I understand that enrollment in Everman Academy High School is a privilege and by admission only. Everman Academy High School is intended for students seeking a non-traditional high school setting or due to extenuating circumstances resulting in a need for extra support. This application does not guarantee admission into the program. If I am admitted, I understand that the EISD student code of conduct is expected as well as consistent demonstration of academic progress determined by each class. Attendance is crucial for academic progress. I understand lack of progress and/or attendance may affect my continuation of being in the program resulting in a possibility of not graduating. A conference may be scheduled to determine what is in the best interest of the student.
