Computer Science Camp

During this 4 day camp, students will spend their time learning about different forms of coding languages and putting them into practice by creating video games and activities they can share with friends and family. They will also have the opportunity to code different types of robots that are age appropriate, as well as create stop motion animations using Stikbots characters and iPad photography apps.

Instructor: Tiffany Pullen - CUES Computer Science Teacher
Contact: tiffany.pullen@carrolltoncityschools.net
Students: Rising 4th - 7th grade students
Where: Carrollton Elementary School - Room 702
When: June 19-22, 2023 - 8:30am-12pm

Fee: $100

Spots are limited - enroll here or scan QR code