

Lehigh Area Middle School

Our Middle School Aavidum Club was invited to join other schools across Pennsylvania and throughout the U.S. for a virtual mental health and suicide prevention workshop. During the workshop, students learned about Aavidum's four characteristics of a healthy community: acceptance, appreciation, acknowledgement, and caring. Students worked together as a group to brainstorm the different ways that these ideas can be promoted in our school.