The Broadalbin- Perth 2003 Patriot

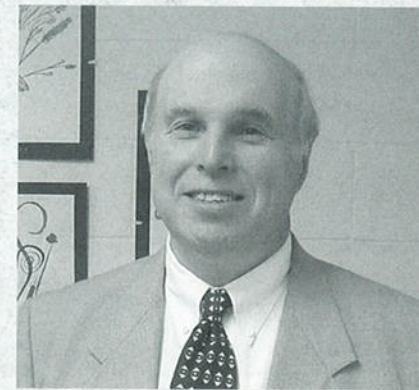

Dedication

When deciding whom to dedicate this year's yearbook to, only one person came to mind. Dr. Brooks leaves the Broadalbin-Perth School District this year after 13 years of dedicated service as our Superintendent of Schools. In addition to his duties as Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Brooks made himself available to students conducting individual Science Research projects here at BP. In mean time, Dr. Brooks has continued teaching people who wish to become teachers as a professor through SUNY Plattsburgh.

On behalf of the faculty and student body, the yearbook staff would like to dedicate the 2003 Patriot to Dr. Brooks. If it were not for his dedication to us, Broadalbin-Perth would not be what it is today.

Dear Lyndsay,

You have come a long way from adorable to heartthrob, and what a trip it's been! Thank you for all the times you have shared your life with us. You always keep things interesting; dinner trivia, heated discussions, a funny story, or just sharing your dreams for the future. We count you as a true friend, a mother's delight, a father's joy and a sister's confidant. Don't forget to take time to dance and sing, keep friendships close. "Take the road less traveled by and that will make all the difference." Keep life balanced somewhere between Metallica and Yani. And remember 120 mph is not the speed limit! Develop your purpose in life, and dedicate yourself to it daily. Remember that character is what you stand birthday, but you will always be my precious jewel. Always be a person of principle, passion, and purity. Remember you will always be our Linnie-Bear.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Emily
