- Old Business
 - Recess supplies – Indoor Recess specifically
 - Mr. Furlow to gave approval for indoor recess options. He is okay with any of the following: board games – giant 'sorry' or headbandz, taco cat goat cheese, grounded for life, what do you meme, die games, plastic bowling kits, apples to apples, play tunnels, hula hoops, skip its.
 - PBIS Reward – Bounce House Day
 - Great success. All of the kids enjoyed it.
 - Next year will add 2 additional stations through company.
 - Faculty Basketball Game
 - Scheduled May 15th 7 PM to 9 PM.
 - Amy Steward contacted the principals and is coordinating. Mr. Furlow is in agreeance for being involved for Brooks.
 - STEAM Night
 - Participation was low and feels it will be better combining it with literacy night events.
 - Next year we will bring back raffle baskets.
 - Request for making it a bigger event with Art Show and during literacy week.
 - Consider science fair or share fair at next STEAM night.
 - Implement Science Fair
 - Darlene – Share Fair
 - Darlene sent information via email
- New Business
 - Discuss PBIS

- Halfway to meeting goal, kids are doing well and regularly reviewing expectations within the building. It is much more streamlined this year and are doing well keeping the kids engaged. Rewards are different and seem to be a good match for the kids, ex: extra recess time. Program is monitored with AIU and progressing towards benchmarks.
 - Faculty/Student Talent Show with PTC
 - Mr. Furlow was going to ask around and confirm interest with faculty and students. Further information to come.
- Fundraisers & Events
 - Fourth Grade Send Off Committee
 - Scheduled for May 30th, 2023 at Kennedy Lanes.
 - Leave Brooks by 9:15/9:20 AM, arrive at Kennedy Lanes by 9:45, beginning bowling at 10:00.
 - Lunch will be provided to students and attending parents/faculty. Lunch options for children will be personal cheese pizza, hamburger with fries, or hot dog with fries.
 - Children's orders will be obtained prior to send off.
 - Leave Kennedy Lanes and go to Brooks and play at playground. If bad weather Mr. Furlow will need to check if we can use the gym. Popsicles will be provided to students upon returning to Brooks and then prepare for dismissal.
