STUDENT LIFE

Mike, where's the shades?

Aren't we special?

I bet that doesn't tickle!

Mrs. T., is your class that boring?

A meeting of the minds.

Are we having fun yet?

Let's go for it, People!

Big game tonight, guys!

Dedication Mrs. Trippodo

We, the class of 1991, dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Nancy Trippodo.

You have made our years at Broadalbin-Perth very enjoyable. Thanks for all of your guidance through the times of need. We appreciate all of your help.

From the Class of 1991, thanks for being not just a teacher, but also a friend.

Memorial Matt Scomp

In August of 1990, the students and faculty of Broadalbin-Perth lost a friend to a tragic accident.

Matt Scomp was an upcoming senior. He majored in electronics at a local vocational technology school.

Matt took an interest in the outdoors, especially hunting with his friends. He was a member of the Providence Volunteer Fire Department and the Fishhouse Fish and Game Club. He was employed at Vassels Garage and was interested in cars.

Matt will remain in our memory always.

Homecoming Weekend

Henning "Yahoo" Gaberial, he is from Hamburg, a small village in the North of Germany. He is excited about his visit to the United States. He hopes to make a lot of friends here in the U.S. . .

Jacob Hubertz Knudsen is from a beautiful area near Copenhagen Denmark. He likes our country and thinks our culture is very different. He says that our people are friendly and that is nice when you come from a foreign country.

Christian Holmboe is from Hudiksual Sweden. He came to the United States to further his education and to see the American way of life. He is grateful to his host family and everyone who works with ASSE because they made this possible.

I, Donna Adams, leave Melanie Adamson locker # 59. To Kristen Levandausky I leave my thanks for all the rides. To Jenny Pifko I leave all the memories of our high school years. To Tricia Hemstreet I leave a friendship that may have had some problems, but will never be forgotten. To Andrea Kwiatowski I leave a case of oil, and to Dan Musson I leave all my love. I, Eric Adams, leave my gimpy knees to the soccer players next year because those knees helped me score more goals than Scott Campell. I also leave quickness to John Naples, my haircut to Jamil Kahn, and lots of hope and happiness for the class of 1992. I, Tim Aleri, leave Mrs. Trippoda a new dishwasher so she can do her dishes and stay at home where she belongs. I, Andy Argotsinger, leave Scott and Ron my expert driving ability and farm skills. I leave Siraj my good healthy lip and ability to do a helicopter. I leave Tony D. my ability to make sheep nervous. I, Ann Baird, leave to all my friends that are still here the ability to leave B.P.H.S. someday. To my sister and brother I leave my locker and all my books. To Mr. Batty I wish luck with his two children. To my friends I wish luck in their future years. To my Mom and Dad I leave my thanks for putting up with me all my years through school. And to my sister I leave my car (the taxi) that took her every where. I, Mike Bellandi, leave the rest of my in-schools to anyone who wants them. I, Mike Bellinger, leave all my school books and studying to all underclassmen. I leave Tiffany Sweet all the fun times we had in study hall. To my coaches I leave my knowledge of always being right. Most of all, to Mr. Ripchik I leave my "ability to stay out of trouble." I, Aaron Betz, leave all of the music I never memorized to Mr. D. To Mrs. T. I leave a never ending supply of matches, and coordination to her daughter. To Mrs. Burpee I leave all of the English assignments I lost and one share of Papermate office products. I, Scott Campbell, leave Andy my farming talent; Siraj a strait-jacket; Shawn a serious woman; Jeremy some snow; T.D. the key to the pen; Hemmer a hairpiece; Owen a haircut; Jeff a new liver; and Ron a Colt GT with a snowplow. I leave Lisa my Calculus homework to copy and thanks for the hours of trying to teach an old dog new math. I, Michelle Cardone, leave K.D. a gallon of cranberry juice for you know what! To S.C. all the wild nights and pinches. To J.P. all the tears and laughs we have shared and will share. To D.A., T.H., A.K., S.P., D.L. and H.W. all the memories and fun times we have shared. To all the future B.P. graduates the best of luck. I, Sherry Cook, leave to Jen Billins all of our memories that we have and my friendship forever. I wish her all the luck in the world. Good luck to L.F., B.D., B.E., M.C., J.R., J.S., and all of my friends that I leave behind. Also good luck to Mrs. Burpee. I'll miss you. I, Tony D'Addio, leave Mr. Roger Gifford all of my B.F. Memorial Awards. I, Rebecca Darling, leave Mrs. Burpee all of the memories of having Rod and me in her class. To all of my friends I leave lots of luck. To my coach Mr. C., I leave his famous quote "UNBELIEVABLE". And to my parents I leave all of my love for their support. I, Christine Duemler, leave Miss Kilgallen all of the words to the Geneseo alma mater so she can sing it loudly to Mr. Laurus. To Shelly I leave the memories of Regionals '88, which started it all! To Riley I leave my strong ski poles for the next time a dingy broad runs him over! Most of all, I leave Jenny my nose, for all those terrible times she loses hers. I, Kristen Duesler, leave to D.L. a 1969 Red Chevelle. To M.C. I give a pair of earmuffs for her future boyfriends. To Miss Martin I leave a billion dollar estate. To A.S. I leave many fantasies. To Mr. Giff I leave the honor to rebuild another country club. To my brother I leave my outstanding athletic ability. (Ha, Ha) And to Mikey V. I leave my everlasting love. I, Wendy Eglin, leave my sister Tammy all of my extra credit that she will probably never get. To my little sister Cindy I leave all of my knowledge that I have acquired over the years. To my other sister Erica I leave some good luck. To Cass, Marcie, Sharon and Ann I leave all of the good times we have had together. To Doug M. I leave the memories of high school and Vo-Tec. To my parents, grandparents, and Bill I leave all of my love and thanks for everything over the years. I, Don Ericksen, leave a stick of deodorant to the boys' locker room for all of the guys who try to mooch mine. I also leave my intelligence, persistence, and school pride to Robert Murray, the future scholar of the school. And last but not least, I leave all of my love to Beth Ruzicky. I, Trudi Ferguson, leave Hollis and Lisa lots of luck in the future. Thanks for all of the good times and the memories. To Pat I leave all of my love and spare change! To Tricia I leave extra confidence and luck in high school. I, Billy Fertal, leave Mr. Gifford the Fertal Memorial Award and Mr. Ripchik the brains to pick the right team. I, Nichole Guernsey, leave my big basketball sneakers to anyone who can fit into them. I leave my sister the best of luck in the future. I, Hollis Hallenbeck, leave all of our sex talks to the "lunch bunch." I leave Trudi, Lisa, Kelly, and Dixie a great friendship and many memories. To my younger cousins I leave the luck given to me during my first weeks of driving and the nickname "CRASH" to anyone who wants it. And to Dic I leave a peach!!!!!! I, William Harris, as Plywood, leave my last piece of treated wood to Mr. Gifford and Miss Martin. You can leave deadwood and driftwood as a token of my school spirit. I, Tricia Hemstreet, leave to D.A. a friendship that won't be forgotten. Always remember the "Wall Flowers". To J.P. and M.C. a lot of good times never to be forgotten. To L.R. the many good times especially at work. To my gym class and Miss Martin I leave my volleyball skills. To all my other friends I leave the best of luck and all the fun times. To J.S. I leave all of my love. I, Megan Hinkle, leave to my best friend in the world Darci Novak the ability to skate well at anytime, and many more "New Year's Eves." To Beth R. and Ang J., I leave our very interesting party nights of crawling around on the floor together. To Cyndy B. I leave the book on boy problems since we have the same problems with the same guys. To Becky M. I leave the "idea" of going far with people. To Sara H. I leave all of the great times we have had together. I, Christian Holmboe, leave all of my love and good wishes to all exchange students after me. (It's quite fun without parents for a year) I, Marcie Holt, leave to my brother Eric a lot of good luck. To Sharon all of the fun times we had in and out of school. To Wendy, good luck with everything. To Mrs. Krutz- I have special thanks for everything you helped with. To A.S. and "attitude adjustment!" I, Sara Horowitz, leave my brother Jimmy all of the good luck in the future years at B.P.H.S. To Beth R., Ang, Megan, and Darci N. all of the good times we have had in the past couple of years. Always remember the good times we have had. I love you all. To Dan, I leave all of my love forever. I, Melissa Lyn Horton, leave the teachers my friends and my good grades. To my undergraduated friends my books and my teachers. To Faith, the good times and the bad times through the years. To Kathy, the memories at High Rollers. To Bobbie Jo, summer Driver's Education while David drove. To the Hellraisers a big punch in the ... To Henning, Christian, Jacob, and Jeremy the good memories at B.P.H.S. All of my love to my parents. Thank you. I, Shawn Howard, leave all of the young immature girls time to grow up. I leave Scotty C. and Ron T. the hope for war and everyone else the hope for peace. I also leave Jeremy C. all the hopefully great basketball memories. And finally I leave all of the girls I offended with my earlier statement my love. I, Kelly Hoyt, leave to my Alma Mater my sincerest thanks for my future. To my sister Holly, I leave a marked path so that she may travel through life more easily and enjoy all that she is given. To Verna, Andrea, Trudi, and Lisa I leave our memories to cherish forever. And to Hollis Hallenbeck I leave my eternal friendship. I, Bubba Hughes, leave all of my friends my sense of humor. To Mrs. T., I leave the satisfaction of knowing that I like her more than Mr. Batty. To the "loud crowd" I leave my voice and the promise "I'll be back!" And to Becky I leave my love and a thank you for making my senior year everything it was. I, Lisa Huszar, leave to Mr. Batty and Mr. Gaffney many fun times and thanks. I leave to Trudi, Karen, Hollis, Fly, and all of my other friends our many and fond memories. Finally to Amanda - "Good luck" Sis. You'll do well. I, Angela Jacques, leave Beth R. a crack in her dashboard, a bump on my head, and all of those souvenirs from our trips. To Mike I leave a "bottle of Rum" and to an old friend a one bucket seat convertible. I, Jeffrey M. Jennings, being of sound mind and weak body, do solemnly bequeath my coveted 55 to Jason. To Renee, some Goody's headache powder. To Mr. Dougherty I leave an ulcer. And to Mr. Batty I leave the approximate second derivative of Sin 4x for his analysis.

I, Siraj Khan, leave my brother and sister. I leave Andy my advice. I leave Scott C. my superior ability to fly and I leave Ron one million dollars. I leave Jen my good looks, charm, and love. I, Jacob Knudsen, leave Mrs. Swatling "Sister Jacob's" habit!! I leave my attitude to Mrs. Mound!! and to my basketball coach Ro my bingo plate. I, Naomi Kover, leave to my brother Benjamin all of my good qualities of dating Israelis and the love I feel for Israel. To Ariella, Sassi, Adam, Noah, Ophira, my grandmother, and my wonderful parents. Stay cool Ben. Keep up those good grades. To Candee, I leave the great birds and the bees talks. I, Candice Langlier, leave my mom and stepfather my misery, back-talk, and all of my love. To Beth, our kindergarten memories and lemonade days. And peanut butter! I, Nichole Ryan, leave Candee all the extraordinary events of our "High School Adventure," the kickin' times to come, and a friend she can always count on. To Manny, I leave my deepest love. To Tina and Diane, I leave the long hikes to Hagaman and the "top secret spy mission." And lastly, to my family, I leave the patience it takes to deal with me. I, Garrett Ryfa, leave a driver's manual, and to Don I leave one final book check. To Mrs. Palmer I leave tape and memories of Barney and me in Math class. To Mr. D. I leave the legacy of Hulkamania and finally to the "King" Mr. Ingersoll I leave the Kingdom of BPHS. Forever, and last but not least to Mrs. Swatling, one word "Attention!" I, Karen Satterlee, leave Mr. C. patience and a mild temperament to save himself from future bodily hair. To Liser I leave that "similar dream" we shared, to Moll I leave our shared obsession and to Campbell I leave you choking on my dust. I, Faith Scafariello, leave to Yvonne, Nikki and Bobbi Jo the memories and friendships we have made. To Sean, I leave all my love and thanks because without him by my side, I never would have made it through this year. I, Kirsten Seeley, leave to Harry Mussen my love to keep with him in the months we're apart. I also leave to Lisa Thurman football cheerleading and stationary so she can write to me in college. I, Calvin Snell, leave Mrs. Swatling's upcoming French students my "raspy R's" and to the BP class of '91 I leave my laugh. I, Mike Snyder, leave to Becky all my love, to Scootmouse all our nicknames and strange noises we make, to Hemmer our movie marathons and other assorted horror goods, to O. and Dusky the limo, to Darci and Megan our summer Driver's Ed, and to Karen the memories of the Greatest Football team to walk the Earth. I, Melanie Sweet, leave T.H. this advice: there is nothing in your nose. I leave J.A. a brain, so she can finally pass the eighth grade. I leave K.T. a genuine J.J. butt. Finally to Hummer, I leave my heart. Someday he'll find a use for it. I, Ron Talarico, leave to Siraj and Andy a check for one million to repay all my debts, to Scott Campbell I leave Saddam Hussein. To Mr. Batty, Mr. Meaney, Mr. Cotugno, Mr. Gifford, Miss Kilgallen I leave humor and laughter. To Mr. Morrette I leave the war stories. To Melanie Kobas I leave all of our good times together. To Chris Hughes and Mark Wells I leave those rude moments. I, Elizabeth Tomlinson, leave my brother Dave, the patience to make it through one more year of high school. To my sisters Kristina, Sabrina, and Melissa I leave the strength to succeed and make it through Elementary, Middle, and High School. I leave the teachers my sister Kristina who will be coming up next year. "Good luck!" I, Ray Trombley, leave a little Goodyear for Mr. Murn. I, Charles VanDeusen, leave to my brother Russell my good grades and a chance of graduating. I, Cassidy VonStettina, leave all my best memories with my little buddies, my perfect attendance and my memories with Jon. I, Doug Weideman, also known as Driftwood leave Mr. Gifford all the veggies in the school. I, Mark Wells, leave my rude and rowdiness to the basketball crowd and long-lasting friendship to everyone I rejected.

I hate this place!

Nice car

I like America!

Oh, but please

I just love school!

ADVISOR

Mrs. Eipp

We, the class of 1991, would like to give a special thanks to Mrs. Nancy Trippodo and Mrs. Sandy Eipp. Our prom and talent show wouldn't have been such successes without the both of you. We will remember all the dedication.

Thank you,
The Class of 1991

"It was hectic, it was crazy.
 We worked hard when we weren't lazy.
 Now we're done, our job is through;
 we can present this book to you.
 So remember the good times and the bad,
 remember the happy and the sad.
 Though your future may be full of fears,
 We'll see you at the reunion in ten years.

The Flame

Another night slowly closes in, And it feels so lonely,
Touching heat freezing on my skin, I pretend you hold me,
I'm going crazy, I'm loosing sleep, I'm in to far, I'm in way too deep, over you. I can't believe you're gone.

You were the first, you'll be the last.
Where ever you go I'll be with you,
What ever you want, I'll give it to you.
When ever you need someone, to lay your heart and head upon,
Remember after the fire after all the rain,
I will be the flame,
I will be the flame.

Watchin' shadows move across the wall, fell so frightnin',
I want to run to you, I want to crawl, I've been hit by lighting.
Just can't stand up, I've fallen apart, can't see through this veil across my heart, over you.

You'll always be the one, You were the first, you'll be the last.
Where ever you go, I'll be with you
Whatever you want I'll give it to you,
Whenever you need someone, to lay your heart and head upon.
Remember after the fire after all the rain,
I will be the flame
I will be the flame.

I'm going crazy, I'm loosing sleep, I'm in to far, I'm in way too deep, over you. Can't believe your gone.

You were the first you'll be the last,
Where ever you go I'll be with you,
Whatever you want, I'll give it to you,
When ever you need someone, to lay your heart and head upon,
Remember after the fire after all the rain,
I will be the flame.
I will be the flame.
