

Parent Bulletin Friday 28th April 2023

Dear Parents and Carers

Thank you to the parents who supervised their children at home yesterday. There are three more strike days planned for later in the term and I will let you know the details about those once we know the days affected.

With today's Bulletin I am pleased to also include the latest edition of the Slough and Eton Review. It contains plenty of pictures and short articles about many of the great things our students have been up to. Please take time to check it out.

The next two weeks are not full weeks for students. School is closed to students on Monday and Tuesday next week for the May Bank Holiday and an INSET day. The week after there is another Bank Holiday for the King's Coronation.

This week we started serving pancakes on a Wednesday with our breakfast service and have added porridge every morning. Over the next few weeks we will be trying out several things as we respond to a student and staff survey about our restaurant service. I'll keep you updated as we do this. In the meantime please remember we have a free breakfast service available for all students every morning from 7.45am.

I hope you enjoy the Bank Holiday weekend.

Best wishes

Peter Collins
Headteacher

This week's Collective Worship reflection is:

Dear God

May the words of our mouth and the actions of our heart reflect only kindness. Let us always use our integrity when communicating with one another.

Amen.
