

Lehighton Area Middle School

Making connections with students is extremely important. Mrs. Sharrow, in an effort to make connections with her students, had the students create personal pennants. She then met with each student to discuss their work and to discuss common interests that she may have with a student. The pennants were then displayed in the hallway outside of her room.