BROADALE IN PERTH
HIGH SCHOOL

A person in a striped shirt and dark pants is captured mid-air, performing a high jump over a bar. The background shows a clear sky and some trees.

Think big thoughts, relish small pleasures.

Strive for excellence, not perfection

Don't waste time grieving over past mistakes.

Learn from them and move on.

*Don't waste an opportunity
to tell someone you love them.*

Never deprive someone of hope. It might be all they've got

Never cut what can be untied.

Don't expect life to be fair.

*Don't miss the magic of the moment
by focusing on what's to come.*

Give up on no one. Miracles happen every day.

Failing to prepare is preparing to fail.

*Never underestimate the power
of a kind word or deed.*

*Remember: success
comes to the one who acts first.*

Do not put limits on yourself.

Learn to listen.

Opportunity sometimes knocks very softly.

Life is a journey, always enjoy the ride.

A landscape view featuring a large, leafy tree in the foreground, a street lamp, and a utility pole in the background under a clear sky.

Amy Walendziak

To my big sister Amy,

Throughout the years, we've stuck together through thick and thin even though there have been times when we can't stand each other, at the end of the day, we are sisters and I would NEVER give that up for anything! There is so much that you have taught me: from playing the clarinet to getting the "kill" in volleyball, to just all around being a better person! When you are away at college, I'll miss you like crazy, but I know that we will always be sisters!

Enjoy your future, you deserve everything good!

Love,

Your little sister, Lisa

P.S. I love you and just remember, we are only a phone call away.

Tim Gordon

Dear Timmy,

We love you and are so proud of you and your accomplishments. Keep on the path your going and you will be successful.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Jacob Rasmussen

Jacob,

We love you so much and are very proud of the young man you've become.

Love, Mom & Dad

There are things, down the road between hither and yon, that can scare you so much you won't want to go on.

But on you will go though the weather be foul
On you will go though your enemies prowl
On you will go though the Hakken-Kraks howl.

Onward up many a frightening creek, though your arms may get sore and your sneakers may leak.

On and on you will hike and I know you'll hike far and face up to your problems whatever they are.

You'll get mixed up, of course, as you already know.

You'll get mixed up with many strange birds as you go. So be sure when you step. Step with care and great tact and remember that Life's a Great Balancing Act. Just never forget to be dexterous and deft. And never mix up your right foot with your left.

And will you succeed?
Yes! You will, indeed!
(98 and 3/4 percent guaranteed.)

So...
You're off to Great Places!
Today is your day!
Your mountain is waiting.
So...get on your way!

-taken from "Oh, the Places You'll Go!" by Dr. Seuss

I am so proud of your individuality, of your courage and strength. You have taught me more about love and laughter than I can begin to explain. These talents and so many more are a gift that will guide you to the tops of all the mountains waiting for you. Be proud of your strengths.

Your charm, your talent, and your adventurous soul will take you as far as you can dream to go. Your star shines so brightly; all you have to do is reach out for it and the sky is your limit Zaccaria.

I wish for you that the best day of your past be the worst day of your future. Take good care of my boy on your journey.

Unending Love, Mom.

Zaccaria Crankshaw

I wish nothing but the best for your future.

Put your mind to it and you will achieve every goal you ever set for yourself (and you will be the best lawyer I've ever known). It seems like yesterday when I was playing matchboxes with you and listening about Harry Potter every night. You have an endless amount of talent that I have always admired; use your power for good and you can do anything and go anywhere that your heart desires.

Love, Toby

The proudest moment of my life was when my son Zaccaria Crankshaw was not even 2 years old. He and I were walking down the sidewalk holding hands.

Every time he saw a person on the porch, or walking by he would yell out as loud as he could and as happy as could be, "I am walking with my Daddy" he would say. That moment etched forever into my mind as the single most joyful event of my life. All that I have done pales in comparison to that heart-felt moment.

Now, as proud as you were to be by my side, I am more proud to be by your side now. It is my turn to walk with you yelling at the top of my lungs,

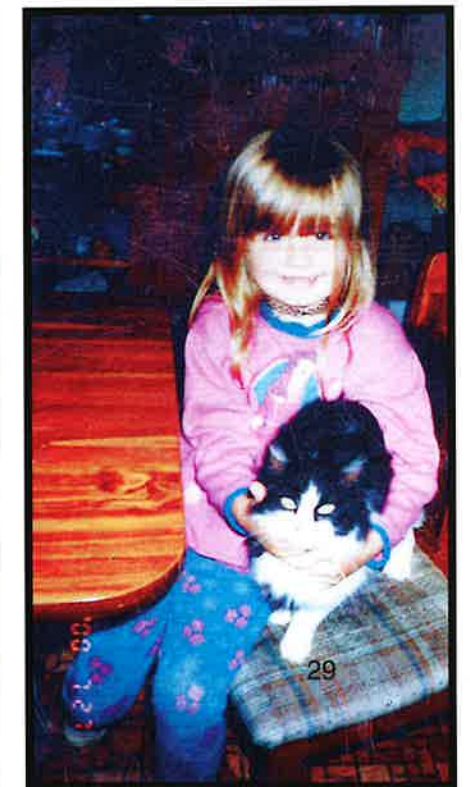

"I am walking with my son!"

Zaccaria R Crankshaw,

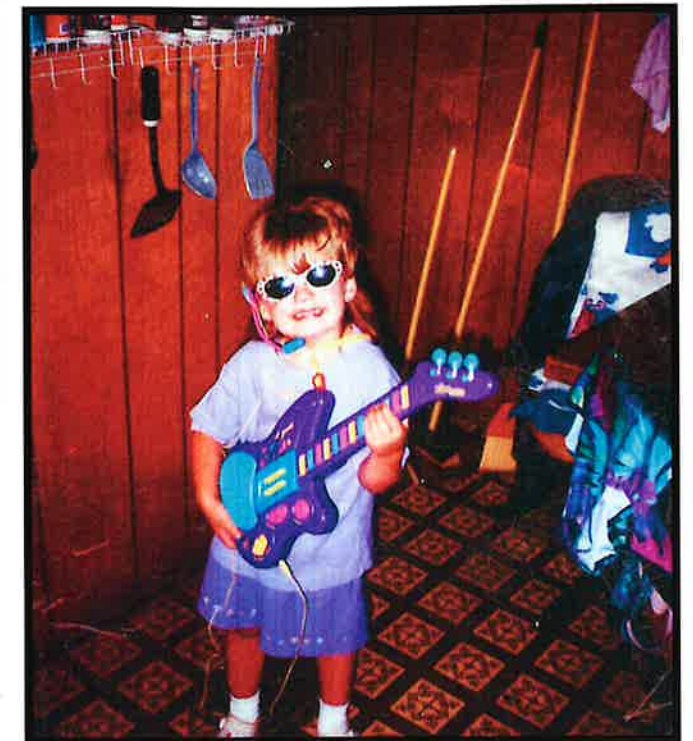

You are the single most important thing that has ever entered into my life. You changed everything for me, and I will forever be grateful.

Your Loving Dad

Mary Sabol

Mary,
 You are almost there to graduate from high school. When you were born in the U.S. Naval Hospital, Yokosuka, Japan, you were only 6 pounds, such a tiny and little baby. I am so happy you became a big, healthy, intelligent girl. Your life may not have been so easy, but you have managed through it very well. I've been so grateful to have you in my life and you have given me great joy to be your mother. Congratulations!
Love, Mom

Mackenzie Quinn Ottati

Mackenzie Quinn

We are so proud of you as a daughter, a sister, and a friend. Your determination and outlook on life is incredible. You have always reached for the stars and have climbed to the top of every mountain. Your biggest challenge thus far in life has been your height. To many it is a gift, but to you it has been a struggle. Running against girls that come to your shoulders has been difficult, but towering over your peers in the BP halls is nothing to be ashamed of. Always be sure to laugh at yourself, to love yourself, but most of all be kind to yourself.

Never say, "I should have done that" or "I could have done this" just do it!! Live for today and set goals for tomorrow. The word LAZY should never be part of your vocabulary, nor should you ever say, "I cannot do that." Be a leader and not a follower, be kind not mean toward others, and always expect the best from yourself not just enough to get by. Put your dreams first and never sway from that dream until it has been accomplished. Life is a gift so cherish it and utilize it to the best of your ability. Never be ashamed of who you are or what you stand for, just stand tall with your shoulders back and believe in yourself because we do!

Your family will always be there for you, and we will always love you unconditionally. Never give up and when one goal has been reached then quickly set a new one. Live each day to the fullest, and always remember you are never alone. You have four sisters that will always be by your side, and a mom and dad who will always look over you.

Stay true to yourself forever and always.

Love you to Mars and Back,

Dad, Mom, Michela, Morganne, Marlee, & Meleena

"I Won't Give Up"

*When I look into your eyes
It's like watching the night sky
Or a beautiful sunrise
There's so much they hold
And just like them old stars
I see that you've come so far
To be right where you are
How old is your soul?*

*I won't give up on us
Even if the skies get rough
I'm giving you all my love
I'm still looking up*

*And when you need your space
To do some navigating
I'll be here patiently waiting
To see what you find*

*Cause even the stars they burn
Some even fall to the earth
We've got a lot to learn
God knows we're worth it
No: I won't give up
Jason Mraz*

Sarah,
We are proud of the beautiful young woman that you have grown up to be! It seems like just yesterday that you were picking out a dolly for going pee on the potty and demanding lipdip in the store.
Now go out into the world and pursue your passions.
Never settle for less than you deserve.

Stay true to yourself!
Share your radiant smile and kindness with others!

Seaira Fountain

To my beautiful daughter,

Believe in the possibilities of every single day. Live life to the fullest, the time we have here is limited. It's not about how fast you reach your goals it's knowing that you can.

Wake up every morning thanking God you woke up.
Appreciate the beauty in all living things. Remember to smile, it only takes a second to show someone you care. Leave a lasting impression on the people you meet.

Seaira, you are my rock and my reason for believing that everything in life happens for a reason. Watching you grow into the smart, beautiful, and independent young woman you are today has brought great meaning to my life.

Always remember when things get tough, someone out there has it ten times worse than you do. It's just a speed bump in the road. Attribute it to a lesson learned and move on. Only you have the capacity to make your dreams come true, don't wait for someone to do it for you. Lastly, a mother's love has no boundaries and is unconditional.

I will always walk next to you in your journey through life.

Dream big and make me proud.

Love you,
Mom

Dear Sarah,

It does not seem that long ago that I held you in my arms and was so amazed at your smiling face. I am so lucky and proud to have been a part of your journey to becoming a young lady. Through the laughter, the tears, the joys and sadness, hope and pain, you always moved forward with a smile on your face.

Sarah, I love you so much and I am so proud to call you my daughter and so lucky to call you my friend.

To our beautiful daughters Carly and Cassidy,
We are incredibly proud of the young ladies you have become. Watching you both over the years accomplish your goals has been a joy and we can't wait to see what comes next. Graduation is not the end of the journey, but the beginning. Stay true to yourself and always to what you love doing. Remember the love of a family is life's greatest blessing! You girls were "grown together" and will be "friends forever!"
May all your wishes come true.

Tori Rose,

I can't even believe that the time has come for our baby to graduate...Where did the time go?! It seems like just yesterday that we were holding you in our arms thinking just how lucky we were to have been blessed with yet another beautiful little girl...WOW!! We knew even before you entered this world that you had the determination, strength, and spirit to conquer all you set out for and all that the world has to offer. We honestly believe that your outer beauty is a true reflection of your inner beauty and of that light shining through. We are so proud of you and all of the accomplishments you have made. We are confident that whatever life has in store for you that you are ready to take it on and be successful. Although it is hard for us to let you go and begin to follow your own dreams, know that we will always be here for you, always rooting you on, and remaining your number one fans!

We love you lots and can't wait to share this new journey with you!

Congratulations!

Samantha,

All these years have been nothing short of "magical" watching you become the beautiful woman you are today. Having you in our lives has brought us more joyful times & very proud moments than you'll ever know. We have been dreaming about your exciting future since the day you were born & hoping that life will bring you all the happiness you deserve. Please know that we will "always" be here for you & have all the confidence in the world that you will make sensible choices & that you will handle whatever challenges come your way. We would ask you when you were little "Why are you so beautiful?" Your reply would be, "Because that's the way God made me!"

God does have special plans for you Sam. Just remember you can always turn to us for help & encouragement. Our love will always remain steadfast. Every situation you have gone through in your short life has molded you into the strong, confident woman you are today.

Reach for the stars "Baby Girl" & remember you are "OUR" gift from God. You are a one-of-a-kind woman who has made your family very proud!

Remember this, you can always count on your personal "Guardian Angel" up in heaven (Mimi) who is always smiling down on you & will always protect you throughout your life- you were her "Pride & Joy"

We love you

Michaela Hills

There are beautiful people who are ugly, rich people who are poor, and powerful people who are weak. You, however, are a sum of all your experiences and, because of this, your character trumps all of the superficial.

You are our Michaela.

We are so proud of you and look forward to great things to come.

Kayce Savole

To say that I am proud to be your Mother does not nearly express the feelings within me. I admire the strength and the talent you have displayed at the numerous dance recitals, concerts, and plays. You bring joy with you, wherever you are and you are one of the kindest people I know. Thank you for being: The most talented and entertaining "Jewelry Box Skater" EVER; Stubborn enough to argue that "Chuckie did not have a Mommie"; A Girl Scout Cookie peddler that really knows her stuff; Our family's Favorite Kippie!; and, most importantly YOU

You are truly ready for this next step in life's adventure!

I Love You, Mom

Kayce,
 spending these last 17+ years with you has been awesome. I always enjoy our time together: watching you take your first steps; sitting on the beach, admiring the surf while reading a good book; laughing while learning to downhill ski at GORE; or just cuddling on the comfy couch, talking about the day's events or catching up on our favorite shows.

You must not let anyone define your limits because of where you come from. Your only limit is your soul.

Our Foreign Exchange Students

Bruna Duraes is from Brazil and her native language is Portuguese. A big difference between American and Brazilian culture is that Americans don't hug as much as the people of Brazil. She was also surprised to see all of her American friends driving cars. In comparing American schools to Brazilian schools, Bruna was surprised that the students changed classes and not the teachers. Bruna says she misses her friends, sun, hugs, and family in Brazil. But one thing she loves about America, is the snow.

Sofia Miron Barroso is visiting America from Spain and her native language is Spanish. When she arrived in America she found the biggest difference to be her living environment. In Spain she lived the in the city and could walk or find public transportation to where ever she needed to go. To Sofia, being in America is like being in the movies. Sofia reports that school in Spain is more difficult than in America. Another difference in the school system is that students change classrooms and not the teachers. Her favorite thing about America happens to be the people she is meeting. When asked about what she misses at home she replied by saying that she misses her family, friends, the food and the sun.

Fanny Willieme is from Belgium, officially the Kingdom of Belgium, which is a federal state in Western Europe . Her first language is French, but she speaks English very well, like the other foreign exchange students. Fanny is a friendly student and is involved in the Drama production of "Grease" this year.

Think big thoughts, relish small pleasures.

Strive for excellence, not perfection

*Don't waste time grieving
over past mistakes.*

Learn from them and move on.

*Don't waste an opportunity
to tell someone you love them.*

*Never deprive someone
of hope. It might be all they've got*

Never cut what can be untied.

Don't expect life to be fair.

*Don't miss the magic of the moment
by focusing on what's to come.*

Give up on no one. Miracles happen every day.

Failing to prepare is preparing to fail.

*Never underestimate the power
of a kind word or deed.*

*Remember: success
comes to the one who acts first.*

Do not put limits on yourself.

Learn to listen.

Opportunity sometimes knocks very softly.

Life is a journey, always enjoy the ride.
