General¹

Board members and school district employees may not accept, directly or indirectly, any gift, money, gratuity, consideration, or favor that a reasonable person would understand was intended to influence the vote, official action, or judgement of the board member or employee in executing decisions affecting the school district. It is also prohibited for a board member's or an employees' spouse or child living in the same household to accept such items.

ETHICS COMPLAINTS

The school district may create a School District Ethics Committee consisting of three (3) members who will be appointed to one-year terms by the Board Chair with confirmation by the Board. At least two (2) members of the committee shall be members of the Board. The Ethics Committee shall convene as soon as practicable after its appointment and elect a Chair and Secretary. The records of the Ethics Committee shall be maintained by the Secretary and shall be filed in the office of the Director of Schools, where they shall be open to public inspection.

Questions and complaints regarding violations of this Code of Ethics shall be directed to the Chair of the Ethics Committee. Complaints shall be in writing, signed by the person making the complaint, and include details as to the facts surrounding the complaint.

The Ethics Committee may investigate any ethical complaint received against a Board member or employee to cease any activity that, in the Committee's judgment, constitutes a violation of this Code of Ethics. If a member of the Ethics Committee is the subject of a complaint, the member shall recuse himself or herself from all proceedings involving the complaint.

The Ethics Committee may:

1. Refer the matter to the Board Attorney for a legal opinion and/or recommendations for action;
2. In the case of a Board Member, refer the matter to the Board of Education body for possible public censure if the board body finds such action warranted;
3. In the case of an employee, refer the matter to the Director of Schools/designee for possible disciplinary action if warranted;
4. In a case involving possible violation of state statutes, refer the matter to the district attorney for possible ouster or criminal prosecution;

It shall not be considered a violation of this policy for an Board member or employee to receive entertainment, food, refreshments, meals, health screenings, amenities, food, or beverages that are provided in connection with a conference sponsored by an established or recognized statewide association of school board officials or by an umbrella or affiliate organization of such statewide association of school board officials.
