

St. Michael-Albertville

Library Media Philosophy

The philosophy of the St. Michael-Albertville Library Media Program is to support students in the learning process by inspiring literacy, fostering a love of reading, providing access to high-quality, curated print and digital resources, and cultivating productive and responsible citizens in a digital world.