

STMA Health & Physical Education Department Philosophy

The goal of health and physical education is to develop individuals who have the knowledge, skills, and confidence to live healthy and active lifestyles.