TITLE IX

Keene Junior High School does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, sex or disability in providing educational services, activities, and programs, including vocational programs in accordance with Title IX of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended: Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1972, as amended.

ESSA Goals and Indicators
Comprehensive Needs Assessment

The following data sources were reviewed and analyzed to assess campus strengths and priorities:

1. Disaggregated STAAR data for 2019, 2021, 2022
2. Most recent School Report Card (Campus Accountability - Performance Indices/Distinction Designations)
3. Student demographics - Subgroups
4. Technology - Fiscal and Facility Resources
5. Participation records of students enrolled in special programs (GT, Special Education, ESL)
6. Staff Development Records (T-TESS)
7. Assessment and benchmark data (DMAC)
8. Stakeholder surveys conducted during the 2021-2022 school year.

Identified Strengths:

1. Dedicated teachers committed to student success
2. Teamwork within departments and cross curricular areas

Identified areas for needed improvement:

1. Increased student performance for ELL and SpEd subgroups on all tests
2. Improvement of classroom practice as it relates to student engagement and use of best teaching practices

Students

Students are at the heart of all we do here. It is the goal of Keene Junior High School to equip all students with the tools needed to succeed so they may excel.

Every Child, Every Need, Every Day

Student Strengths

Our students are hardworking, involved and spirited.

They are invested in making Keene Junior High School the best it can possibly be!

Our students are respectful and well-behaved.

Our students come from diverse backgrounds.

Student Needs

Support for those struggling to attain grade level standards of performance.

Support for Special Education and EL students.

Vision for the future, postsecondary endeavors.

Staff

Having a staff of highly effective teachers and instructional aides is the goal of Keene Junior High School through established hiring practices.

Staff Strengths

Based on current data, teachers and instructional aides meet previously identified highly qualified status at Keene Junior High School. The teaching staff is composed of 75% females and 25% males.

One hundred percent of the teachers hold a bachelor's degree while 4% have a master's degree.

There is a mix of new and experienced teachers, which allows for both real world/professional experiences as well as the proper transfer of knowledge within the profession.

Staff Needs

A goal for the school is to address staff development providing appropriate training for teachers in their specific areas, particularly addressing alignment, classroom management, student engagement, and technology integration. In so doing, we will encourage and support in-service opportunities that will best serve our students in preparation for the future.

Parent Engagement

The success of our school is significantly impacted by the engaging of parents and support groups.

Parent and community engagement includes parent/advisor partnerships, SBDM meetings, school/community programs, media communication (School Messenger, Parent Portal, Social Media outlets), along with school calendars and newsletters, newspaper highlights and school/teacher web pages.

Community Engagement

The junior high school will continually look for new and innovative ways of engaging the community in the activities of the school. The community of Keene is typically involved with the students and faculty of the junior high school through financial help and time commitment.

Facilities

The junior high school will continually research new and innovative ways of incorporating cutting-edge technology into the classroom setting. School equipment such as flexible seating furniture, interactive white boards, iPads, document cameras and projection/AV equipment, to best serve students for academic achievement and success, is incorporated at the campus level.

Classrooms, science labs, and fine arts rooms are currently utilized.

Fund Sources

All federal, state, and local funds received by Keene ISD are coordinated to ensure that all programs are operated in an effective and efficient manner. All students are guaranteed equal access to all foundation programs and services.

(Keene ISD observes Title IX laws.)

State Compensatory Education funds are used to improve and enhance the regular program of instruction for students who are at risk of academic failure or of dropping out of school as defined in the state rules and Keene ISD's At-Risk criteria.

Keene Junior High School is a Title I school-wide campus and uses multiple fund sources to improve the overall educational program. The following sources are used to support and supplement programs such as RtI, computer libraries, curriculum and instruction through the use of technology software and hardware, before and after-the-school day tutorials and after school instructional programs for at-risk students identified using state and local at-risk criteria: Title I, Title II, and SCE.
