Torie, the day you were born, my wish was granted. More beautiful than words, you stole my heart from your first breath. I remember your first day of Kindergarten and how I cried as the bus pulled away. It felt like my heart was breaking to let my little girl go. It's hard to believe that so many years have already gone by and soon you will be starting college. I know that I will be crying the day you graduate, because it will feel like my heart is breaking all over again to let my little girl go once more, in an even bigger direction. Through the years we have been through so many new experiences together. You have accomplished more than I ever dreamed in just this first 18 years of your life. I can't imagine what you'll do with the rest. My dear daughter, Just remember this ... that on the day you were born, my wish was granted, more beautiful than words, you have stolen my heart until my last breath.
