

Leighton Area Middle School

This week the middle school held their second round of CDT testing. Our staff has been trained on how to use the data to focus on the growth of our students. This will also allow us to identify students who may need remediation in specific areas of the curriculum.