A partnership between Albuquerque Public Schools and the Greater Albuquerque Chamber of Commerce.

Q: What is Albuquerque Reads?

A: Launched in 2003, Albuquerque Reads is a partnership between the Greater Albuquerque Chamber of Commerce and Albuquerque Public Schools (APS). The program works solely with kindergarten students at three Albuquerque elementary schools. The focus of the program is literacy development.

Q: How does the program work?

A: Individuals from area businesses and the community, including retirees and college students, are invited to commit an hour and a half each week to tutor kindergarteners. For each session, volunteers will meet with two different kindergarteners for two 30 minute sessions.

Q: What is required to get started?

A: Register at www.abqreads.com, successfully pass a background check through APS, attend a training session, and a willingness to commit 90 minutes each week for the school year (September-April).

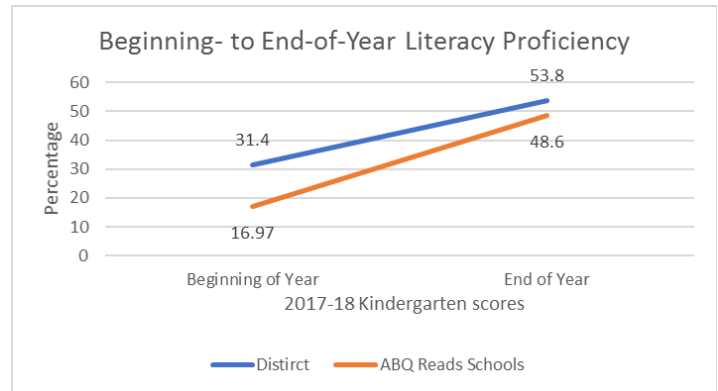

Q: What if I can't commit to an hour each week?

A: You can still make a difference! An option popular with busy professionals, is to form teams of up to four tutors, lessening the time commitment to one and half hours per month.
