weekend — at MCI? To be doubly sure of a good time, why not get in touch with your old MCI friends and urge them to join you? If you need any help with addresses, a postal card to the alumni office will bring you as many as you may wish — up to 2,700 in fact!

It will be a reunion year for the "5" and "7" classes, with top honors, as usual, for the golden anniversary class of 1907. But it can and should be a reunion year for all who recall good friends and good times at old MCI. Last year's record attendance surprised and delighted all who were here on campus. This year, with a special treat in store as the new building comes to life, let's make the '56 crowd look small.

Alumni Elect C. K. Clauson '48

Report of the Annual Meeting

The largest attendance ever recorded enjoyed a variety of homecoming activities at the annual Maine Central Institute summer reunion on the campus Saturday, August 4, 1956.

During the afternoon, a reception for Retiring Principal and Mrs. W. Howard Niblock was held on the north campus. Mrs. Edward R. Stanley, wife of the new principal, and Evelyn Webendorfer Austin, 1943, were in charge of preparations for the affair during which refreshments were served from a well-appointed table on the lawn. At the evening banquet, Mr. and Mrs. Niblock were presented gifts of memorial chairs and honorary life memberships from the Alumni Association. The presentations were made by Alumni President Iva Cianchette Cregnole, 1935.

Members of the 50-year class were guests of the Association at luncheon at the Lancey House, and again at the evening banquet served buffetstyle by the Lancey House staff in the George M. Parks Memorial Gymnasium.

The combined classes of 1915 and 1916 also dined at the hotel at noon. The class of 1936 held its reunion at the summer cottage of Ruth Trickey Parker at Lake Sebasticook, Newport, and the class of 1931 was entertained by their former class advisor, Mrs. Roy U. Sinclair, at her home on Pleasant Street.

Registrations at the Alumni office were handled by Alma Ellingwood Dow, 1940, with the assistance of Mrs. Rodney Allan and Miss Isabel Elias.

Three hundred alumni and friends of the school attended the evening banquet, followed by the annual business meeting during which the secretary's report was accepted as it appeared in the 1956 MCI ALUMNUS, and the report of the treasurer, Miss Alma Patten, was read by Willard Lehr, jr.

Principal Stanley presented to Dean Harry Rowe of Lewiston, a member of the 50th anniversary class, an inscribed silver bowl in appreciation for his service to the school as president of the Board of Trustees for 32 years.

In a brief speech, Dean Rowe thanked the Association for the tribute, and announced the appointment of the following new trustees: Prof. Herbert Leonard, 1935, of the College of Agriculture, University of Maine; Dr. Charles Barbour, 1929, of Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. Miriam McMichael Robinson, 1925, of Newton Lower Falls, Mass.; and Richard Drummond of Bangor.

Earle N. Vickery, Pittsfield, long-time treasurer of the Board of Trustees, spoke of the new science building now under construction, and reminded the alumni of their duty to contribute individually to the building fund.

He also directed attention to bronze prismatic letters affixed this spring to Weymouth and Alumni Halls. These were a gift from last year's 50th anniversary class of 1905.

Announcement was made by Principal Stanley of the gift to the school of a new memorial library from the will of the widow of William H. Powell, 1884. Plans for construction are pending the settlement of the estate and the completion of the science building.

Mrs. Dow, Alumni Office Secretary, called for a vote which resulted in unanimous approval of the application of the former life-membership contributions, which fund of approximately $2,000 has been dormant for several years, to the new science building fund.

In answer to a roll call, Grace Mills Cook, Newport, of the class of 1891, was the oldest alumnus present. Three of the eight surviving members of the 60-year class, 1896, were recognized. They were Alice Homstead Furbush of Lynn, Mass., Maude Munroe Mudgett of Lexington, Mass. and Mertie Hanson Palmer of Pittsfield.

The following officers were elected for the year 1956–57:

President — Cornelius Clauson, 1948, Waterville.

Vice-president — John Dana, 1949, Pittsfield.

Secretary — Sylvia Snow Lehr, 1942, Pittsfield.

Treasurer — Alma F. Patton, 1909, Pittsfield.

Executive committee for four years — Harry H. Friend, 1948, Pittsfield. Verna Coffin Farrow, 1916, Waterville.

Nominating committee for 1957 — Harry Wright, Chairman, Clifford Wright, Margaret Somers Huff, all of Pittsfield.

Following adjournment, many of the Alumni gathered at the Mural Dining Room in the Lancey House.

Cook also headed the Debate Club, which fielded a very successful set of varsity teams. MCI debaters were justly proud of a six year record of fifteen wins in nineteen debates, including three championships in the Colby Interscholastic Debate League . . . With Newman Young as captain and Ray Shepard as coach, the MCI football team completed a 6-2 record. Clarence Emery was easily one of the stand-out players of the season. The victims included Kents Hill 19-0, Skowhegan 58-0, Bangor High 27-13, Oak Grove 53-0, Brewer High 53-0, and Lewiston High 13-0... After a lapse of several years, the school sponsored interscholastic basketball, with Capt. Gordon Park of Sangerville at the helm. Lewis Sturtevant was the coach. The season was outstandingly successful, with a 5-1 record. Only Old Town High School prevented a perfect record . . . In track, the MCI forces had to surrender their Bowdoin Interscholastic title, won in 1916, but placed third behind Hebron and St. John's Prep, with Emery and Cookie Jellison as the individual stars... The senior play, "The Time of His Life," was well received, with the following in the cast: Gilbert Boyce, Lydia Bickford, Edward Richards, Dorothy Smith, Floriman Hathaway, Ursula Snow, Magnus Ridlon, Gerald Glidden, and Wallace Huston.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

1937 — Jimmy Powers and Louis Tucci were the lions of the campus as they returned from the State Prep School Tournament at Orono with All Tourney honors. The team lost out for the title but posted an 11-6 record for the season under the coaching of Harold Louder '26 . . . Beverly Byther and John Parsons won the Alumni Prize Speaking awards at Powers Hall on February 17... Eleanor Lane was busily engaged in editing the Trumpet when she wasn't working for the Girl Reserves . . . Paul Houston, Eleanor Lane, and Betsey Libbey were named to the National Honor Society as juniors, while senior membership went to Alberta Hopkins, Eunice Spaulding, Aubrey Vose, and Philip Young. Notes From the Campus

CHAPELS — Chapel Exercises have continued to attract good speakers and to form an important part of school life at MCI. This year, chapel speakers have included the Reverend Bruce Cummings, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Pittsfield; the Reverend Robert Fiske, pastor of the First Universalist Church of Pittsfield; the Reverend Fr. Edward Lynch, priest of St. Agnes Parish in Pittsfield; the Reverend Donald M. Hinckley, pastor of the Universalist Church in West Paris and a former member of the MCI faculty; the Reverend Homer Hughey, pastor of the People's Methodist Church in Newport; and Dr. Edwin Lewis of Stafford, England, who shared the service with the Reverend John Boone, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Pittsfield. The robed chapel choir, directed by Allen Simons and Mrs. Frances Piper, continued to add much to our services of worship.

ASSEMBLIES - A rich variety of assembly programs have helped to enliven the program at MCI this year. In addition to the customary orientation assembly at the opening of the school year, at which Dean Pratt presided, there have been the usual athletic awards assemblies and assemblies in connection with the school's guidance program. Possibly the assemblies most enjoyed by the students have been those provided by the School Assembly Service, an organization specializing in bringing top-flight talent to the campuses of America's schools. These have included Philip Stern, lecturer on modern concepts of the world and outer space on September 18; Larry Tobler, banjo player, on October 9; Lloyd Bemis, whose topic was "Time for Decision," on November 5; Virginia Sale, expert at character sketches, December 6; George Groman, "How Other People Talk," January 11; and the Smythes, pianists, May 15. As the Alumnus goes to press, plans are underway for an initiation ceremony for new members of the National Honor Society in late May.

STUDENT COUNCIL — The 1956–57 Student Council, under the leader-ship of President Richard Desmarais '57 of Sanford, sponsored an unusually successful Thanksgiving formal last fall. In fact, those who attended — and there were many — reported the dance to be the best in years at

THE WINTER CARNIVAL, a Student Council project, was unusually successful this year, with even Old Man Winter cooperating for a change. The day's program of outdoor sports was followed by the Sno Ball in George Parks Memorial Gymnasium, with Theodore Brownlee of Muskegon, Michigan, and Sheilya Wood of Burnham, daughter of Agnes Milton Wood '28, being crowned king and queen of the Ball.

MCI. Later in the winter, the Council scored again with the sponsorship of the first winter carnival, complete with snow, to be staged at MCI in a number of years. Keen competition in skiing, snowshoeing, tobogganing, and snow sculpture enlivened the day, while the traditional Sno Ball in Parks Memorial Gymnasium provided a fitting climax. Sheilya Wood '57 of Burnham, daughter of Agnes Milton Wood '28, and Theodore Brownlee '57 of Muskegon, Michigan, were crowned queen and king of the Sno Ball.

PUBLICATIONS — The Trumpet staff, headed by Miss Justine Estes of Burnham, has been hard at work much of the year under the direction of their advisor, Norbert Young, in order that the senior annual may make its welcome appearance on the campus early in the first week of June. No less busy, a large staff headed by Miss Jeanette Poulin of Pittsfield, has put out a number of issues of the Talisman, student newspaper. N. Blake Bartlett, English I instructor, has served as advisor to this busy group. The paper, rex-ographed this year as an economy measure, has shown a commendable improvement during the year and has met with a good reception from students and faculty alike.

F.H.A. — The F.H.A., still MCI's largest and most active club, has this year grown to a point where its advisor, Mrs. Roy U. Sinclair, has had to hold meetings in two divisions on different days — one for the upperclassmen and one for the underclassmen. With Miss Sandra Stanhope as president for the whole club, the F.H.A. has had a busy year, a highlight of which was an exceptionally well-served banquet for "Mom, Dad, and Me" in March at the First Baptist Church.

DORMITORY COUNCILS — With two boys dormitories in operation at MCI this year, the house councils in Weymouth Hall and Alumni Hall have been busy and important organizations. The Weymouth Hall council has been headed by Jack Turner of Buckland, Mass., while Peter Stuart of Lewiston has headed the Alumni Hall council. Each group has met weekly throughout the school year with its respective housemaster to provide essential liaison between the boys and the administration of the school.

STUDENT WORK PROGRAM—Again this year, the student work program has been in full swing, with more than 50 boys earning part of their way through MCI through campus employment. Jobs have been available for both day and boarding students, with many of the latter finding it possible to attend MCI only because they were the recipients of work-scholarship grants. MCI continues to operate on the principle that the School is willing to help any boy who is willing to help himself.

THE KEY CLUB - Last spring, Principal Niblock took the initiative in organizing an MCI Key Club with the cooperation of the Pittsfield Kiwanis Club. This year, with Dean Bert Pratt as advisor, the club was off to a wonderful start. That they have lived up to the purpose of their organization — to render service — is amply indicated by just a partial list of their accomplishments thus far this year: a new flag for the campus; a complete new sound system, including a booth to house the system and similar audio-visual aids, for Parks Memorial Gymnasium; usher service at basketball games; and supervision of recreation in the Gymnasium during school recesses. Mahlon Lander of Pittsfield has served as club president.

SPEECH — With the organization this year of the Speech Department under the guidance of Walter T. Cahill, MCI has enjoyed a remarkable rebirth of interest in the oral arts. Mr. Cahill, who came to MCI from a position as head of the English department and speech director at Madison High School, has ably demonstrated in a single year the value of speech instruction as a part of the curriculum.

Possibly the most spectacular development in the speech area has been the MCI Show, a monthly broadcast feature of Radio Station WHGM in Skowhegan. Written and directed by Mr. Cahill, these shows have featured the voices of speech students. Each has been a timely, worthwhile commentary on an interesting facet of human life.

Two other interesting developments in the speech program this year have been the Speakers' Bureau and the MCI Story Tellers. The former is a group organized to provide speakers for local organizations, while the latter offers, as its title suggests, story tellers to entertain the youngsters in the lower grades in the Pittsfield public schools.

Other speech activities of note have included participation in the Spear Contest, the Maine Speech Festival, and the State One Act Play Contest. Prize speaking has continued as usual, with the Alumni Speech Festival and the Manson Speaking Contest, the latter sponsored by the English faculty.

Formal classes in speech have been well received, with all freshmen taking Speech I, an introductory course, over a nine week period, and some 30 upperclassmen availing themselves of the opportunity to learn advanced speech techniques in Speech II, with sections meeting twice weekly over the half year.

RIFLE CLUB — Among the extracurricular activities new this year is the MCI Rifle Club. With the growth of enrollment, the facilities formerly available were long since dismantled, and the space taken over for other purposes, primarily storage.

This year, however, the student interest in a rifle organization was deemed sufficiently strong to merit the building of a range and the appointment of a coach. The range was built by the Maintenance Department from official National Rifle Association plans, and is located in the basement of the Institute Building. The area between the boys' and the girls' basements provides just sufficient space for an official fifty-foot range, three targets wide.

The aim of the Club is not only to develop skill in target shooting, but even more important, to develop safe and sensible habits of handling firearms. Therefore, maximum safety procedures are stressed at all meetings.

THE KEY CLUB, MCI's youngest organization, is perhaps one of the most successful groups in the recent history of the School. Organized in the last months of the 1955-56 school year, the Club got off to a fine start this year with Dean Bert L. Pratt as faculty advisor and strong backing from Pittsfield Kiwanis President, Wayne Fernald '37 and Kiwanian Harry H. Friend '43.

The first meetings were devoted entirely to safety and range procedure instruction. In later meetings, instruction and practice in firing from the four recognized positions has been given.

All practice firing on the range is under the direct supervision of Coach Norval B. Lewis, Senior English Master, with two experienced student instructors as assistants. For the weekly firing practice, the Club is divided into two groups, meeting on different days. The Senior Division is composed of boys seventeen and up, while the Junior Division is made up of those fourteen to sixteen.

MUSIC — This year a new music director, Allen T. Simons of Winchester, Mass., assumed direction of the MCI musical program. Mr. Simons came to MCI after four very successful years as director of music for the Vinalhaven schools. He is continuing his success at MCI, as those who were privileged to attend the very fine Christmas concert in Parks Memorial Gymnasium will be pleased to testify.

The music program includes a fine marching band, which annually contributes much at athletic contests and rallies, and the large choral groups. Again this year, the School was well represented at the concerts of the All-Kennebec Valley Band, Chorus, and Orchestra. The marching band opened its season with an appearance in Clinton, where it led the parade in that town's annual festivity held for the purpose of raising funds to support the activities program in the Clinton schools. The band and chorus combined their talents for the Pop Concert, held on April 4 in Parks Memorial Gymnasium.

WITH THE FACULTY—Instructors at MCI have been "bustin' out all over" in print this year. From time to time over the years, one instructor or another has had something published in a professional periodical, but this year MCI has been unusually well represented in state and national teachers' magazines.

The most recent addition to the list of articles published by MCI teachers is the article in the March (1957) Maine Teacher, "Drama Enough for All?" by Walter T. Cahill, instructor in the newly instituted speech department. Mr. Cahill suggests in this article several methods of stimulating interest in plays in the schools of Maine.

He suggests first, a Play Festival in the spring, similar to the Speech Festival conducted by Dr. Gardner at the University of Maine; second, a MCI'S MARCHING BAND continues in strong demand. Here the band is shown as they contribute to the festivities at a civic celebration in neighboring Clinton under the leadership of the School's new director of music, Allen T. Simons.

Athletics For All

MCI has always recognized the merits of a well-organized program of interscholastic and intramural athletics as an important adjunct to education. To this end, the School has attempted to offer good training and opportunities for participation in a variety of sports on different levels of competition for both boys and girls. In recent years the School has won renown throughout Maine and even in the larger New England area for the excellence of its athletic teams. MCI has won perhaps somewhat more than its share of state championships in cross country, basketball, football, track, and baseball. More important than this, the School has been able to be proud of its teams in defeat as well as in victory.

This year several important additions have been made to the roster of sports squads at MCI. These have come about in order that the School may offer opportunities to participate actively in one or more phases of the whole athletic program to an ever-increasing percentage of its students. Added last fall was soccer — a sport which met with an immediate and enthusiastic response from an encouraging number of boys. In the winter, the School sponsored a ski team, and this too was greeted enthusiastically. Later in the winter, a rifle team was organized, attracting a large number of boys who had previously found little or nothing of interest to them in the sports program. This spring, MCI will sponsor its first interscholastic golf team, and there is every indication this will also meet with a good response.

These new sports squads were not replacements for others dropped from the schedule. MCI is still fielding varsity and undergraduate varsity squads in football, basketball, and baseball; varsity squads in cross country, indoor track, and outdoor track; varsity and junior varsity squads in girls' field hockey, girls' basketball, and girls' softball. Counting the new sports teams added this year, MCI students have nineteen squads to choose from, not counting the numerous opportunities for participation in intramural sports. It is not unusual to find in excess of 150 youngsters actively engaged in one of four or five varsity practice sessions during a single afternoon.

SPRING SEASON

As the Alumnus goes to press, coaches and players for the five major spring sports teams are only awaiting the drying up of playing fields to begin their seasons. As in the past, MCI will field both varsity and undergraduate varsity baseball teams, a girls' softball team, and a track team. New this year will be a golf team, while the rifle club, organized during the winter, will continue to function throughout the remainder of the school year.

Roderic L. Smith, director of athletics, will hold down the coaching assignment in varsity baseball, as he has for twelve years. Davis Wiggin will again coach varsity baseball for the undergraduates, while Miss Janet Cyr, dean of girls, will be at the helm for girls' softball. Norbert Young as track coach and John Dana as golf coach will complete the spring coaching roster.

A MARK TO SHOOT AT

179–0 — an impossible score for any sport, you say? But that was the season's record for the Huskies of Head Coach Davis Wiggin and Assistant Coach Roderick Cyr during the 1956 gridiron season. They went through their amazing season undefeated, untied, and unscored upon, facing the best opposition available to them within the state of Maine. The season gave Coach Wiggin, in his third year at MCI, the distinction of leading the Huskies to three consecutve preparatory school championships in football.

NOT SATISFIED with the retention of the Maine prep crown in football for the sixth consecutive year, the 1956 Huskies also set what may well be a Pine Tree State record as they went through their schedule undefeated, untied, and without a point scored against them. For Coach Davis Wiggin, the remarkable season meant a 16-4-2 record in three years at the Husky helm.

FIELD HOCKEY continued to attract large numbers of MCI girls during the fall sports season, with Coach Janet Cyr busy handling both a varsity and a jay-vee squad. The Husky girls on both teams turned in some fine games during the season.

The season opened with a 26–0 win over Bridgton Academy. In rapid succession, the Huskies downed the Colby Frosh 19–0, Hebron Academy 31–0, the Bowdoin Frosh 34–0, and the University of Maine Frosh 28–0. In the final game of the season, the always potent Maine Maritime Academy threatened several times but finally bowed at the small end of a 41–0 score.

An outstanding feature of the '56 season was the work turned in by the MCI line, which worked out daily under the supervision of Coach Cyr, a newcomer to the MCI staff this year. Starting linesmen included Brownlee of Muskegon, Mich., at left end; Roger Gagne of Augusta, left tackle; John Turner of Buckland, Mass., left guard; Dave Fernald, a Pittsfield junior, center; Norm Marshall of Berwick, right guard; Joe Dumont of Augusta, right tackle; and Peter Malia of Portland, right end. Backfield starters, whose toprunning accounted for the high scoring of the season, included Quarterback Gus Carlson of Ashland, Mass.; Walt Wotton of Rockland, left half; Tommy Valiton of Shelburne Falls, Falls, Mass., right half; and Dick Desmarais of Sanford, fullback.

Unusually fine reserve strength for both line and backfield was an important factor in the season's success. Linesmen included Richard Santos of Osterville, Mass.; Charles Dewitt of Gardiner; Peter Matheson of Winslow; Tony Koris of Rumford; Bill Petrie of Mexico; Charles Marks of Randolph; Daniel Roy of Winslow. In the backfield were Tom Conroy of South Portland; Clark Conlon of Portsmouth, N. H.; Joe McDonough of Portland; Phil Thibeau of Gardiner; Ruel Dutton of Gardiner; and Bob Wood of Burlington, Mass. Managers for the season were Paul West of Lewiston, Walter Littlefield of Detroit, and Joe Small of Bath.

HARRIERS HOLD TITLE

Coach Norbert Young's Husky harrier pack held possession of their state title in the state meet which climaxed a season in which the MCI team bowed but once, to the Maine Freshmen. Myron McLaughlin of Exeter, N. H., and Wilbur Spencer, Jr., of Berwick paced the Huskies throughout the season, with the former winning all but two of the meets and placing second in the annual State Meet.

In the State Meet, MCI was first with a low 23, followed by Bridgton Academy (44) and Fryeburg Academy (57). Bridgton's Maloney took top individual honors in the title meet, followed by McLaughlin, Dick Desmond of Waterville, and Spencer, whose 2–3–4 finish assured the Huskies of victory.

FIELD HOCKEY

The highlight of the 1956 field hockey season came when the Husky girls defeated Cony High of Augusta, 2–1, for the first time in many seasons. Coach Janet Cyr fielded one of the largest squads in recent years, with 43 trying out for the squad and 35 sticking with it throughout the ten game schedule. Coach Cyr divided her girls into two squads, with the varsity posting a 1–1–3 record and the jayvees a 1–2–2 record.

The varsity was one of two teams to score on the Farmington High girls during the season. The jayvee record was one of the best in many years, with some good close games providing plenty of excitement for the players and fans alike.

UNDEFEATED PUPS

Coach Paul Legge's MCI Undergraduate Eleven set the pace for the younger varsities this season with an impressive 5–0 record. The Husky Pups opened their schedule with a 14–6 win over Boothbay Harbor High's varsity, then went on to take successive games from the Winslow Jayvees, 37–19; the Bangor Jayvees, 26–0; the Lawrence High (Fairfield) Jayvees, 45–18; and the Williams High (Oakland) varsity, 14–12.

The squad was one of the largest MCI has fielded in the undergraduate division in many years. The members, all of whom are underclassmen eligible to compete under the Maine Principals' Association rules, included Henry Baker of Derby, Randy Baxter of Pittsfield, Al Beverage of Cedar Grove, Leigh Buck of Palmyra, Anson Crowell of Pittsfield, William Dean of Pittsfield, John Dunton of Pittsfield, Ralph Dunton of Pittsfield,

A WELCOME ADDITION to the MCI schedule of sports in the winter season, the School's first varsity ski team was coached by Clarence Smith, instructor in commercial subjects and former Edward Little skier.

Rochid Elias of Pittsfield, Anthony Frederick of Pittsfield, Raymond Gagne of Pittsfield, Richard Gordon of Pittsfield, Martelle Gordon of Pittsfield, Thomas Hallee of Pittsfield, Dennis Haggerty of Pittsfield, Frank Lancaster of Pittsfield, Mahlon Lander of Pittsfield, James Mac-Michael of Pittsfield, Dale McQuarrie of Pittsfield, Richard Paradis of Pittsfield, Michael Parker of Pittsfield, Walter Philbrick of Palmyra, David Richards of Plymouth, Wayne Richards of Pittsfield, Wilbur Rowe of Palmyra, Myron Sprague of Swan's Island, Charles Starkey of Pittsfield, Anthony Vicnaire of Pittsfield, Richard Welch of Pittsfield, Merlon White of Pittsfield, William Whitman of Pittsfield, and Stanley Willey of Palmyra.

Next year, plans for the Undergraduate squad in football include an enriched schedule, with games already arranged with the varsities of the Kents Hill School and Fryeburg Academy. The School is proud of its undergraduate program, offering as it does fine competition and outstanding coaching to younger boys of both the day student and dormitory groups.

ADD SOCCER

Soccer made its debut as an interscholastic sport at MCI last fall, with about twenty boys reporting to Coach Roderic L. Smith at the start of the season. The squad played an abbreviated three game schedule in the opening year, but present plans call for soccer to assume a major role in the fall sports program in the year ahead. Coach Smith, an All-American soccer player during his undergraduate days at Springfield College, was impressed by the reception accorded the sport and has been making plans for a regular schedule of games for the 1957–58 season.

To John McLean, Pittsfield sophomore and son of Barbara Stanley McLean '32, went the honor of being the first (and only) Husky to score during the opening soccer season. McLean made a goal for MCI in the second game of the season against the Colby College Frosh, which MCI lost, 12–1. In the other two games, MCI bowed to Kents Hill School, 7–0, and to the Frosh again, 5–0.

SKI HEIL!

After many, many years, MCI is finally in a position to attract boys for whom skiing in the extra-curricula program is a sine qua non of attendance at any preparatory school. That this is so is largely a result of the efforts of the local Kiwanis Club, which several years ago bent its unusual organizing ability to the task of creating a ski slope for Pittsfield at the Pinnacle on outer Hartland Ave-This action was followed promptly by the organization of the Pinnacle Ski Club, composed of local ski enthusiasts and headed by John L. Baxter, jr., and Byron G. Dow, husband of Alumni Office Secretary Alma Ellingwood Dow '40. With the support of this group, and especially of the leaders named, MCI organized its first varsity ski team this winter.

During the season, Coach Clarence Smith, a former Edward Little skier, worked out with eighteen boys, a dozen of whom stayed with the squad despite a winter marked by little good skiing snow in the Central Maine area. Two interscholastic meets were entered — one at Edward Little High School in Auburn and the other at the Kents Hill School winter carnival. As was to be expected, the inexperienced MCI squad trailed the field at both meets, but the boys did show promise of providing the nucleus of a good squad, especially in the down hill and slalom events. Prospects for the future are brightened, too, by the fine work of the Pinnacle Ski Clubbers with the local seventh and eighth grade group, from which Coach Smith can anticipate some capable youngsters in the years ahead.

INDOOR TRACK

Despite the handicap of an almost complete lack of facilities for training, MCI put a very respectable indoor track squad in competition this winter under the guidance of Coach Norbert Young. The Husky squad opened its season at the annual New England Prep School Track Meet at Phillips Andover Academy with Richard Desmarais of MCI walking off with top honors for the day. The versatile Sanford youngster equalled the New England record in the 40 yard high hurdles, turning in 5.5 for the distance, to give MCI its only gold medal. Desmarais also placed third in the 300 yard dash, while Terrell Horne of Belfast placed fifth in the shotput with 48' 5 3/8". The Huskies placed sixth in the field of eleven schools.

The following weekend MCI dropped a heartbreaker at Orono, losing to the University of Maine Frosh but placing well in front of the combined forces of Minto High School and Rothesay Collegiate School, both from New Brunswick. Among the outstanding MCI performances at this meet were Wilbur Spencer of Berwick's first in the 600, Desmarais' wins in the broadjump and both hurdle races, and Richard Desmond of Waterville's third in the 1000 and fourths in the mile and 300.

The Huskies closed their season with a fourth place at the annual Bowdoin Interscholastics. At this meet, Horne's second in the shot was best for the day for MCI.

60 GIRLS OUT

Sixty girls reported to Coach Jean Pottle at the opening of the 1956–57 basketball season. Coach Pottle, in her first year of coaching, turned out a well-drilled varsity squad and an enthusiastic jayvee aggregation.

The Husky varsity played an eight game schedule, winning three and losing five, two of them by the margin of a single point. Most impressive of all, the team looked good, even while losing — a fact which the student body obviously appreciated. The squad, like the field hockey team in the fall season, received unusually good support from the student body.

MCI's wins came from Crosby High of Belfast, Higgins Classical, and Kents Hill.

UNDERGRADS STEAL SPOT

Despite the prep varsity's impressive record, it was the undergrad varsity of Coach Roderick Cyr that stole the spotlight during the 1956-1957 basketball season at MCI this year. In his first year on the MCI staff, Coach Cyr brought his undergrads along so well they posted a 10-2 record and up to the last minute threatened to seize a spot in the State Class L Basketball Tourney. Pups wound up their season only fractions of a point behind the eighth seded team under the Heal point system, despite the handicap of playing only eight games against public schools.

The Pups took double wins from Hermon High varsity, Hallowell High varsity, Clinton High varsity, and the Higgins Classical Jayvees, splitting with the Kents Hill School varsity and the Carmel High varsity. No team on their 12 game schedule could boast of having defeated the Pups twice in the season. Highlight of the year for the Pups was a 90-88 victory over the Kents Hill varsity.

The Undergrads, playing under Maine Principals Association rules, are often mistakenly regarded as an MCI Jayvee squad. In reality, however, the squad is just as much a varsity as it is possible for a team to be. They have their own coach, their own schedule, their own good equipment. They do not serve as a "feeder" team for the prep varsity. The squad, as is the case with the undergrad squads in football and baseball, is part of MCI's answer to the need for providing good coaching, good competition, and equal opportunity for participation in athletics for both the fifth year group and the undergraduate group at the School.

An Undergrad Jayvee club also saw action during the season, playing a five game schedule with a 2–3 record. The Junior Pups won games from the Hermon Jayvees and the Clinton Jayvees, losing to Hallowell Jayvees, Hermon Jayvees, and the Clinton Jayvees.

HUSKIES REPEAT

Coach John Dana '49, in his first year at the helm of the MCI varsity basketball team, had much to be proud of when the 1956–57 season came to a close. Not only did his Huskies keep a firm hold on the Maine Preparatory School Championship which MCI has held now for seven consecutive years, but they came within four points of annexing the New England title in a thrilling game against Worcester Academy at Northeastern University on March 9. From beginning to end, the Huskies had a fine season, playing good ball against the best competition available.

In the regular season, the Huskies posted an 11–5 record. Only the Colby Frosh could claim the distinction of beating the Huskies twice. MCI, however, posted double wins against Maine Maritime Academy and Bridgton; split with the Bates Jayvees, Husson College, and Stearns of Millinocket; and won the single games scheduled with the Bowdoin Frosh, Higgins Classical, the Maine Frosh, and Hebron.

At the state tournament, held at the University of Maine on March 2, the Huskies drew a bye and played off for the title against Bridgton, which defeated Higgins in the semifinals. Coach Dana's charges won this one easily, 67–38.

A week later, MCI travelled to Boston to attempt once more to bring home New England laurels. In the opening game against Cheshire Academy, the Huskies were victorious by a substantial margin, 71–57. Less than an hour after the close of this game, a tired MCI quintet entered the finals against Worcester, losing 59–55 after a determined and spirited fight.

As in previous years, it is difficult to single out one or two players as outstanding from a squad all of whose members contributed heavily to the overall record of success. At the State Tournament, however, All-Tourney honors were awarded to Richard Bishop of Bath, Joel Densmore of Portland, and Richard Smith of Portland. Bishop and Smith were doubly honored, being named on the All-New England team following the Northeastern games, as was Robert Morin of Bangor.

MCI BUILDERS 1956

The MCI Builders once more richly merited their name, as their combined gift amounted to $8,600 — a very substantial portion of the entire 1956 Alumni Fund. This year's Fund, with the exception of a single gift ear-marked for scholarship aid to a needy boy, will be devoted to aiding MCI meet the heavy obligations involved in the construction and equipment of the new science laboratory-classroom building. To the Builders — thirty-four in number — go once more the deep appreciation of all who love MCI and wish it well.

MCI Builders are those whose gifts in the amount of $100 or more make them in fact, as well as in name, builders of a better school.

A SPECIAL CITATION

As in previous years, your Association is proud to issue this special citation to those loyal alumni and friends of MCI whose gifts in the amount of ten dollars to ninety-nine dollars are of immeasureable aid in making the 1956 Fund a success. This year, the citation goes to 119, an increase of 36 over the number earning this special recognition during the 1955 Fund Year.

A Living Endowment

The 1956 Alumni Fund Year, which opened in May, 1956, and closed in April, 1957, was a fruitful one for your Association and your School in that it produced a fund total very nearly $1,000.00 in excess of the best previous result. In 1956, your Association received contributions amounting to $11,102.35 from 263 alumni and 15 friends of the School. The average gift of the 278 donors was a record $39.94.

An encouraging feature of the 1956 Fund Year was the increase in the number of alumni whose gifts equalled in dollars the number of years since their graduation from MCI. This year 65 alumni qualified for membership in the Dollar-A-Year Club — an increase of 13 over 1955. In the report which follows, the names of the Dollar-A-Year Club members are printed in bold type.

* CLASS NOTES *

The Reverend Joseph Bertram Coy now lives at 514 Newton Avenue, Oaklyn, N. J.

1883

We are happy to report that the Reverend Roscoe Nelson, pastor emeritus of the First Church in Windsor, Conn., was honored by his church at its new parish house on the occasion of his 95th birthday, last October 22. MCI sends its belated congratulations and best wishes for more years of fruitful service.

A new address for Cecelia Haskell Burr: Kennebunk, Me., c/o Lewis Burr.

The many friends of the Reverend Charles Johonnett of Palmyra thoroughly enjoyed a feature story on his life which appeared in the April 26, 1956, issue of the Waterville Morning Sentinel. The 92 year old pastor celebrated his birthday last year doing well once more that which he had done well so many, many times before — preaching the sermon at the Palmyra Methodist Church, from the pulpit of which he retired in 1950. Although he admits to having "let up a bit" on the farm work on his 275 acre farm in recent years, he still helps with the chores and otherwise keeps active.

We are indebted to Ethel Morrell Hooper '00 of 88 Court Street, Exeter, N. H., for information about her brother, the late Clarence H. Morrell, who received his diploma from the Commercial Department as a member of this class. Mr. Morrell was an ardent bird lover. His collection of eggs now forms part of the collections at the Smithsonian Institute in the nation's capital. A brick-maker by trade, he followed in his father's footsteps not only in his means of earning a livelihood but also in his lifelong devotion to nature study. Among the rare sets of bird eggs he collected were three sets of the Yellow Palm Warbler.

1891

Caro Murray Guimond is still in St. Petersburg, Fla., but can now be found at 4941 13th Avenue South.

1892

A new address for Dorothy M. Elliot finds her at R.F.D., Pittsfield.

The alumni office was happy to receive the address of Isabel Lothrop Vaughn (Mrs. Frank E.), 50 Forest Avenue, Everett, Mass.

The Alumnus regrets to report the death of Fred W. Burrill, distinguished Maine educator, in a convalescent home in Houlton on February 9, 1957. Mr. Burrill, who had made his home in Pemaquid for many years, was a former president of the Maine Teachers Association and a former state director and life member of the National Education Association, as well as a former director of the New England Superintendents' Association. A graduate of Bates College in 1897, he was successively principal of the high schools at Gorham, N. H., Houlton, and Franklin, N. H., before beginning a career as a superintendent of schools that took him from Island Falls to Brewer to Augusta. At the time of his retirement in 1941, he had served as superintendent of schools in Maine's capital for nineteen years. He is survived by his widow, the former Carrie Odiorne; two sons, Richard of Houlton and Meredith of Chevy Chase, Md.; and three brothers, Clyde of Fairfield, Leroy of Patten, and George of Pittsfield.

The Alumnus regrets to report the passing of Cora Janet Munroe Godwin on October 21 at her home in Albion after a long illness. She had lived in Albion for over forty years but had spent her winters in Florida since her husband's death in 1925. She is survived by a sister, Maude Munroe Mudgett' 96, and a niece, Ruth Mudgett Louder '24.

1896

The Alumnus regrets to report the death of Ralph I. Morse, distinguished Waldo County attorney, at his home in Belfast on January 31, 1957. Mr. Morse, retired from active practice at the time of his death, had more than half a century of legal experience. A graduate of Bates College and the Yale University Law School, he was long associated with Robert F. and John R. Duncan in the practice of law in Belfast and later continued practice under the firm name of Duncan and Morse. Honorary president of the Waldo County Bar Association and a member of the Maine Bar Association, Mr. Morse was president of the Belfast Home for Aged Women. He had been active in the Masonic orders. He is survived by his widow, Maude Fuller Morse, to whom the Alumnus extends the sympathy of the Alumni Association.

1898

Ada Damon Hopkins, with her reservations for the 1956 Homecoming already made, had the misfortune to fall in her home and break her hip the day before that event. Principal and Mrs. Edward Stanley visited her in the Hartland hospital and took her a bouquet from the banquet, together with the condolences and good wishes of her many friends in the alumni group. The Alumnus is pleased to report she has since effected a good recovery. Address: R.F.D. 2, Pittsfield, Me.

New addresses: Helen Haskell Mac-Farlane, c/o J. Wilcox, Pleasant Street, Rangeley, Me.; Ena Tucker Trumbull, 8 Carroll Street, Methuen, Mass.

The Alumnus regrets to report the death of Laforest J. Hathorn at the age of 83 on April 6, 1956, at his Burnham farm home where he was born and had lived his long life. Mr. Hathorn, who attended Bates College after his graduation from MCI, is survived by his widow, Mrs. Blanche Hathorn; a daughter, Ermine Hathorn Trecartin '37, and a son, Capt. Vincent Hathorn, U.S.N., '31.

Lila Merrow Cargill has moved to 76 Dogwood Road, Plainsville, Conn., where she makes her home with her daughter, Geraldine Cargill Soper '33.

The Alumnus regrets to report the death of Nellie Rand in a Lewiston hospital on December 28. For many years secretary to the commanding general at Chanute Field, Ill., Miss Rand had made her home in Skowhegan, until moving to Pittsfield a few weeks prior to her death.

The year has seen two address changes recorded in the alumni office for Callie Butler Tibbetts: the first to Newcastle, Me., and the most recent to 27 Turner Street, Apt. 3, Portland, Me.

The Alumnus regrets to report the death of Carroll B. Connor, as reported by George Wood, his step-son. Mr. Connor died De-cember 26, 1955, in Nashville, Tenn., and was buried at Hill, N. H.

A new address finds Herman R. Mansur removed from Winthrop, Me., to 14028 E. Paisley Drive, Madeira Beach, Fla.

In a note received in February, Hamilton L. Davis of 332 Main Street, Worcester, Mass., reported the death of Harry P. McAllister of the same address in January,

Marine officer LeRoy E. Harris, husband of Muriel James, oldest foster daughter of Vivian Laughton James, has recently been promoted to the rank of major. Mrs. James daughter Catherine and her husband, Col. John E. Sherden, were touring Sweden when Mrs. James wrote last October. Colonel Sherden's command is in Stuttgart, Germany. The Sherden's elder son, John, was grandered Hebron Academy on June 3, 1956, and from Hebron Academy on June 3, 1956, a The Sherden's elder son, John, was graduated younger son, David, was honored in Stuttgart with the presentation of a plaque and a purse of money by the American Women's Club of Stuttgart. David was the highest ranking sophomore in the Stuttgart area. He was also honored by his school for his work in the

The Alumni Office was happy to hear from

The Alumni Office was happy to hear from Charlotte Somers Cole and add her name to the class roster. Mrs. Cole's address is 119 Putnam Street, Quincy, Mass.

A note from Edith Goodwin Abbott, Box 335, Gales Ferry, Conn., conveyed her good wishes for the School and its new science building project.

Hugh Goodwin is now living at 6627 Stewart Avenue N., St. Petersburg, Fla.

Dr. Carl Stevens continues to keep busy with the practice of medicine in Belfast, where he lives at 1 Court Street.

1904

Theoretically retired, Earle N. Vickery manages to find plenty to do with his time, devoting much of it to service in the field of education throughout Maine. An active education throughout Maine. An active member of the State Board of Education and longtime treasurer of MCI's Board of Trustees, Mr. Vickery was elected last March to serve on Pittsfield's new school housing board. Among his colleagues in this new endeavor are Maurice L. Earle, former dean of boys at MCI; Richard F. Austin, husband of Evelyn Webendorfer Austin '45; Clair L. Cianchette '41; and Iva Cianchette Cregnole '35.

The alumni office has recorded two address changes this year for Agnes Vaughn Woods, the most recent being RFD Waite Corners, North Brookfield, Mass., c/o C. F. Woods-Stiel.

Harris V. Mathews, sr., was elected to serve on Pittsfield's Poard of Selectmen for a three year term at the annual town meeting in early March. Mr. Mathews polled 402 votes to win in a walk in the six man race for the two seats. The other victor, also an MCl alumnus, was Robert Beattie '48. The Alumnus congratulates Mr. Mathews on this latest addition to his career in public service.

Adah Clark Brown moved to a new San Francisco address last fall, but apparently Francisco address last fall, but apparently the dampness on the West Coast did not agree with her, and she has recently moved to 760 East 11th Street in Erie, Penna.

Charles Snow sent along a quote from a letter from Charles Magoon, '05's loyal president, in Mesa, Ariz., which read as follows: "MCI always has been a grand school and it is forging ahead wonderfully—not merely in athletics but in scholastics as not merely in athletics but in scholastics as well. I have always been proud to be an old grad of MCI and now more than ever."

Class Secretary Charles Snow's customarily excellent class letter under the date of December 16, 1956, bore the glad tidings that Zana E. Prescott is now in better health than she has been for several Miss Prescott reminisced that she vears. years. Miss Prescott reminisced that she once taught for five years in Winchester, Mass., where former MCI Principal W. Howard Niblock now heads Winchester High School. Her home, at 1307 East 41st Street in Seattle, Wash., is close to the beautiful University of Washington campus, where she takes frequent summer walks. "From the setting of the flag pole there is a wonderful view of Mt. Ranier where one can sit and watch the pink glow of the sunset fade away." As Mr. Snow comments, "Must be wonderful!"

Ida Tibbetts Schenk and her husband, Bill, were welcome guests at the 1956 homecoming. The Schenks moved into a newly renovated home last spring, where Bill has a real clock shop connected with the house and is doing the work nearest to his likingbuying, selling, and repairing antique clocks. Address: 10 Forest Street, Box 19, Byfield, Amy Porter of South Main Street, Pittsfield, reports a very pleasant visit with Vera Bryant Kendall and her husband in Ocean Park, Me., last September.

Mary Sweetland of 26 Linden Avenue in Cranston, R. I., reported a fine visit from Ida Tibbetts Schenk and Mr. Schenk last fall. Mary continues a very loyal friend to Gladys Leighton Hill, of 15 Fairfax Road, Milton, Mass., is the corresponding secretary of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, a position which places her in the forefront of public service activities both in Milton and throughout the Common which is a very bury person but found wealth. She is a very busy person but found time to visit Mrs. F. U. Landman at the Tox-A-Way Convalescent Home in Union, N. H. She reports that Mrs. Landman, although she is partially paralyzed and confined to her bed, is very keen and cheerful. The Alumnus is sorry to report that Mrs. Hill lost her husband last April.

Harry W. Rowe is the new governor of District 285 of Rotary International. It is his responsibility to coordinate the activities of forty-one Rotary clubs in part of Maine and in Quebec, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire. Mr. Rowe will be retired from his position as dean of the faculty at Bates College in 1958 — but we venture to predict it will be many years more before people cease thinking of Dean Rowe when they think of Bates College.

Esther Morrison Dale attended the 1956 reunion and reports she has a son, Ralph, living in Buffalo, and a daughter, Ruth, who has four children. Mrs. Dale's address is 938 Middle Street, Bath, Me.

Were it not for the presence of Ewart Hodgins '42, on leave from his duties in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia, at the 1956 Homecoming festivities, it would have been difficult to challenge Dora Norton Billing's claim to the title of "MCI alumnus who has travelled farthest" on that day. At any event, Mrs. Billing's many friends and classmates were happy to welcome her on campus at the golden anniversary reunion for '06. Mrs. Billings has lived in California since 1929 and has three daughters and four grand-children. Address: 824 South David Avenue, Stockton, Calif.
A note from Harry Rowe discloses that

Elton Quinn is now retired from his position as head of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Utah. Dean Rowe reports that Professor Quinn is regarded as "tops" among West Coast scientists. He now lives by himself with a fairly large house and yard to keep himself well occupied. He has one

City, Utah.

Ethel M. Reed is now retired from the nursing profession. Her two addresses are 310 Summit Avenue, Summit, N. J., and Northeast Harbor, Me.

The Alumni Office was glad to receive an address for Grace Phillips Simpson of Shirley, Me., so that we could bring our files more nearly up-to-date.

Herman Richardson left his tourist park in Florida to attend the 50th Reunion last summer and convinced William Smith to drive from Newport to Pittsfield to attend

We were sorry that disability prevented Leonora Shaw Townsend of Newport from joining her classmates at the August reunion.

Helen Weymouth Garcelon of Troy, Me., attended all festivities at the 1956 Golden Anniversary Reunion. With eight to her credit, Mrs. Garcelon holds the record for having the most children in the '06 class.

Iona Willis Kierstead has the ideal schedule - summers at 15 Cottage Street in Bar Harbor, winters in Florida.

Rae E. Butler, husband of Harriet Burns Butler, was honored recently by the Pittsfield Odd Fellows after thirty-one years of service as financial secretary of Phlentoma Lodge No. 51. He was presented an appropriately engraved plaque by Past Noble Grand Lawrence Coffin '29. Rae is a past noble grand of the local lodge, which he joined on October 9, 1909. He has also served as Grand Herald of the Grand Lodge of Maine.

The Alumnus regrets to report the death of Harriet Burns Butler at her North Main Street home in Pittsfield on March 31, 1957, following a long illness. Born in Brennan, Minnesota, Mrs. Butler had made her home in Pittsfield since infancy. She was a graduate of Shaw's Business College in Portland and had served the Parks Bros. Insurance Agency in a secretarial capacity for 39 years before her retirement a decade ago. Mrs. Butler was a past noble grand of the Waverly Rebekah Lodge and a member of the Dirigo Past Noble Grands Association. The Asso-Past Noble Grands Association. ciation extends its sympathy to her husband, Rae E. Butler.

The Golden Anniversary class are always guests of the Alumni Association on Homecoming Day, and it is sincerely hoped that they will all attend. This office would appreciate it very much if all those who wish to attend the class luncheon at the Lancey House on Saturday noon would so inform us. We will be happy to make all reservations. You will receive a letter sometime in June with more details on the events of the day.

The School was happy to hear from Ross P. Chamberlain making inquiries about plans for the fiftieth reunion of the '07 class on August 3rd. He lives at 66 Union Squares, Dover Foxcroft. Percy T. Clark of Ellsworth retired from the Maine Supreme Court on June 15, 1956, four days before his 71st birthday. His retirement was of short duration, however, as he was nominated by the governor to be an active retired justice on the same tribunal on June 19—just four days later. The nomination came as a fine birthday present for a highly respected jurist.

Walter Sargent's address is Littleton, Mass

Dr. Clair E. Turner, public health authority of international fame, made the initial gift which made possible the opening of the Mary Chalmers Turner historical room at Ocean Park. The room will house early correspondence, documents, official records,

A note from Flora Gleason Ames expressed her regret that lameness prevents her attendance at MCI reunions. Her address: RFD 1, Norridgewock, Me.

Iva Willis joined the MCI faculty last September as instructor in French, succeeding Mrs. Bert L. Pratt, who resigned last June. Miss Willis brought back to her alma mater a wealth of experience gained since she left the School — as a student at Colby, a graduate student at Columbia University and elsewhere, and as a French teacher in the New York State system and more recently at Lee Academy. This winter, from December 27–30, Miss Willis represented MCI at the 29th annual convention of the American Association of Teachers of French. Held in conjunction with the sessions of the Modern Language Association, the convention had its headquarters at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D. C. Miss Willis and her colleagues had the pleasure of hearing addresses by Radeu Nugrobo, minister counselor of the Embassy of Indonesia; D. K. Hingorani, educational attache of the Indian Embassy; Edward Yeheskeel Kutscher, Embassy; Edward Yeheskeel Kutscher, Israeli scholar and professor of Hebrew at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem; Henry de Torrente, Minister from Switzerland; Louis Couillard, Canadian Embassy counselor; and the Hon. The Alumnus regrets to report the death of Marion Davis Burrill on September 27, 1956, in Brewer, where she and her husband, Clifford Burrill '11, had lived at 22 School Street since 1920. After graduating from MCI, Mrs. Burrill taught school until her marriage. She had long been very active in the Brewer First Congregational Church.

The Alumnus regrets to report that Vera Bean Travers passed away two or three years ago. Sorry, no further details are known here.

Alma F. Patten, loyal and efficient longtime treasurer of the Alumni Association, received a fine vote of confidence at Pittsfield's annual town meeting in March, when she was re-elected town treasurer without opposition. Miss Patten has a busy life, working in the offices at the Scott-Webb Memorial Hospital in Hartland in addition to her duties as guardian of Pittsfield's municipal funds.

The alumni office was pleased to hear re-cently from F. Harold Bickford of Ocean Park, Me., who requested addresses for a number of his classmates with whom he had lost contact over the years. The alumni office is always especially pleased to be able to provide information of this type and welcomes requests to do so.

Harold Furbush makes his home in Hartland. He has three sons — Perry of Palmyra; Clarence '50, a student at the University of Maine, and Herbert, in the service in England; and a daughter, Hilda Furbush Bishop, postmistress at St. Albans.

The alumni office carries one member of this class, Earle C. Phillips, as missing. Anyone possessing any information about Mr. Phillips is asked to contact this office.

The Alumnus is happy to record an address for Rosella Grady Lataille (Mrs. C. W.): 11 Mill Street, West Warwick, R. I. Mrs. Lataille is teaching school in West Warwick.

Dr. and Mrs. Earle A. Harding of 2301 Ridgeway Road, Wilmington, Del., were welcome returnees to the campus last August at the annual homecoming. The Hardings have two married daughters and four grandchildren.

1955 was the 40th reunion year for 1915, and Homer Ray came all the way from Clark's Summit, Pennsylvania, to attend. He was disappointed, of course, to find just one classmate present, so when the '56 reunion began to take form, he joined forces with his wife, Helen Libby Ray '16, and Verna Coffin Farrow '16 to try to get some of his classmates back for a combined reunion of the '15 and '16 classes.

Homer and Helen spent the month of July touring the eastern states, visiting classmates and talking up the reunion. Apparently some of their enthusiasm rubbed off, because two days before the August homecoming the '15ers and '16ers began to arrive on campus.

The dormitories were open, as usual, to those who wished to stay, and Weymouth Hall rocked slightly the first night with Walter Colby and his wife, Lee and Kathleen Phillips Holbrook, and the Rays holding forth. The crowning point came when Helen awoke about five a.m. to discover the lights still burning in the hall outside her room. Being of good thrifty Maine stock, she arose and flipped a switch just outside her door. It was the fire alarm. Needless to say, the day started early for Fund-raising, even for the most worthy cause, is at best challenging, difficult, and not always pleasureable. It is doubly refreshing, then, to receive an assist from those being solicited. This was our experience at MCI this year, when Frank and Beth Russell McCausland, a pair of especially loyal '14 graduates, submitted the following poem. We just felt it was too good to keep to ourselves. Those who know the McCauslands will know it comes from the heart.

We sent our small donation To the School we like so well, Folded up our check book! And felt that all was well. Then came along a letter About a hole to fill; It didn't seem that we could give Another little mill. That picture seemed to haunt us, T'was such a barren view; We, the School's alumni, Simply must come through. We looked our budget over And said "This bill can wait;" We want that building started This year at any rate. Why, that's the place where first we met Over forty years ago! If it wasn't for that co-ed School Our row'd been hard to hoe. "Let's have the pen and ink," Pa said, "Here goes for MCI. "Why that's where I played football "Against old Bangor High." Our check book now is very flat, But we don't care at all If we have helped one little bit To build that Science Hall.

122 YEARS OF POSTAL KNOW-HOW were lost to the Pittsfield Post Office in December when the three veterans pictured above retired. Shown receiving the congratulations of Postmaster Fred Stafford '38 are (left to right) Lyman Byther '14, with 42 years of service; Roy Burdick, mail carrier with 39 years of service; and Assistant Postmaster Walter Webendorfer '13, retiring with 41 years of postal service. School Street, Waterville, who helped spearhead the successful reunion; Florence Hillman Folsom, 3 Wilson Street, Anson, who helps her husband with a small grocery store and real estate business; Edith M. Mitchell of Unity, who has spent a life time teaching; Thelma Nason Palmer, RFD 1, Corinna; Helen Libby Ray, 310 Landsdowne Avenue, Clark's Summit, Penna., the other half of the duo who organized the reunion; Harold Roney, 20 Ocean View Road, Cape Elizabeth, a salesman for a steel warehouse in Portland for many years; Amelia Haskell Stevens and Van Stevens, 20 Marlowe Street, Portland, very faithful in returning for home-comings; and Hazel Larrabee Whitten of Newport.

The Alumni Office reminds all members of '17 that this is their 40th reunion year, and plans will be made for special observation of the event on Alumni Day in August. Why not keep August 3rd open and make plans to be on the campus? If you can't come, please write this office all about yourselves and family. Sometime in May you will hear more definite reunion plans.

The Alumnus regrets to report the death of George F. Hubbard, a highly respected citizen of Pittsfield, on May 16, 1956. He had worked as a young man in the stock room at the Pioneer Mill, but for the last 28 years had operated Hubbard's Garage in Pittsfield. Mrs. Paul Coolidge, for many years a commercial instructor at MCI prior to her retirement in 1954, was recently elected president of the Pittsfield Tuesday Club.

A daughter, Ellen Lee, was born to Dean and Mrs. Bert L. Pratt on January 23, 1957. Mrs. Pratt is the former Miss Beverly Cushman, instructor in French from 1953 to 1956. The announcement of Dean Pratt's resignation, effective at the end of the current school year, was received with regret by all at the school recently. No announcement of the Pratt's future plans has been forthcoming as yet.

meeting, for instance, articles by the syndicated columnist George Sokolsky, in which he discussed the Elvis Presley phenomenon, were used as the springboard for a discussion of what taste is, and what creates taste.

Students and faculty alike agree that the weekly evening discussions are both enjoyable and stimulating, and parental reactions have been highly favorable.

BACK WHEN

Hamilton was president of the senior class and manager of the varsity football squad, which posted a remarkable 6–1 record, blemished only by a 7–0 defeat at the hands of the Bates Freshmen. Highlight of the season was a stunning 27–0 victory over Hebron. Coach Lindholm's charges held all their opponents scoreless, with the exception of Bates. In a team as successful as this one, it is always difficult to single out a star, but Duke Elliott managed to be a stand-out, even playing with ten other stand-outs.

EIGHT YEARS AGO

1949 — Paul W. Legge and Alice P. Coolidge were the senior class advisors, with David McIntire of South Berwick as senior class president. Other class officers for the seniors were William Nealley of Bangor, vice president; Joyce Jackson of Pittsfield, treasurer; and Joan Cookson of Pittsfield, secretary . . . Mrs. Anna Furbush was the coach for the annual senior play, "Don't Take My Penny," starring Harriet Riley, Chester Davis, Mary Jipson, Ray Brown, Basil Tasker, Colleen Clement, Joan Cookson, Helen Crowell, John Brewer, Robert Tibbetts, Maxine Field, Peter Havey, Blanche Gordon, Barbara Ackley, Marilyn Fowler, Wayne Perseille, and the Cushmans, Hartland and Howard . . . Richard Doherty headed the junior class; Sally Cianchette, the sophomore; and Lawrence Hallee, the freshman . . . Ray Brown was editor of the Talisman, with Colby Merchant as his associate editor... There were still enough strings to make possible an orchestra, and Mr. Williams built the Pop Concert program around the work of this group . . . A student dance orchestra, too, was popular on campus . . . Coach Nels Corey's varsity football squad ended a wonderful season undefeated and untied, while Larry Muzroll's undergrads posted a respectable 4-1 record . . . The cross country squad, coached by Maurice Earle, won what was to be the first in a series of state championships in that sport, paced by Capt. Norman Levasseur, who won seven out of his eight starts in the season...Dick Getchell and Walker Cooper were stand-outs for MCI in the indoor track season.

play exchange program between schools; and third, the inclusion "in our yearly dramatic program (of) at least one play for the little children."

Mr. Cahill is well qualified to make these suggestions, as he came to MCI this year with two highly successful years of directing the dramatics program at Madison High School.

Mr. Cahill also wrote the article, "A Rose Is a Rose Is a Rose," published in the May (1956) Maine Teacher. In this article he acts as a Socratic gadfly to the State Department of Education, pointing out flaws in the present requirements for certification of teachers, and suggesting alternate methods of certification.

Another MCI teacher, Norval B. Lewis, has also contributed articles to professional periodicals during his tenure at MCI, including two published during the current school year.

Most recently, "The Loyal Opposition" appeared in the February 15 (1957) Scholastic Teacher. In this article, Mr. Lewis suggested one practicable method for stimulating active student participation in class: keep the students alert by occasionally making intentional errors, and encouraging them to point out the errors.

In an earlier article in the Maine Teacher (December, 1956), Mr. Lewis reported on the success of a group unique in the schools of Maine. This group is the Humanities Colloquium, of which Mrs. Frances Piper and Mr. Lewis are the advisors.

Mr. Lewis has also contributed articles to The Clearing House and Scholastic Teacher on various phases of the use of paperbound books in schools. A couple of brief articles in The Christian Science Monitor, editorship of the Pittsfield Advertiser last summer, and a regular column, "Book News," in the Advertiser complete the list of Mr. Lewis's publications while at MCI.

It would be easy to overlook the contributions of our principal, Edward R. Stanley, to publications in recent years simply because so many of us are so accustomed to his publications. Yet he has served MCI faithfully for many years, not only in producing the Alumnus but also as public relations director at MCI and several years as editor of the Pittsfield Advertiser.

It has been suggested that it is especially good to see these men represented in state and national publications, for in writing articles they have had to produce what they have preached to class after class of students in their English sections at MCI.
