Who Enforces Title IX?
Why It Matters To You

KEY TERMS
Discrimination

The differential treatment of an individual or group of people based on a protected characteristic

Examples of Protected Characteristics

- Race, color, national origin
- Religion
- Ethnicity
- Sex (including gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, and pregnancy)
- Age
- Disability
Harassment

One type of discrimination: Unwelcome conduct, verbal or physical, including intimidation, ridicule, insult, comments, or physical conduct, that is based on an individual’s protected characteristic.

Sexual Harassment

One type of harassment, where the conduct is based on sex, including gender, gender identity, or sexual orientation, or pregnancy.
Title IX Sexual Harassment

One type of sexual harassment, where the conduct meets certain requirements in the 2020 Title IX regulations (effective August 14, 2020)

Retaliation

A harmful act against a person that is made in response to that person or another person’s report, complaints, or participation in a report/complaint process

Title IX

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance....”

LGBTQ+ is “Sex” Under Title IX

- OCR Guidance, June 2021 - “On the basis of sex” encompasses discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation and gender identity
- So to OCR, Title IX prohibits discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity
What is Title IX?

- Athletics
- Discipline
- Pregnant/Parenting Students
- Single-Sex Education
- Sexual Harassment
- Retaliation

2020 Title IX Rules

- Issued by the Trump administration’s Office for Civil Rights
- Effective August 14, 2020
- Will likely still be in effect until the end of the 2023 calendar year
- Include significant requirements for handling complaints of sexual harassment under Title IX
Today Is Sexual Harassment, But...

Complaints under Title IX, including different treatment and retaliation, that do not involve sexual harassment should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator, who must address them; they will not be addressed under the Title IX sexual harassment process we are talking about today.
What Did The 2020 Rules Require?

- Designate Title IX Coordinator
- Inform individuals of the identity of the title IX Coordinator
- Post the Title IX Coordinator’s name/title, address, email address, and telephone number on the school’s website

What Does Title IX Require for Sexual Harassment?

- Have and share publicly its Title IX sexual harassment policy and grievance procedure
- Use that policy and procedure any time it receives a report or complaint of covered conduct
- Train all Title IX coordinators, investigators, decision-makers (initial complaint and appellate), and informal resolution facilitators (the “Title IX Team”)
T9SH Training Requirements

- Comments to the 2020 Title IX rules noted that the rules require schools to “hire and train multiple individuals to fill different roles, thus increasing compliance costs”
- Said schools must undertake these costs “even if they rarely have Title IX complaints and investigations”

OCR’s Response: “[W]e believe that the costs and burdens on regulated entities serve the important purpose of furthering Title IX’s non-discrimination mandate”
Training Required for Team

- The definition of sexual harassment
- The scope of the education program or activity
- How to conduct an investigation and grievance process including appeals and informal resolution processes
- How to serve impartially, including by avoiding prejudgment of the facts at issue, conflicts of interest, and bias

Investigator Training

Issues of relevance to create an investigative report that fairly summarizes relevant evidence
Decision-Maker Training

Issues of relevance of questions and evidence, including when questions and evidence about the complainant’s sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior are not relevant.

Training: How Much is Enough?

- OCR estimated at least 8 hours of initial training needed with additional training each subsequent year
- Some in the industry suggest far more than 8 hours for competence
- There is no clear industry standard, so schools must prepare for this argument in future disputes
Training Recommendations

- Required: All required training in Title IX rules for all “roles”

  This is what we are covering today

- Recommended: Interactive, role-playing/scenario-based trainings for each Title IX Team role

Additional Training Tidbits

All materials used to train Title IX Team members must be posted on the school/district website (or made available by request if no website)
Additional Training Tidbits

Any materials used to train Title IX Coordinators, investigators, decision-makers, and any person who facilitates an informal resolution process, must:

- Not rely on sex stereotypes
- Promote impartial investigations and adjudications of formal complaints of sexual harassment

It’s ok—T&H Trainings comply!

T9SH Grievance Process: When & What is Required

A K-12 school in which any employee has actual knowledge of “Title IX Sexual Harassment” in its education program or activity and against a person in the United States must respond using the Title IX Sexual Harassment process.
Why Does It Matter?

Just because conduct not covered by Title IX does not mean you will ignore it; you will just use your code of conduct or another, non-Title IX process to address it.
But If It Is Title IX....

If any school employee is aware of allegations of Title IX Sexual Harassment in an education program or activity of the school and in the U.S., the school cannot impose punitive or disciplinary consequences on the alleged perpetrator until it has used the Title IX sexual harassment process. You MUST use the Title IX process.

“Title IX Sexual Harassment”

The Title IX “Big 5” or Title IX “Hostile Environment”

Title IX “Big 5”

- Employee Quid Pro Quo
- Sexual Assault
- Domestic Violence
- Dating Violence
- Stalking

as defined in the federal higher education laws, the Clery Act and the Violence Against Women Act
#1 of the “Big 5”

Employee Quid Pro Quo

- An employee of the recipient conditioning an aid, service, or benefit of the school on an individual’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct

- Examples:
  - Requesting sexual favors for a benefit or service
  - Threatening to remove a benefit or service unless a person engages in sexual favors
  - Expecting sexual favors for a benefit or service

#2 of the “Big 5”

Sexual Assault (Clery Definition)

- Forcible or nonforcible sex

- Forcible: without consent, including where one cannot give consent
  - Rape, sodomy, assault with an object, fondling

- Non-forcible: Incest, Statutory Rape
#3 of the “Big 5”

Domestic Violence (VAWA Definition)

- Felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence
- Committed by a current or former romantic partner, spouse, former spouse, intimate partner, person who shares a child, person similarly situated to a spouse, adults against a person protected under domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction

#4 of the “Big 5”

Dating Violence (VAWA Definition)

- Committed by a person who has been in a romantic or intimate social relationship with the victim
- Consider the complainant’s description of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of the interaction between the persons involved in determining the nature of the relationship
- Can include sexual, physical, emotional, or psychological violence
#5 of the “Big 5”

Stalking (VAWA Definition)

- A course of conduct based on sex (2+ times)
- Directed at a specific person
- That would cause a reasonable person to fear for the person’s safety or the safety of others or to suffer substantial emotional distress
- Conduct can be direct or indirect, and does not require professional medical treatment

In K-12, The Big Ones in the Big 5 Are:

- Sexual Assault (rape, oral sex without consent)
- Fondling (touching a private body part above or below the clothing without consent for purposes of sexual gratification)
- Dating Violence (physical or mental violence by current or former romantic partner)
What About Consent?

- Title IX generally prohibits “unwelcome” conduct based on sex
- “Consent” comes into play in sexual assault cases, including those involving fondling

What is Consent?

- Not defined by OCR/the 2020 Title IX rules
- Must be defined in your policies/procedures
What is Consent

Generally, consent means the existence of clearly understandable words or actions that manifest a knowing, active, voluntary, and present and ongoing agreement to engage in specific sexual or intimate conduct by one not suffering from incapacitation.

Incapacitation

- Should a reasonable person in the same circumstances have known the other party could or could not consent to the sexual Activity?
- Consent is not present when an individual does not have the capacity to give consent, voluntarily or involuntarily, due to:
  - Age (younger than 17 in Texas, with exceptions for parties 18 years and under and less than 3 years apart)
  - Physical condition, such as incapacitation due to alcohol or drug consumption (voluntary or involuntary), being unconscious, asleep, or in another state in which the person is unaware that the sexual activity is occurring
  - Disability that impairs the individual's ability to give consent.

Unwelcome Conduct

Effectively Denies Equal Access

Based on Sex

Objectively Offensive

Severe

Pervasive

Consider:

- the degree to which the conduct affected the student’s education
- the type, frequency, and duration of the conduct
- the relationship between the victim and the participant
- the number of individuals involved
- the age and sex of the participants
- size of school, location of incidents, and context
- other incidents of sex-based harassment

Sexual Harassment: Hostile Environment
Dictionary Definitions: Severe

- Very bad, serious, or unpleasant; causing a lot of physical pain or suffering; very harsh (Merriam-Webster)
- Strict, austere or intense with disastrous consequences. (Black's Law Dictionary)

Case Definitions: Severe

- “Severe” means something more than just juvenile behavior among students, even behavior that is antagonistic, non-consensual, and crass.
- Simple acts of teasing and name-calling are not enough, even where these comments target differences in gender.

Kollaritsch v. Michigan State Univ. Bd. of Trustees, 944 F.3d 613, 620 (6th Cir. 2019), cert. denied, 141 S. Ct. 554, 208 L. Ed. 2d 175 (2020)
Case Definitions: Severe

To establish “severe” harassment, the conduct must be extreme and not merely rude or unpleasant.

Jenkins v. Univ. of Minnesota, 131 F. Supp. 3d 860, 881 (D. Minn. 2015), aff’d, 838 F.3d 938 (8th Cir. 2016)

Case Definitions: Severe

A school is not perfectly analogous to a workplace, and minor students are not perfectly analogous to adults. Accordingly, some behaviors that plainly would be out of place in a workplace may be tolerable in a school setting as part of the ordinary social development of the school’s students.

At least early on, students are still learning how to interact appropriately with their peers, so it is unsurprising that they may engage in insults, banter, teasing, shoving, pushing, and gender-specific conduct that is upsetting.

Dictionary Definitions: Pervasive

Spread over a large area, either metaphorically, or in a literal manner. For instance, rumors can be quite pervasive amongst people. (Black’s Law Dictionary)

Case Definitions: Pervasive

- “Pervasive” means “systemic” or “widespread.” For sexual harassment under Title IX, it also means multiple incidents of harassment; one incident of harassment is not usually enough.
- Most single incidents could be sufficiently severe that it would result in the articulated injury but a single incident would normally fall short of Title IX's requirement of “systemic” harassment.

Kollaritsch v. Michigan State Univ. Bd. of Trustees, 944 F.3d 613, 620 (6th Cir. 2019), cert. denied, 141 S. Ct. 554, 208 L. Ed. 2d 175 (2020)
Case Definitions: Pervasive

- Even a single incident of rape is sufficient to establish that a [complainant] was subjected to severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive sexual harassment for purposes of Title IX.

- A single incident of rape could reasonably be understood to have a “systemic effect” on a plaintiff’s access to educational programs.

By limiting private damages actions to cases having a systemic effect on educational programs or activities, we reconcile the general principle that Title IX prohibits official indifference to known peer sexual harassment with the practical realities of responding to student behavior, realities that Congress could not have meant to be ignored.

Kollaritsch v. Michigan State Univ. Bd. of Trustees, 944 F.3d 613, 620 (6th Cir. 2019), cert. denied, 141 S. Ct. 554, 208 L. Ed. 2d 175 (2020)
Case Definitions: Pervasive

Pervasive is defined as “that becomes or tends to become diffused throughout every part of,” and is different from the word “persistent.”

---

Dictionary Definitions: Objectively Offensive

- “Objective”: Existing independently of perception or an individual's conceptions (Reverso)
- “Offensive”: Unpleasant or disgusting, as to the sense (Reverso)
Case Definitions: Objectively Offensive

“Objectively offensive” means behavior that would be offensive to a reasonable person under the circumstances, not merely offensive to the victim, personally or subjectively.

Whether gender-oriented conduct rises to the level of actionable harassment thus depends on a constellation of surrounding circumstances, expectations, and relationships, including, but not limited to, the ages of the harasser and the victim and the number of individuals involved. The victim’s perceptions are not determinative.

The objective offensiveness of a comment is to be judged by reference to a reasonable child at whom the comments were aimed.

Examples

Male student
Called “gay,” “homo” and “fgot” on multiple occasions by other male students
A student grabbed his genitals and engaged in a simulated sexual act while he waited in line in the school cafeteria
He was told in no uncertain terms that he was not welcome in the school because it was believed he was a homosexual
He was slapped, punched and struck with a neck-chain while the perpetrators made statements showing that they intended to harass, harm and demean him based on his perceived sexual orientation
In the circumstances, a reasonable person in L.W.’s protected class would believe that the school environment was hostile and threatening.

Examples

Male students videotaped and shared videotapes of female students engaging in sexual encounters with male students on premises of their respective schools. While the cases currently before the court do not include allegations of forcible rape, they do involve substantial violations of the students' sexual autonomy, which is relevant to just how pervasive the ensuing conduct needed to be to rise to the level of actionable harassment.

Indeed, it is inaccurate to characterize these cases as involving simple, isolated events. Being taped during sexual activity without permission is an isolated event. The video's being sent to another person is a second event. The next transmission is a third. The availability of the videos was widespread. In a contemporary high school, there is little that is more "pervasive" than electronic communication.

Examples

A male student put all of his weight on a female student, touched her breasts, stomach and legs over her clothing, and bit her neck hard enough to leave a mark.

Undoubtedly, this behavior is inappropriate and should not be condoned, but it is not adequately severe or pervasive to be covered by Title IX.

The court cited cases involving one incident of male student touching a female student's breasts and buttocks, and other incidents of name-calling, insults, and physical harassment, which was found not sufficiently pervasive or severe from an objective standpoint, and two separate incidents with two male students, where one boy touched female student's vagina through her skirt and other boy slapped her buttocks, which was found not sufficiently pervasive under Title IX.

Carabello v. New York City Dep't of Educ., 928 F. Supp. 2d 627, 643 (E.D.N.Y. 2013)
Effective Denial

Evaluate whether a reasonable person in the alleged victim’s position would be effectively denied equal access to education compared to a similarly situated person who is not suffering the alleged sexual harassment.

Examples may include:
- Skipping class to avoid a harasser
- A decline in a student’s grade point average
- Difficulty concentrating in class
- A third grader who starts bed-wetting or crying at night due to sexual harassment
- A high school wrestler who quits the team but carries on with other school activities following sexual harassment
Effective Denial of Equal Access

- A complainant does not need to have already suffered loss of education before being able to report sexual harassment
- Effective denial of equal access to education does not require that a person’s total or entire educational access has been denied
- While these examples help illustrate an effective denial of access, no concrete injury is required to prove an effective denial of equal access

Complainants do not need to have dropped out of school, failed a class, had a panic attack, or otherwise reached a “breaking point” or exhibited specific trauma symptoms to be effectively denied equal access

School officials turning away a complainant by deciding the complainant was “not traumatized enough” would be impermissible

Program

Activity
Education Program or Activity

The sexual harassment must occur within the school’s educational program or activity

- This can be on or off campus
- It “includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the recipient exercised substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurs”

Education Program or Activity

- Includes any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by a postsecondary institution
  - Fraternities, sororities, or sports team houses are covered
- Includes situations where the off-campus incident occurs as part of the recipient’s “operations” pursuant to 20 U.S.C. § 1687 and 34 CFR 106.2(h)
Education Program or Activity

- Title IX applies to electronic, digital, or online harassment regardless of the method by which the conduct is perpetrated; if the sexual harassment occurred in an education program or activity or the educational institution has substantial control over the alleged harasser and the context of the harassment, it is covered.

- “Operations” can include computer and internet networks, digital platforms, and computer hardware or software owned or operated by or used in the operations of the recipient.

Education Program or Activity

Factors such as whether the recipient funded, promoted, or sponsored the event or circumstance where the alleged harassment occurred may be helpful or useful for recipients to consider to determine the scope of a recipient’s program or activity, but no single factor is determinative.
Education Program or Activity

Conduct that begins outside of an education program or activity may continue into the education program or activity (“downstream effects”)

Example: Where a teacher employed by a school visits a student’s home ostensibly to give the student a book but in reality to instigate sexual activity with the student
Education Program or Activity

- Basic instruction
- Guidance, counseling, and evaluation services
- Cocurricular and extracurricular activities
- Health services
- Student transportation
- Food services
- Social work services

Education Program or Activity

- Field trips
- Early College High Schools
- Career and technical programs
- Early (pre-kindergarten) learning
- Athletics
- Special education
- Visual and performing arts
Education Program or Activity

Did the school promote or sponsor the event?

Examples
  - Instructional programs
  - Athletic programs
  - Student organizations

For Off-Campus Conduct, Ask: Did the conduct occur:
  - Via school technology
  - During remote learning
  - During school hours

If the conduct involves speech, use First Amendment analysis to determine if there is jurisdiction for disruption or invasion of rights of others

- Mahanoy Area School District v. B.L. (U.S. 2021)
T9SH Grievance Process: When & What is Required

- A K-12 school
- in which any employee has actual knowledge
- of Title IX “sexual harassment”
- in its education program or activity
- against a person in the United States

In the United States
In the United States

► The Title IX rules do not apply extraterritorially (such as study abroad programs)
► As with any other conduct that falls outside Title IX, other code of conduct provisions can be used to address such conduct

T9SH Threshold Questions

Is the alleged conduct:
1. “Title IX Sexual Harassment”
2. “in an educational program or activity”
3. “in the United States”
   If yes to all: Title IX SH Process
   If no to any: Another process
Test Yourself

- A student reports sexual assault by another student at the hotel room booked by the school and chaperoned by school employees during a Spring Break trip in Paris.
- A student reports that a teacher offered a better grade on an assignment for a shoulder massage at their desk during class.
- A student reports that, during lunch, another student slapped their behind repeatedly while laughing and joking with other students.
- A student reports that their friend, another student, has been isolated lately, has had bruises on their arms, and has been constantly fighting with their significant other, who is also a student.
- An employee reports that a student sent them a love note and seems to be following them everywhere at school.

A K-12 school in which any employee has actual knowledge of Title IX “sexual harassment” in its education program or activity against a person in the United States must respond using the Title IX Sexual Harassment process.
T9SH Grievance Process

The new Title IX regulations require schools to investigate and adjudicate formal complaints of sexual harassment using a grievance process that incorporates due process principles, treats all parties fairly, and reaches reliable responsibility determinations.

Schools must follow a grievance process that complies with Title IX regulations before imposing any disciplinary sanctions or other actions that are not supportive measures, against a respondent.

So You Received a Report?

| Assess Safety: If a student is in immediate danger or is an immediate danger to self or others, remove the student from the environment immediately. Move the student to a safe area with adequate supervision and immediately contact the Title IX Coordinator for what to do next. |
| Consider Law Enforcement, Medical, and Parental Contact: If allegations include a serious crime, alleged injury, or evidence that needs to be collected (like photographs on an electronic device), follow standard building procedures to contact police, medical, and parent(s)/guardian(s). |
| Consider Reporting Abuse, Neglect, or Exploitation: Anyone who has a reasonable cause to believe a child, a person 65 years or older, or an adult with disabilities is being abused, neglected, or exploited must report it to DFPS. If in doubt, report. Report at 1-800-252-5400 or the Texas Abuse Hotline. |
| Consider Contacting Special Education: If a party is a student with a 504 plan or an IEP, contact relevant special education administration to consider impacts on special education placement and services. |
So You Received a Report?

What NOT to Do Until the Title IX Coordinator Decides if Title IX Applies

- Do not conduct investigation interviews (asking for or collecting evidence)—only conduct intake meetings with the reporting party and the complainant/family. An intake meeting means asking what is alleged to have happened, not asking for evidence to support the allegations.
- Do not discipline either party, including the alleged perpetrator. See the step above “assessing safety” for immediate steps to take to keep your community safe. Contact the Title IX Coordinator to authorize suspensions or other removals from school or activities.
- Do not violate the confidentiality of the alleged victim by telling the alleged perpetrator the alleged victim’s name or that a report has been made. We cannot share such information until the Title IX Coordinator says Title IX is not implicated, a Title IX formal complaint is filed, or the alleged victim and their parent(s)/guardian(s) allow it.

For any Title IX Sexual Harassment in a program or activity and in the United States of which the school has actual knowledge, the Title IX Coordinator or their designee must

- Step 1: Hold a “supportive measures meeting” with the Complainant (alleged victim) and offer right to file a formal complaint
- Step 2: Consider if emergency removal/administrative leave warranted

Only if a Title IX Formal Complaint is filed or signed by the Title IX Coordinator or designee

What if It’s Not Clear?

- In some cases a report or complaint is clearly about sexual harassment but it is not clear if the report or complaint is of Title IX sexual harassment in the schools education program or activity and in the U.S.
- Intake is necessary where it is not clear that the complaint falls under Title IX
- Goal is to collect more information about the allegations to allow evaluation of the complaint
What is Intake?

- An opportunity to determine the allegations in a report or formal complaint
- Necessary to evaluate the complaint to determine if Title IX applies

Allegation

“A claim or assertion that someone has done something illegal or wrong, typically one made without proof.”

Oxford Languages
Evaluation

“To determine the significance, worth, or condition of usually by careful appraisal and study.”

What is Intake NOT?

- Investigation
- Evidence Gathering
- Interrogation
- Credibility Determinations
Investigation

“An investigation is a thorough search for facts, especially those that are hidden or need to be sorted out in a complex situation. The goal of an investigation is usually to determine how or why something happened.”

Evidence Gathering

An institution bears both the burden of proof and the burden of gathering evidence in the Title IX process.
Evidence Gathering

- Testimony
- Communications: Emails, Social Media, etc.
- Photographs and Video Recordings
- School Records
- Police Reports
- Expert Evidence
- Medical Records

 use of these is limited even in the investigation stage

Preservation of Evidence

- If you become aware of the existence of evidence that could be at risk of loss, can take steps to preserve evidence
- Contact law enforcement immediately where knowledge of illegal or illicit evidence
Interrogation

“Interviewing ... with the goal of eliciting useful information, particularly information related to a suspected crime.”

Credibility Determinations

“The fact that someone can be believed or trusted.”

Cambridge Dictionary
Credibility Determinations

- Inherent Plausibility
- Demeanor
- Motive to Falsify
- Corroboration
- Past Record

EEOC Enforcement Guidance: Vicarious Liability for Unlawful Harassment by Supervisors (Jun. 18, 1999)

In Other Words...

Intake is NOT an investigatory interview. It is not the time to ask for evidence to support the claims about what happened, to ask for witnesses, or to look for other information that might help prove or disprove the complaint. Instead, this is an opportunity to make sure you know all the conduct that the complainant and their parents/guardians claim occurred so that the school can evaluate whether the conduct should be addressed under Title IX.
Intake Questions

- Who
- What
- When
- Where
- Why
- How

What happened that you believed was sexual harassment?
- What was done? What was said?
- If touching occurred, ask for the details (in what ways were you touched, where were you touched?)
Intake Questions

► Where did it occur? (Get details for every situation)
► When did it occur? At what time of the day?
► How often did it occur? Is it ongoing?

► Are you alleging any other violations of policy/sexual harassment?
► Go over what happened—ask “Anything else?”

- Step 7: Decision-Making Process
- Step 8: Appeal

NOTE: ALL STEPS include strict detailed requirements from the Title IX rules
Step #1: Supportive Measures Meeting

For all Title IX Sexual Harassment in a program or activity and in the United States of which the school/district has “actual knowledge,” the Title IX Coordinator must meet with the Complainant (alleged victim) to offer supportive measures and explain the Formal Complaint process, even if no Formal Complaint has been filed.

Supportive Measures

- Available before, during, after, and even if there never is a Title IX formal complaint process.
- Available for both the Complainant and the Respondent, although the measures offered need not be equal.
- Free, individualized services designed to restore or preserve an individual’s equal access to education, to protect the individual’s safety, or deter further sexual harassment.
- Cannot be punitive or disciplinary.
- Cannot unreasonably burden another person.
Supportive Measures

- Counseling
- Extensions of deadlines or other course-related adjustments
- Modifications of work or class schedules
- Campus escort services
- Mutual restrictions on contact between the parties
- Leaves of absence
- Increased security and monitoring of certain areas of the campus

Supportive Measures

- Title IX Coordinator or designee must implement
- If necessary to share information to implement measures, obtain Complainant’s written consent
- Follow up regularly with the parties to make sure the measures are working
- Increase the severity of measures or take new measures if initial measures are ineffective
IDEA and Section 504 Implications

- Some supportive measures, such as provision of counseling or changes to class schedules, will also implicate placements and services under IDEA and Section 504.
- Title IX Coordinators should reach out to Special Education or Section 504 Staff prior to implementing supportive measures for these students.
  - May need to hold IEP/Section 504 meeting to determine if changes must be made to student’s IEP/Section 504 Plan.
- Bottom line: IEP/Section 504 Committees will need to be involved from the beginning and the Title IX staff will need to be trained on identifying and addressing SPED/504 implications.

Step #1: Supportive Measures Meeting

Before a formal complaint is filed, must maintain confidentiality of the Complainant unless necessary to implement supportive measures.
Formal Complaint Process

► During the “supportive measures meeting” the Title IX Coordinator or designee should explain the process for filing a “formal complaint”
► Best practice is to provide a copy of the policies and procedures describing how to file a formal complaint and the grievance process

Step #2: Emergency Removal

- After a report (no need for Formal Complaint)
- The Title IX Coordinator or designee should consider whether the reported conduct warrants removing an alleged perpetrator (respondent) from a class, an activity, or school or work generally
- Can only be done if the terms of emergency removal are met
Emergency Removal

WHO: A student, employee, or any other Respondent
WHAT: Removal from a program or activity on an emergency basis (class, activity, school generally, work, etc.)
WHEN: Must undertake an individualized safety and risk assessment and determine that an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any student or other individual arises from the allegations of sexual harassment justifying removal (mental health or safety is not enough)
AFTER: Must provide the respondent with notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision immediately following the removal

Student Discipline Implications

- Prior to removing student, Title IX Coordinator must consider if state discipline laws are implemented in any way
- Emergency removals can be tantamount to suspension or expulsion and state laws governing those types of discipline cannot be ignored
- Although emergency removal is not intended to be disciplinary, unless some state law method allows for removal without consent, you may have to deal with state law
- Work with legal counsel to determine how to handle this interplay, including considering trying to secure voluntary agreement to a removal
Emergency Removal

Special Education/504 Implications

- Prior to removing student, Title IX Coordinator must work with IEP/Section 504 Committee for any student receiving services under IDEA or Section 504
- MDR requirements and procedural safeguards will be triggered if removal is for more than 10 days (it almost always will be)
- Special Ed/Section 504 Committees will need to be involved from the beginning and the Title IX staff will need to be trained on identifying and addressing SPED/504 implications

Administrative Leave

WHO: An employee
WHAT: Paid or unpaid administrative removal of an employee from an assignment or position on an emergency basis (usually a removal from work generally)
WHEN: “During the pendency of a grievance process that complies with § 106.45”
LIMIT: State law, board policies, administrative procedures, contracts, and any other documents governing the employment relationship must allow it

- Step 6: Investigation
- Step 7: Decision-Making Process
- Step 8: Appeal

NOTE: ALL STEPS include strict detailed requirements from the Title IX rules
Formal Complaint

- A document
- Filed by a complainant or signed by the Title IX Coordinator
- Alleging sexual harassment against a respondent
- Requesting that the school investigate the allegation of sexual harassment

July 2021 OCR Q&A

Formal Complaint

- If filed by a complainant, must contain the complainant’s physical or digital signature or otherwise indicate that the complainant is the person filing the formal complaint
- Can be a hard copy document or an electronic document submitted via email or an online portal
- An email from a student to the Title IX Coordinator that ends with the student signing their name would suffice

July 2021 Q&A
Formal Complaint

- A third party cannot file a formal complaint under Title IX
- May have rights under other policies and procedures/code of conduct provisions

Formal Complaint

- Once a formal complaint has been filed or signed, the school must share the Complainant's name with the Respondent (confidentiality is not an option)
- Compare to the status before a formal complaint is filed, when you cannot share the Complainant’s name, including with the Respondent, without their permission
Only move to Step 3 if you have a Formal Complaint

Step #3: Notice of Allegations

Upon receipt of a formal complaint a school must provide each known party written notice of:

- The school’s grievance process;
- The allegations of sexual harassment, including sufficient details known at the time and with sufficient time to prepare a response before any initial interview;
- A presumption of non-responsibility;
- The right to inspect and review evidence;
- The right to have an advisor during the process; and
- Any provision in the school’s code of conduct that prohibits knowingly making false statements or submitting false information during the grievance process.
Notice of Allegations

- Notice of Allegations (NOA) must include:
  - The identities of the parties involved in the incident, if known
  - The conduct allegedly constituting sexual harassment
  - The date and location of the alleged incident, if known

Note: This notice is required before you first meet with the Respondent. That means no pulling students out of class to inquire about an incident right after you receive notice!

Remember: Once a Formal Complaint is filed or signed, you must notify the respondent of the name of all known alleged victims

Written Notice and Appeal—Dismissals

- If the school dismisses the complaint or allegations in the complaint, it must promptly send written notice of the dismissal and the reason for the dismissal to all parties.

- Any party can appeal the dismissal decision.

Step #5: Informal Resolution

- An alternative to the formal grievance procedure that schools may offer, but not are not required to offer
- Is never permitted in cases of alleged employee-on-student conduct
- Can only be offered once there is a Formal Complaint on file, the parties have been notified of the allegations and their rights, and there is informed, written consent (must be 100% voluntary)
- Recommend that the informal resolution be completed by someone other than the Title IX Coordinator (not required) – facilitator must be trained
Informal Resolution

- Parties must be allowed to stop at any time prior to an agreement
- If an agreement is reached between the parties, the Title IX Formal Complaint is closed; if not, you move on to Step #5: Investigation

The Title IX Team

The same person can do all three of these roles, but it is not recommended

Must be two new people – cannot be the same person, cannot be the Coordinator, Investigator, or IR Facilitator

NOTE: ALL STEPS include strict detailed requirements from the Title IX rules
Step #6: Investigation

- Recommend that the investigation be completed by someone other than the Title IX Coordinator and Informal Resolution Facilitator (not required)—Investigator must be trained
- Many required elements of investigation in rules—best practice to use T&H’s investigation checklist and other forms to keep yourself on track

Investigation

- Impartial + unbiased
- Reasonably prompt timeframes
- Burden of proof on school
- Preponderance Standard
- Treat Parties Fairly
- Limits on use of certain records, evidence
- No “gag orders”
- Equal rights to advisors
- Equal right to present evidence

- Presumption of respondent non-responsibility
- Written notice to party before each interview
- Directly related evidence shared with parties + 10 days to respond
- Written investigative report summarizes “relevant evidence”
- Investigative report shared with parties + 10 days to respond
Directly Related Evidence

- “Directly Related” is not defined in the rules
- Statements, notes of interviews, and other types of evidence collected in the investigation
- Even evidence the school doesn’t think it will use
- The parties must be given at least 10 days to review all the evidence and submit written responses about the evidence to the investigator
- The investigator must consider the responses when writing the investigative report

Relevant Evidence

Evidence is relevant if

(a) it has any tendency to make a fact more or less probable than it would be without the evidence, and;

(b) the fact is of consequence in determining the action

Fed. R. Evid. 401
Relevant Evidence Includes

“Inculpatory Evidence”
- Favorable to the Complainant
- Evidence that shows or tends to show an individual’s involvement in the alleged sexual harassment that can establish responsibility

“Exculpatory Evidence”
- Favorable to the Respondent
- Evidence that exonerates or tends to show the Respondent is not responsible for the alleged sexual harassment incident

Exceptions to Relevance

- Evidence subject to legal privilege
- Evidence related to a complainant’s past sexual history unless
  - The evidence is offered to prove someone other than the respondent committed the alleged sexual harassment
  - The evidence relates to the sexual behavior between the complainant and respondent and is offered to prove consent
- A party’s records made or maintained by a physician, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional made and maintained in connection with the provision of treatment of the party

If a party wishes that you use such evidence, you should get written consent from the party and (for a minor) their parents/guardians
Preponderance of Evidence

More likely than not
(50% and a feather)

Review of the Report

- Investigative report fairly summarizes the relevant evidence
- School must share the final report with both parties and their advisors
- Both parties must be given at least 10 days to review and submit a written response regarding the report to the decision-maker before the decision-maker makes any final determination of responsibility

Step #7: Decision-Making Process

- Decision-maker may not be the Title IX Coordinator or the investigator.
- Oversees a written question-and-answer process in which the parties get to ask written, relevant questions of other parties and witnesses.
- After that process, issues a written determination.
Preponderance of Evidence

More likely than not
(50% and a feather)

Written Decision Requirements

- Identify the allegations at issue that potentially constitute sexual harassment
- Include specific policy provision that the conduct allegedly violates
- Describe the school’s procedural steps to date, from receipt of the complaint to the determination
- Include findings of fact supporting the determination
- Include conclusions regarding application of the school’s code of conduct to the facts
Written Decision Requirements

- Decision must include a statement of, and rationale for, the result as to each allegation, including:
  - Determination regarding responsibility
  - Any disciplinary sanctions imposed on the respondent
  - Whether remedies designed to restore or preserve equal access to educational program will be provided by the school to the complainant
- Must explain appeal process and permissible grounds for each party to appeal
- Must provide the written determination to the parties simultaneously

NOTE: ALL STEPS include strict detailed requirements from the Title IX rules

Step #7: Appeal

  - Procedural irregularities that affected the outcome
  - New evidence
  - Conflict of interest

- Must be able to appeal on specific bases:

Appellate Decision-Maker

- Provides each party notice of the appellate process and the opportunity to respond to the appeal in writing
- Appellate decision-maker issues a written decision including the result and rationale
Recordkeeping

- All records related to the process must be maintained for 7 years
- Provide your final file to the Title IX Coordinator
Serving Impartially

The new Title IX regulations require that any individual involved in the Title IX process—Title IX Coordinator, investigator, decisionmaker, appellate decisionmaker, or informal resolution facilitator—not be biased, have a conflict of interest, or prejudge any matter before them.

The key: Treat the parties equally until the process and evidence justify treating them differently.

Avoid:

- Bias
- Conflict of Interest
- Prejudgment
Impartiality Do’s and Don’t’s

- Do follow the process “to the T” and include all relevant evidence in the investigative report, written decision, and appeal decision
- Do not assume or infer the existence of facts or the outcome, “connect the dots,” speculate, rely on personal experience or beliefs, weigh credibility (unless you are the decision-maker on the initial complaint)

Trauma Informed Investigations

- Science shows trauma can have a neurological effect, particularly on memory
- Trauma can impact either party
- There is a difference between being trauma-informed and trauma-lenient
