While the discussion of the summer facility/construction work had occurred in the Finance Committee earlier that day, Ms. Patchak-Layman expressed her concern about the items outside of Wight’s scope relative to needs and wants. In these times of wanting the dollars to go to classroom activities, she questioned some of these items, e.g., the fence, the tennis courts, etc. She was also concerned about the sound system. Dr. Millard noted that the work of the school involves far more than just the classroom. It is not an either/or position but rather a balancing act. Dr. Millard concurred with Ms. Fisher that this discussion had already occurred at the Finance Committee meeting.
