Dedication

We the Class of 1990, would like to dedicate this yearbook, to you Mrs. Pickering. You have always been there for us—especially this year. You have helped us prepare for next year and the rest of our lives. Going out on our own next year will not be easy, but because of you, it will be less difficult to do. Thank you, Mrs. Pickering, for everything you've done.

Thank You, Mrs. Pickering

1990 Broadalbin-Perth

- I, Wendy Adamkoski, leave Stacie Bogusz all the love and advice a best friend could give and to all of my friends, I leave my smiling face, my big mouth, and my corny jokes! I'll miss you.
- I, Andrew Aldi, leave Michael Paul my charm and wit because I know he doesn't have any of his own.
- I, Donna Austin, leave Cassidy all the memories over the years. And don't forget to amuse yourself.
- I, Susan Balogh, leave all the luck and fun I had in HS to my sister Tonja. I also leave Karen Bishop all the great memories of our talks in our 11 grade study hall, and to Shannon and Diane I leave our friendship.
- I, Raymond C. Barber Jr., leave my intelligence and wisdom to my brother, and my love to the special people in my life.
- I, Eva Bartel, leave Kris, Jenny, Tami, Marcie, Karen, Uosa, Madeleine, and all my other American friends. I want to thank you all for your friendship and your support. I'll never forget this year with you. I had a great time and I'll always think of you when I'm back at home in Germany.
- I, Ellen Barter, leave to Mr. Giff 20 dollars for his tie, to Mr. Ingersoll my bright red face, and to all my friends the best of luck and a lot of love.
- I, Scott Bartone, leave to all the poor teachers my successor, Little Bart.
- I, Kimberly Bilins, leave Jennifer Bilins my books and hopes that she'll use them more than I did.
- I, Garry Bills, leave Joe Croser the fun of getting beat on all the time.
- I, Karen Bishop, leave to Sue and Shannon the beginning of our friendship and all our good times together. To Di, I leave the green squirty kind along with Big D and the best friendship anyone could ever ask for. To Alan I leave my love, August 18 - "let it ride."
- I, Stacie Bogusz, leave my cheery mood and the ability to smile all the time to anyone who is always bummed out.
- I, Marcella Bojanowski, leave Kathy Bonk my key of wisdom to unlock the doors of many successful future adventures.
- I, Patty Bonk, leave to Micheal Pierson all my love that I hope he'll keep with him forever. And to my sister Kathy, I leave the Best of Luck and I hope she gets all she wants out of life.
- I, Jodi Bovee, leave Mrs. Swatling a new set of erasers for her future French classes.
- I, Lisa Bowen, leave my memories and the good times I had here at Broadalbin-Perth.
- I, Greg Bown, leave to Mr. D my sister (good luck). To the French Club I leave my Toga for parties to come. To

- Erik S. I leave my Junior Prom Date, and to Brian L. I leave my running shoes.
- I, Kristie Lissa Carpenter, leave my pom poms, school spirit, and the thrill of the final seconds of the game. To my family I leave my love because they have given me so much. And most importantly I leave John all my love and friendship forever.
- I, John Cerasia, leave all my books, pens, pencils, and the school lunch to the under class of BPH. I also leave all my love to my girl friend, Kristie Carpenter.
- I, Chris Cerasuolo, leave my fiance David all my love forever and to my mother, Thanks!
- I, Jeff Chovanec, leave all of my superior knowledge and high grades to my sister because she'll need them.
- I, Garrett Cowser, leave Twitch my dance skates.
- I, Deb Crowther, leave my innate ability to be in the middle of something to anyone who has the capacity to try it.
- I, Doug Cummings, leave Pat Fenton a package of underwear, so he will always have a pair for practice.
- I, Jennifer Davis, leave all my love and affection to Jason Latza. The memories with you I'll never forget, and to my friends my smartness.
- I, Maureen Fagan, leave my car to all those people who have walked over it through the years, and to Brian I leave all the fun times of the summer and glow in the dark polka-dots.
- I, Pat Fenton, leave Amy Radik many great memories, and to ALL MY COACHES, Thanks!
- I, Michele Flessa, leave my loving boyfriend William my love and my happiness forever!
- I, Steven Fraiser, leave Mike Stanton, Steve Gibson, and Todd Holt The Blue Oyster Club because I know they'll do a real good job at getting more members to join because they've had a lot of practice over the past year.
- I, Hal Green, leave Pride and Spirit to the Patriots.
- I, Theresa Guiliani, leave Amy, Kris, Jenny, and Marcy all our wild memories and to Amy, Jenny's garbage can for the one she missed, and to all my friends the best of luck in whatever they may do.
- I, Diane Herold, leave to Karen, Shannon, and Sue all of our great times - wild adventures and the best of all our friendships. And to Jeff, I leave my friendship and thanks for all the times you've listened to my complaining.
- I, Kimberly E. Husek, leave Laura Iannacone all my stupid jokes. Mr. Gifford my complements on his wide array of ties. And Dave, the end of a long wait.

- I, Laura Iannacone, leave Jeff Sowle all of our happy memories at the Cider Mill, and to Kim Husek, I leave our moments of talking about "you know who" and the fun we had through the years. And to Mom, Dad, Robert, and David thanks for all your time and practice with me.
- I, Brent Jacques, leave my sister Angela my ability to pass tests without studying.
- I, Keith Jessop, leave with few burnt cells.
- I, Heather Johnson, leave to Andrea Berry and Chrissy Spencer positions on front line. To Marcy Wach, Kris, Jenny, Amy, Theresa, and the rest of the group my friendship forever. Hang on to those memories, guys.
- I, Chris Kaczor, leave the underclassmen my memories.
