Student Life

Augh! It's the first day again. I'm wearing my new school clothes. I don't know about these new teachers. I hate my classes! I love my classes! I'll never make it to class - it's all the way on the other side of school. The first day is so tough.

There is one phrase that always stays with me, in fact, it's the phrase my folks used repeatedly as I grew up... it helped me learn self-reliance and develop a sense that I could do anything... "God helps those who help themselves". In fact, when asked, my two brothers also refer to that quote as the biggest influence on their lives.
All the best to your class.

Building Up BP!

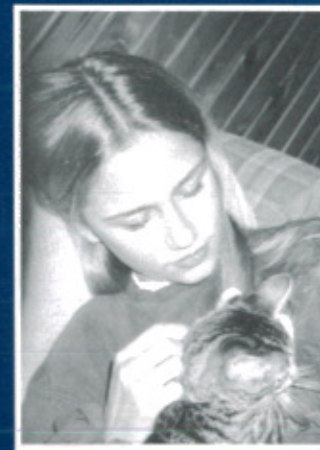

Before

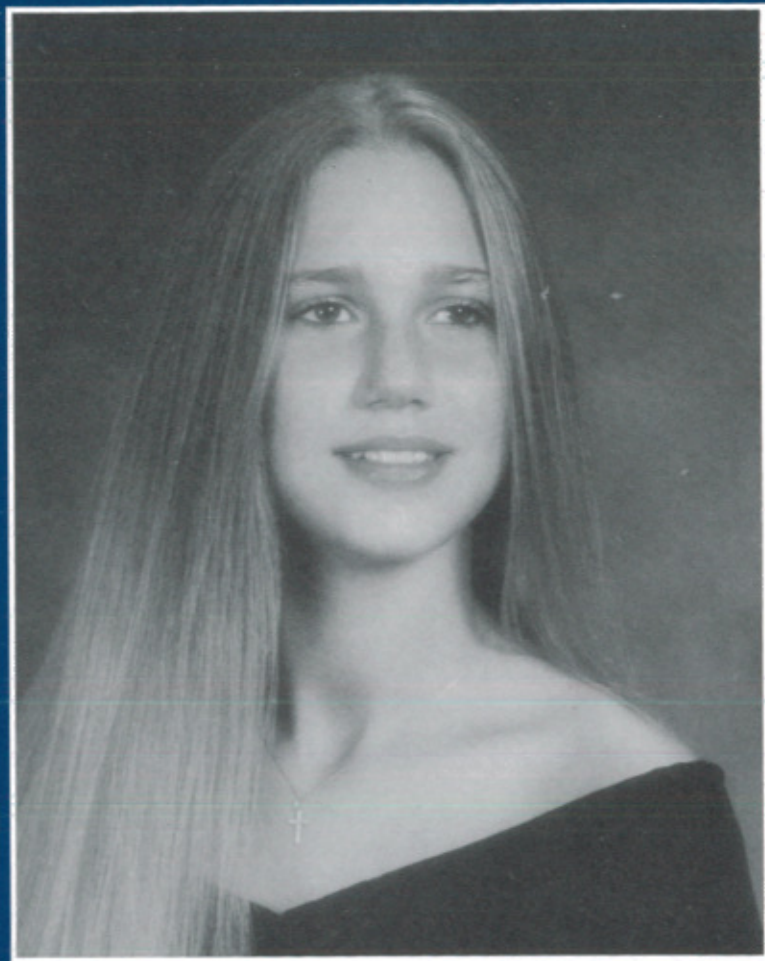

. after

In the fall of 1994, the construction of the new wing began. Construction lasted about a year. On September 6th the new wing was open for the first time for classes. The students were excited to have new surroundings. On December 2nd a ribbon cutting ceremony took place to celebrate the opening of the new wing. The new wing consists of 10 classrooms, 4 science labs, musicians' band suite, also an auditorium with a 3,000 square foot stage and seating room for 900. In the existing building remodeling occurred, including a new dining room, new offices, a copy room and a new school store.

Dedication

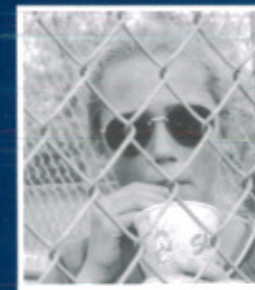

"Know thyself? If I knew myself, I'd run away."-Goethe 1978-1995

Always Remembered. You always shined wherever you went. Your smile was warm, and heaven sent. The life you lived was fulfilled, with the accomplishments you achieved, brought good will. You will forever be missed by family and friends. You touched all our lives and soon all our hearts will mend. You look down on us from heaven above, as we write you this poem with all of our love.

"Living A Dream"

"It's okay to dream big dreams, as long as you're willing to work towards those dreams. Never look back and say, 'If only I had done this or that, I could have reached my dream.' Give it everything you've got and take advantage of every opportunity. If you do, your dreams will come true."

Dan Marino

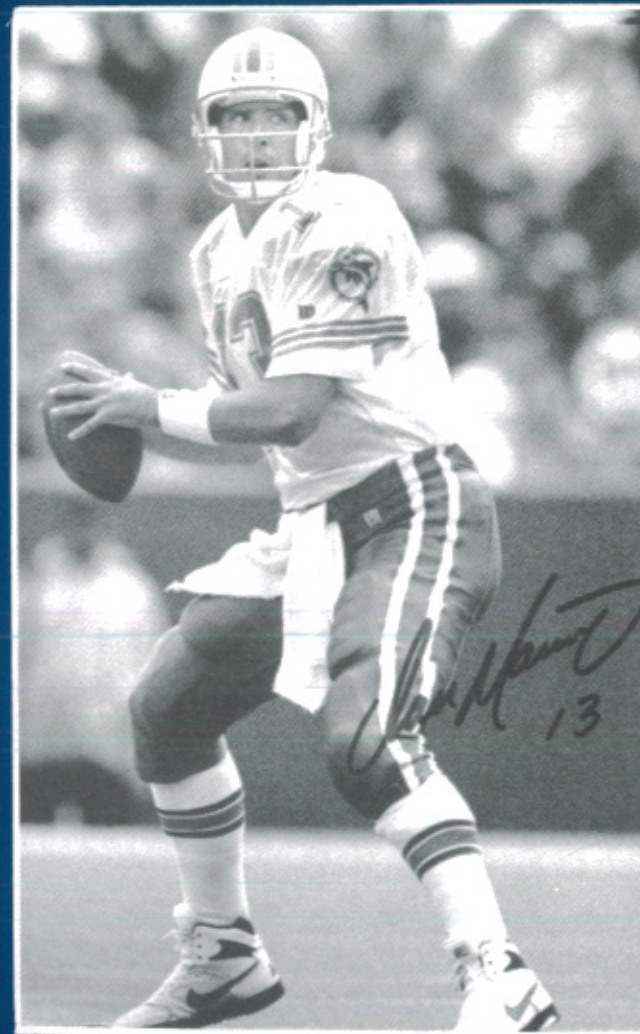

We all have dreams and goals in life remember, no matter how high and far they may seem, reach out and grab them. When you do, hold on tightly to what you have in your hand and never let it get away. Make your dream become a reality. It worked for me forecasting the weather. My hobby growing up is now my job.

BROADALBIN — Students from all different countries now have their own club at Broadalbin-Perth High School. Board of Education members approved the formation of an International Club. Several foreign exchange students proposed the club, but it is set up to serve the entire student population.

Cristian Beghin, a student from Italy, was the driving force behind the club. He said sponsorship for it comes from the American Field Society, although the district does not have to become a dues paying member of the nationwide organization.

Board member Robert Townsend said he thinks the club is a great opportunity for the international students and the students in the local area. The board voted unanimously to approve the club. "We would really enjoy it if everyone can come," Beghin said, when asked if the club was open to all students. Beghin was joined at Monday's board meeting by Tama's Stumpf from Hungary, Agnieszka Gawecka from Poland, and Mano Hasui and Reiko Matsuda from Japan.

Sophomore Class Activities

The Sophomore Class has been very active. As Freshmen the Class of 1998 constructed and placed first in the Float Competition at the Homecoming Parade. A group of hardworking and dedicated students participated in the Bulletin Board Contest and placed first on two of three occasions. A Valentine's Day dance was sponsored by the Class as well as an environmental T-shirt sale. This year we bought our rings and had a Ring Day pizza party. We also sponsored our first Donkey Basketball Game.

In its usual style the Class of '97 has been both traditional and non-traditional this year. In the traditional manner we elected Peter Bluvus, President, Jess Rockwell, Vice President, Jackie Townsend, Secretary, and Katie Zavola, Treasurer to guide us through this busy year. We also sold magazines, making just over $900 to help in our non-traditional prom. If all goes as planned we will have had a unique and exciting event. We are planning to venture on to new ground by holding the prom at a site away from school. The very successful Homecoming Dance and planned spaghetti supper will also figure in our finances for the prom.

Our class is diverse and has many students who are interested in a wide variety of areas. We draw our strength as a class from this and continue to grow individually and as a group.

Cast & Crew of the 1996 Production

During the 1996 season, BPHS Drama Club performed a folies of over 20 Broadway Shows and 6 other eye catching acts. The club felt it would be a great way to kick-off all the plays yet to be performed in the new auditorium.

Over the past 8 years, since the Drama Program was started at Broadalbin-Perth, the Drama Club has performed all of its shows in the Perth Gym. This year with the construction of the New High School wing, an auditorium with 900 seats, a 3,362 square foot stage, and a 1,600 watt sound system, we as well as the Bands and Choirs have our new home. The Drama Club believes the new facility will only enhance its yearly musicals. Good Luck and break a leg!

THE SOUND OF MUSIC

In April of 1995 BP Drama Club, directed by Ms. Quackenbush performed a production of "The Sound of Music", a musical written by Rogers & Hammerstein about an Austrian naval captain and his family's struggle to resist the grips of World War II with the help of a postulant governess. It starred John Crispn, Erica McFarland, Amanda Cenzer, Briar. Arogtisinger, & Kateri Splittgerber to name a few.

Coach Ken Merchant's Patriots are expected to be among the contenders in the Tri-Valley League large school division. Senior Tom Sniezyk, senior Kevin Shrome, and junior Jason Doviak will probably lead the charge this season. Merchant, who guided the Patriots to a 12-10 record last year, is also working with junior Jeff Cornell along with junior Rob Klug and Sophomores Colin Hughes and Mike Pawloski, up from the JV squad. Sophomore David Howard, a transfer student from Amsterdam, joins that list of players competing for extensive playing time. The Patriots hope to see improvements from seniors Gary Jablonski and Rob Roth and juniors Pete Bluvas, Jason Stack, and Sean Aery. The latter three played on the JVs a year ago.

May Your Roads Be Straight and Narrow

May your roads be straight and narrow
as you travel on your way.
May you live for each
tomorrow every day.
May your life be filled
with promise
as you start your journey on.
May you always keep your memories
ever strong.
May you learn to trust
and love your fellow man.
May you learn to walk together
hand in hand.
May you hold on to your friendships
as you travel
on your way.
May you find new dreams
and treasures every day.
May your life be filled
with promise
as you start your journey on.
May you always keep
your memories
ever strong.
May your roads
be straight and narrow,
your whole life long.

The Measure of a Man
I never measured love
By the gold stars on your forehead,
The goal you made,
Or the times you put away your clothes.
For I would never trade
The kind and tender things you are
For six A's,
A winning team,
Or a clean house.
So, my son, grow the ways you must,
But never grow away from love,
Which is the only true measure of a man.

Mrs. Allegretto

To the Class of 1996:

Congratulations to the Class of 1996! You are the first class to graduate from the "new" Broadalbin - Perth High School. I hope you look back upon this building project as an opportunity to learn some of life's more important lessons. We learned that dreams must precede action, planning is essential resources must be gathered, hard work pays off, and teamwork brings better results than a singular effort. You had only one year to reap the rewards of this collective endeavor. I wish you success in building many years of your "new" future!

Mr. Cotugno

Congratulations to the Class of 1996! Graduation is both an end and a beginning. May you look back and remember fondly your years here at B.P.H.S. But, more importantly, may you look to your future with enthusiasm and a commitment to purpose as you embark on life's journey.
