

6th Grade Summer Reading
(23-24 School Year)

Get ready to explore the colorful, creative, wacky world of Carl Hiaasen. In the first quarter we will be reading Hoot by Carl Hiaasen. This summer you will dive head-first into his fictional representation of Florida by choosing one of Hiaasen's other young adult novels to read. You can choose from:

- Flush
- Scat
- Chomp

On the images below, draw a Lock Screen Cell Phone and Home Screen Cell Phone. Although the characters in the story may not have had a smartphone, imagine what a glimpse inside the phone of the main character from your chosen novel would look like if they had one. Complete the following sections to show what would be on his or her form.

Playlist: Imagine that your main character has made a playlist of songs and/or podcast episodes. Pick three songs/episodes, then give the song title, artist name and reason your character would like the song/episode. Provide evidence or quote from the book to support your reasoning. Capitalize titles and people's names correctly. You will find the chart on the next page.

Song Title	Artist	Why would your character listen to this song? (Complete sentence)	Evidence from the novel. (Complete sentence)
