Creating a Culture of Team Pride

It is hard to believe that we have already reached the end of the month of September! The start to the school year has been all that we expected at the typical start to a year - and then some! Between navigating a new schedule and a new learning environment, we have seen our students rise to the occasion time and time again.

On Wednesday, October 26th, we will participate in our first team field trip to Rowan University. As you know, one of the core focuses of Team Scholastics is providing opportunities for students to see college campuses and to explore their own interests at both local and more distant universities. We are looking forward to joining the students in this first excursion of the year!

Additionally, our first full-team Family Night will take place in the East Cafe on October 4th from 6:30-7:30 P.M. We look forward to seeing you for some team-building fun!

Finally, we are happy to announce our first Scholar Spotlight for September -- a recognition by the team of a student who embodies our team values of engagement, respect, and dedication. This month's student is: Leah Gantz!
In the month of October, we look forward to building more memories with our "scholars," as we call them!
