Title

Recognition of 2023 Georgia PTA Reflections Fine Arts Contest First-Place Winners

Requested Action

School Board Recognition of 2023 Georgia PTA Reflections Fine Arts Contest First-Place Winners

Summary Explanation and Background

Six Cherokee County School District students earned first-place in the statewide Georgia PTA Reflections fine arts contest!

The annual competition offers students in all grades and of all abilities the opportunity to create original works of art in the categories of dance choreography, film production, literature, music composition, photography and visual arts 2D and 3D. Students can earn recognition at the school, district, state and national levels. This school year's theme is “Show Your Voice!”

School level winners advance to the district competition, with first-, second- and third-place awards presented. The first- and second-place district winners advance to the state competition. The Cherokee County Council of PTA organizes the school and district levels of competition.

CCSD's Georgia PTA Reflections first-place winners are: Ezra Albright, Visual Arts 3D, Special Artist, Holly Springs ES STEM Academy; Baileigh Borna, Literature, Grade 11, River Ridge HS; Ava Cunningham, Film Production, kindergarten, Hickory Flat ES; Liliana Harmon, Visual Arts 3D, Grade 12, Creekview HS; Carter Leming, Literature, kindergarten, Indian Knoll ES; Ryan Weber, Photography, Special Artist, Etowah HS.
