Steven,

It has been a New Years Eve celebration ever since 12-31-81. Proud of you is an understatement.

Conquer the world!

Love, Mom, Dad, Heather and Family

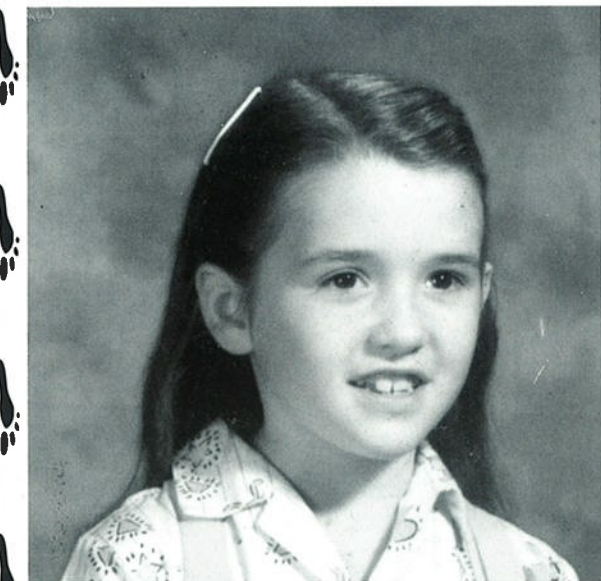

Amber, Seems like yesterday you were so small, always picking you up when you fell. You've grown and changed, becoming who you are, all while we were not far. Now as your time to fly is here, we'll help you soar, there is no fear. We are with you, no matter where you may be. In our hearts, love holds us tight yet sets us free and if our little girl falls, we'll always pick her up and stand her tall. Love, Mom and Dad

Betsy and David:
Best friends from the very beginning.

Betsy,
You always have been able to make us smile. Much Love, Mom

flash BACK

In sixth grade, your idea of a friend was the person who went up to Nicky or Susan, your new crush, and asked them to dance with you, so that if they said no you wouldn't have been embarrassed.

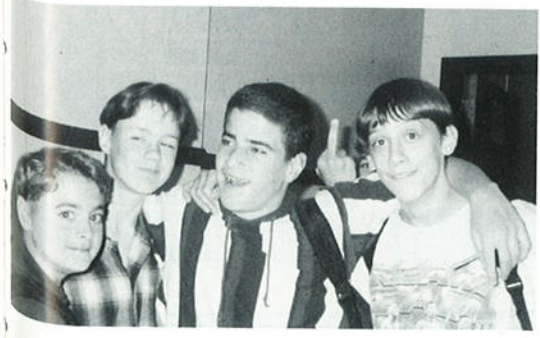

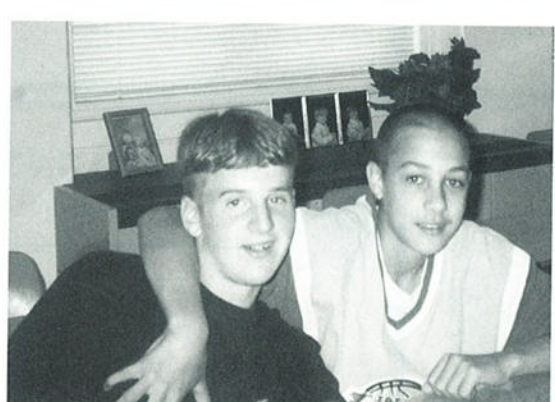

In seventh grade, your idea of a friend was the person who let you copy the social studies homework from the night before that you had.

In eighth grade, your idea of a good friend was the person who helped you pack up your stuffed animals and old baseball but didn't laugh at you when you finished and broke out into tears.
