

The 7th Grade students at the Middle school took a field trip to the Scranton Wilkes-Barre Railriders this past Thursday. The trip was paid for by the PTO. The trip was taken as it was a special educational day that included STEM activities for students while enjoying the game.

