NAME _____ DATE _____

What Is Your EQ?
(Equity Quotient?)

Today's family, society and workplace are changing daily. As a member of a family, society and workplace, each person brings with them their gender, culture and ethnic background. The statements below will offer you the opportunity to examine your perceptions and attitudes about gender, culture and ethnic topics. Please check your first response.

| Statements | Yes | No | Unsure |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1. All jobs should be open to both women and men | | | |
| 2. Men and women should share household chores. | | | |
| 3. Men should use a company's maternity leave. | | | |
| 4. The way a person dresses does not justify sexual harassment. | | | |
| 5. Women will work outside the home an average of 32 to 47 years. | | | |
| 6. A woman should be elected President of the United States. | | | |
| 7. Men and women can be sexually harassed. | | | |
| 8. In 2010, white men will be a minority in the workplace. | | | |
| 9. Culture influences our beliefs in the world of science. | | | |
| 10. Harmony among people will be achieved when no race or sex is dominant. | | | |
| 11. Cultural awareness should be integrated into all school curriculum. | | | |
| 12. Multicultural education is a lifelong process of learning and development. | | | |
| 13. People learn the same things but in different ways. | | | |
| 14. Bilingualism is a job skill. | | | |
| 15. All people can be successful in math, science and technology. | | | |