

Ramona Lovett Dare to Dream Scholarship

$500 Scholarship for Future Educators

Dr. Ramona Milette Lovett attended the public schools of the Effingham County School System and was a 1995 graduate of Effingham County High School. In 1999, she graduated from the University of Georgia with her Bachelor of Science degree, and she received her Master's degree and Specialist degree from Georgia Southern University. She completed her Doctoral program in Educational Leadership at Georgia Southern University and was awarded her Doctoral degree posthumously in 2011. She taught mathematics at Ebenezer Middle School from 1999 – 2005 and then became an assistant principal at Ebenezer Middle School. In 2008, she became the principal of Ebenezer Middle School and held that position until her untimely death at the age of 34 from complications with diabetes. Dr. Ramona Lovett was a trailblazer who boldly ventured into uncharted territories and created paths to which others could aspire. Her tenacity, selflessness, and love of learning are to be remembered and emulated. Her ability to inspire, motivate, and transcend barriers---age, cultural, and health barriers---will live vicariously through this scholarship, and her desire to see our youth fulfill their most daring dreams will manifest itself through the recipients.
