Lower School Teacher
Full-Time/Exempt
Begins August 1, 2023 - June 15, 2024

Chartwell School is seeking a lower school teacher to join our team for the 2023-2024 school year. Chartwell is currently open for on-campus learning on our beautiful 60-acre campus in Seaside, CA.

We are an independent school on the Monterey Peninsula in coastal California, approximately 100 miles south of San Francisco. Chartwell serves students in grades 1-12, who have been identified as having dyslexia or related language-based learning differences. Class sizes are small and teachers individualize instruction while teaching to small groups.

The successful candidate is responsible for understanding student learning profiles and scaffolding language arts, humanities, and/or math instruction to bring students toward grade level in specific academic skills.

Chartwell offers a unique professional growth opportunity for teachers who want to grow their practice toward including a deep understanding of cognitive learning profiles and brain-based educational practices. Professional development is strongly supported by the school, as our culture values continuous learning and innovation of instructional practice to meet the unique needs of cognitively diverse learners.

Most importantly, we seek teachers who intuit that the central aspect of teaching is creating trusting and respectful relationships with all students.

Core competencies:

Team player/collaborative, continuous learner/growth mindset, innovative thinker, problem-solver, takes initiative, belief in the ability of all students to achieve, commitment, ability to scaffold and differentiate instruction, ability to establish rapport and build strong relationships with students.

Compensation is commensurate with qualifications and experience; medical benefits are included. Bachelor's degree required; candidates with a valid CA Special Education Credential are preferred.

Send a letter and resume and the names and contact information for 3-5 references to teach@chartwell.org by June 2, 2023 for earliest consideration.

About Chartwell

Mission

Chartwell empowers students with dyslexia and associated learning differences to unlock their full potential. We provide a college preparatory, strength-based program that gives students the skills, strategies, tools and mindset needed to become successful lifelong learners. We share our expertise through partnerships and outreach initiatives to transform education.

Vision

Chartwell aspires to show the world that young people with language-based learning differences and diverse learning styles and profiles can be among the most creative, productive and valuable members of any community. We further aim to inspire others to get to know, understand and value these students from very young ages and to help them realize their full potential. We seek to see them develop into confident young people and adults, committed to lifelong learning and equipped with the knowledge, skills and social and emotional competencies to achieve their goals.
