

LAEC hosted our local first responders from the Lehigh Area. They did a fantastic job in sharing and educating their equipment and experience with our students. We appreciate all these brave men and women do for our communities.

