The Best of Times

Tonight's the night we'll make history
Honey you and I
And I'll take any risk
To tie back the hands of time
And stay with you here tonight

I know you feel these are the worst of times
I do believe it's true
When people lock their doors and hide inside
Rumor has it, it's the end of Paradise
But I know if the world just passed us by
Baby I know, I wouldn't have to cry
The best of times are when I'm alone with you
Some rain, Some shine

We'll make this a world for two
Our memories of yesterday
Will last a lifetime
We'll take the best, forget the rest
And someday we'll find
These are the best of times

The headlines read
These are the worst of times
I do believe it's true
I feel so helpless like a boat against the tide
I wish the summer winds could bring back Paradise
But I know
If the world turned upside down
Baby I know
You'd always be around

We hate pictures!

Anyone want to play?

Kathy look it's the Easter bunny!

I'll play Jean.

Pam for president

Charla and Kate, meet my husband.

I love F.M.

Must be a misprint.

Isn't study hall fun?

This is my mug shot.

Yes, I won all of them.

Don't touch my car.

No kisses?

Well we're ready.

The Last Will And Testament Of The Class Of '89

- I, Ralph Talarico, leave some food to anyone who can eat as much as me, my excuses to Mr. "C" and new sweats to Mr. Gifford to get rid of his 1970 specials.
- I, Becky Thomas, leave my sister Renee all the fun I had in HS and all the great teachers I had. I leave her the ability I had to get out of assignments and classes. I wish her all the luck in the world.
- I, Brian Traver, leave the future graduates of BP much luck.
- I, Bill Uhlinger, leave my sincere wishes for the best of luck and success to my classmates. Good luck Class of '89!
- I, Michelle Vickers, leave my impeccable organizational skills to those of you who have the superior knowledge to understand my system.
- I, Peter VonSettina, leave my car to my sister Cassidy and my drumset I leave to Lars Ulrich of Metallica.
- I, Chris Weaver, leave Ronnie my left foot and Eric my right foot. To Bobby, I leave my tennis racket and to Christina, I leave my aftershave. And to Heather I leave my Diadora's.
- I, Lisa Willman, leave all my luck to my brother Matt Carpenter to be the second person in our family to graduate from high school without quitting.
- I, Kevin Winnie, leave all my memories to my friends who have entered the Sidnoid Zone.
- I, John Young, leave nothing.
- I, Chelsey Stead, leave my sister Becky my instrumental talents and my friendliness and to my brother Jeremy, I leave my intelligence because he'll need it.
- I, Jorn Stein, leave my name and my final goal; dominion over Europe.
- I, Nathan Stephens, leave my sympathy for all those who have to deal with Mr. Milunski.
- I, Paul Stewart, leave Mr. Cotugno and Mr. Gifford all the rule books ever printed and a pair of high-powered glasses for all those bad calls made in class.
- I, Bob Sulem, leave Christina B. an extra set of ears so she can hear everything. To Charla, I leave a diet plan, Donny a pair of scissors so he can get a real haircut and to Kelli her missed opportunity.
- I, Jean Sweet, leave the memories of our tenth grade homeroom and my "bad attitude" to Mrs. Swatling.
- I, Rodney Sweet, leave BPHS all my paper, pens, and teachers and most of all my brother and sister.
- I, Amy Perez, leave the Munchkin Man a book if college science. I also leave J.Y. a bottle of J.D. and for all my friends "This Buds for you."
- I, Rick Persse, leave Mr. Milunski all my good times in his class and I leave Mr. Morette my love of art.
- I, Amy Petrone, leave all Mrs. Majewski's future students earplugs so they don't die of boredom.
- I, Becky Rocca, leave all of my grades, intelligence and love to Dan Conover.
- I, Amy Rodriguez, leave nothing.
- I, Angel Rodriguez, leave nothing, too.
- I, Christina Rogers, leave my sister the common sense to quit arguing with me when she knows I'm right, but won't admit it. And to Shannon Scott I leave the patience she'll need to get through her senior year.
- I, Jennifer Rosler, leave all the fun times of my senior year to the next senior class at BPHS.
- I, Susan Sanford, leave Mr. King one more year supply of valium to safely survive his senior homeroom. To Michele Lee and Lori Kwiatkowski I each leave one third of a certain place we all cherish.
- I, Carrie Scheidel, leave all my thanks to Sam, Aneada, Sean, Kathy, Randy, T.N. and M.C.. I leave all my love and thoughts of understanding to my mom, Bonnie, Dave and my best friend and love Terry.
- I, Dot Schena, leave Travis and Chris F. all my love and thanks, I couldn't of made without you guys. To Chris W. I leave all our memories of chemistry, especially stoichiometry. I also leave the inspiration to complain about everything to Amy H.
- I, Jason Seeley, leave nothing.
- I, Angie Shy, leave Mr. Gaffney a dictionary so he can find other words to use besides obscenities at soccer games. I leave Mrs. Moores a smoke alarm.
- I, Sue Smith, leave my laughter and my open honesty to the next senior class, and the hope that our senior class will keep it.
- I, Michelle Lee, leave my phone number to all my friends so we don't lose touch.
- I, Robert Lenz, leave my books.
- I, Mark Levendusky, leave Mr. Milunski and a lot of luck to all the underclassmen.
- I, Tia Longway, leave my locker and studying skills to all the peasants after me. To my sister; good luck in your career.
- I, Santo Lopresti, leave nothing.
- I, Mark Massaccesi, leave the teachers all the headaches that I've given them and I leave nothing else to nobody cause I'm taking it all with me.
- I, Georgia McClanahan, leave all my luck to those yet to come to BPHS.
- I, Chris Merk, leave the right to party to the underclassmen.
- I, Charla Monks, leave Katie nothing; since after all— we're friends FOREVER!! To my family I leave my deepest sympathy; cause guess what guys— you got me forever!
- I, Scott Moore, leave nothing because I only have one thing, and I'm not leaving her.
- I, Kelly Mowers, leave to Kelli and Christina all the great memories of the "awesome threesome." To Jason I leave a lot of special memories, never to be forgotten. To the class of "89", the best of luck.
- I, Tina Munchbach, leave to C.S., T.E. the senior class, here and at Galway, the best of luck. To my mother, the best friend a girl could ever have, I leave my love.
- I, Don Munn, leave to Crash Adamec a new helmet. To Bob I leave a new weight room, so he can train to become "Mr. Olympia." To Pat Fen-ton I leave you at the helm of next years championship football team.
- I, Terry Neri, leave all my worst memories to Broadalbin-Perth H.S.
- I, Fred Nye, leave my intellectual knowledge of science and my tie to Mr. King.
- I, Grant Palmer, leave my quiet little attitude to anybody who wants it.
- I, Shawn Paradise, leave some ties to Mr. Gifford along with the "T-shirt" and to Mr. Morette, my memories and knowledge of art.
- I, Shana Pelosi, leave Mrs. Burpee the memories of Wendy, Chris, and me in her English class. I also leave Mr. Batty a congratulation for his baby, what ever it may be.
- I, John Espar, leave Tracey Hemstreet the key to a new corvette, which I will someday buy her.
- I, Howard Frasier, leave all my days of school.
- I, Sheri Gaydusek, leave the best of luck to the class of 1990.
- I, John Glode, leave the few good notes I have to Mr. Dougherty, the best teachers in the world.
- I, Phil Guadagno, leave nothing.
- I, Jeni Healey, leave to all my friends all the money I ever "borrowed" and to Mr. Batty a lot of patience.
- I, Tracey Hemstreet, leave John Espar and Aaron Jablonski my great skiing talents and I leave Heather Bell the old white shoe on Steadwell Ave. and the best friendship anyone could ask for.
- I, Wendy Hollenbeck, leave Mr. Munn the detention I never got for being late and to Mr. Milunski more students like me because I'm sure here will be.
- I, John Hughes, leave all the passes I never returned.
- I, Amy Huszar, leave.
- I, Aaron Jablonski, leave Tim Alteri a lifetime supply of tranquilizers so he can "relax."
- I, Pam Jablonski, leave my spirit to all future cheerleaders.
- I, Ray King, leave my charm to June Marie Simpson and shades to David Rowe for better hallway vision.
- I, Katie King, leave to my best friend, Charla, memories of Carl Benz, her drinking buddy. (Dad), thanks for everything and friendship forever.
- I, Shawn Knapp, leave to Mrs. Burpee my great sense of humor.
- I, Adam Kover, leave some good luck and study habits to Benjamin Kover to help him through the rest of high school.
- I, Roman Kowal, leave the beauty of verdant hills to those who sit on the north windowsills. And I leave, but I might come back from out of the blue and into the black.
- I, Cindy Kulczycki, leave many thanks to my parents for all their love and support. Also I leave my friends all the great memories we had throughout high school.
- I, Lori Kwiatkowski, leave all my friends memories which they are better off forgetting.
- I, Marie LaPan, leave Tina Becker happiness. I leave Terry Becker and Jeni Healey the wild memories of high school.
- I, Theresa Cox, leave the Broadalbin-Perth underclassmen all of my misery and frustrations and all the good that is left I leave to BooBoo Bear.
- I, Jennifer L. Crispin, leave my continuing friendship to everyone I leave behind at BPHS. I also leave my many "hats" and "fashion statements" to anyone who can wear them as well as I do.
- I, Albert Cromling, leave Mrs. Swatling my French accent.
- I, Pat Cromling, leave all my love and a shirt with very long sleeves to Trudi.
- I, Sarah Crowther, leave my organizational talents to my sister Debbie because she certainly can use them.
- I, Brian Cyr, leave nothing.
- I, Susan Davis, leave Kristie Carpenter my good sense of humor, smile, and peppiness. Also, I leave her a one pound bag of M&M's.
- I, Christine DesChamps, leave all the good friendship to Sigourney and Mergo. I also leave my French accent.
- I, Mary Drab, leave Andrea Shelmandine my great sense of humor and all my nicknames. To Cheryl Murphy, I leave my shorthand "catalog" and my Red Berry drink boxes.
- I, Jon DuBois, leave nothing.
- I, Eric Duellmer, leave nothing.
- I, Jim Earl, leave nothing.
- I, Kathy Egan, leave Sharon Phillips all the luck possible in the years to come but not my luck with guys.
- I, Kelli Adamec, leave my buddies Christina and Kelly our memories of Friendlies, the boy's locker room and Cape Cod with many more memories to follow.
- I, Tracy Alkinburgh, leave my intelligence and good looks to the underclassmen who are less fortunate than myself.
- I, Terry Becker, leave to the class of '89 and to all my friends much success and happiness.
- I, Tina Becker, leave all my money to Jeni Healey because that is where it all goes.
- I, Heather Bell, leave Mike Vertorano my stereo, speakers, and the relationship I am still waiting for.
- I, Christina Berry, leave Kelli and Kelly the hope that they will never stop searching for the perfect "B" and "Z". I also leave them all the wild memories of the "awesome threesome" and the more yet to come. To my parents I leave my love and thanks and to Audie, I leave the world.
- I, Travis Betz, leave my mother's signature to my mother and Western Europe to Jorn Stein.
- I, Jeff Bliss, leave to Bill Roy and Steve Frasier a little bit of sense that they desperately need.
- I, Nick Boltash, leave a pair of running shoes to Mrs. Moore.
- I, Michael Bowen, leave my height to Scott Michalski.
- I, Norman Brick, leave all my patience and understanding to the one whom I cherish so deeply! I know, though, that Amy and I are just good friends.
- I, Melissa Bryant, leave Mr. Gifford my embarrassed face!
- I, Michael Cadoret, leave to Tammy all the good teachers and my books.
- I, Eric Capron, want to leave.
- I, Tracy Caputo, leave to my brother the ability to put up with morons.
- I, Mary Cardone, leave the best of luck to all my friends and fellow classmates. To all my close friends I leave all the memories of all the times we shared together, don't forget the fun we had.
- I, Shawn Cernak, leave to Jennie Ryder the back seat of my '69 Ford Fairlane.
- I, Karen Chandler, leave to all my teachers, the headaches that they have earned from me.
- I, Rick Cheney, leave to all my boring classes fun and excitement, and to all the exciting classes I leave boredom and misbehavior.

When Travis talks people listen.

Late again Shana?

Where is your skateboard Mike?

A model student.

Smile, this is for the yearbook.

Jen, does Mr. Jackson know where you are?

Which class are you skipping now?

Where did the ball go?

Ping-pong anyone?

What are you guys looking at?

Which shirt will I wear today?

Scott Smith and Mary Cardone.

Shoot Matt!

Relaxed Cynthia?

Hurry or you'll miss the bus.

Don't you just love Business Law?

Did Mr. Batty Kick you out again?

Where did that little ball go?

Nice view Steve?

Jenny

John

That bus is late again!

Thirsty?

The only work Victor did all year.

A typical, hard working BPHS student.

J.J. never looked better!

Where did everybody go?

What did you do this time, George?

They just don't fit.

I'm here!

Officer Adamec patrolling the halls.

First you put your fingers like this.

You really look sick, Donna!

Can you tell it is Friday?

Guess who?

Everyone's favorite!

HELP!

Who could want more?

Show him how to do it, Fred.

Mark and Albert

Need help, Jeff?

I have a dream . . .

What a wild prom night!!

Just Shana.

Where is Kyle now??

Ha, Ha Santo, you got a zero.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of nineteen eighty-nine, dedicate this volume of the MARQUEE in loving memory of Mr. Gary Cerrone. He was regarded as an excellent and fair teacher who was always willing to listen. His concern for people was evident in his supportive and optimistic attitude. We will always remember Mr. Gary Cerrone for encouraging us to reach out and obtain our hopes, dreams, and highest goals. So it is, therefore, to a man who was very much admired by all that the yearbook staff dedicates our yearbook.

Mr. Cerrone

See what you can do with a little practice.

No in-school today Scott?

The girl with the hair.

Don't you know how to use that Tim?

Roman, Angie, and Jim.

Need help with all that hair Don?
