BOARD REPORTS:

Dr. Espeleta

*Prom was on April 15th

*The following students were inducted into the National Technical Honor Society: Sha'Maria Barton, Emily Gau, Lana Gray, Jessica Houseman, Alynn Hunter, Gabriel Kirk, Kaylie Spitzer, Jaxon Stacy, and Ryleigh Whittaker

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

* The Kleptz Early Learning Center, Northwood, and Union renewed their applications to remain Purple Star-recognized schools. Other schools in the district are still Purple Star, it is just they are on a different cycle to renew. Congratulations to the schools and may we continue to be a military-friendly school district.

* Congratulations to Beth Cooper and Kim Maiken for their nominations for Teacher of the Year. Both are very well deserving.

*The Drama Club's production of Cinderella drew over 1,600 attendees.

* Congratulations to JaKayla Harris. She was recognized at an event sponsored by the MCESC as the recipient of the Franklin B Walter Scholarship. Each high school in the county has a student selected. JaKayla is attending Harvard in the fall and is a worthy candidate for the award. She recognized Rebecca Henderson as her educator of influence and did a great job of explaining that Ms. Henderson set high expectations for her in her CCP language arts class and that she feels prepared to succeed at Harvard.

* DECA leaves Tuesday morning for their international competition in Florida.

*ROTC leaves Thursday for the Brain Bowl contest in New Jersey.

- *Military Signing Day is Wednesday.
- * Congratulations to Lydia May Memorial Holocaust Writing Contest honorable mention winners Evan Robinson and Evan Waugh.
- *Career Exploration Fair and Career Discovery Event are this weekend.
- *We had several staff members participate in the Bus Road-e-o.
- *Academic Challenge team will compete this weekend.
- *Thank you to all who have donated to Safety Town.
