

Brian Goldie - Biography

Mr. Goldie is a husband to his wonderful wife and a father to two boys who are Cologne Academy scholars. Brian received his B.A. from the University of Northwestern - St. Paul and his M.Div. from Gordon Conwell Seminary in Massachusetts.

He has been teaching at Southwest Christian High School since 2001, where he also serves as the Director of Spiritual Formation, and teaches Philosophy courses through the University of Northwestern - St. Paul. He has also served as an itinerant communicator, pastor, board member for Elliot Park Neighborhood in Minneapolis, and wilderness guide. He loves to be outdoors, spend time with his family, cook, and read. "I'm thrilled to be alongside this community as a board member to support the ongoing work of raising virtuous and resilient future citizens."