Enrolling a Student While Seeking Guardianship

The Gahanna-Jefferson Public School District will temporarily enroll a student residing with an adult caretaker who lives in the school district under the following circumstances:

1. Adult caretaker must provide documentation establishing proof of residency in the Gahanna-Jefferson Public School District.
2. Adult caretaker must provide a copy of the court record of the application seeking guardianship for the minor student. (Franklin County Probate Court, 373 S. High Street, Columbus, OH 43215, (614) 462-3841)
3. Adult caretaker must provide a certified copy of the court order or decree approving custody/guardianship. If the custody/guardianship court order or decree is received within 60 calendar days from the date of enrollment, the minor student may remain in school as long as both the guardian and student reside in the Gahanna-Jefferson Public School District. After 60 days, tuition begins to accrue at $61.19 per day until Guardianship is awarded from the court.
