Join Us for In Person Meeting on May 25, 2022.

The Crafton African American Parent Advisory Council has been meeting on Wednesdays throughout the 2021-2022 school year. Our last meeting will be on Wednesday, May 25, 2022! We will be meeting in person in the MPR. The meetings will be designed to celebrate all the connections we have made.

What is the Crafton AAPAC

The purpose of the Crafton African American Parent Advisory Council is to provide a platform where Crafton families can engage in two-way communication, develop goals and action steps to support our African American students and families.
