LAMS & CCTI

The Middle School Guidance Department reviewed and completed the requirements for CCTI . Our current 8th grade class had 39 applicants and they were delivered to CCTI. Ms. Elias, our new counselor, met with CCTI administration to continue building a positive relationship with CCTI.
