

This week our school celebrated their 100th day. This day signifies the 100th day of class in the school year. The 100th day marks a special opportunity to reflect upon and celebrate major milestones in your students' academic achievement. Many Kindergarten and 1st Grade classes celebrated this day by doing various special activities.