B-P seniors, congratulations to all of you! Be proud of who you are and for the indelible mark you have left on the Broadalbin-Perth High School. B-P will always remember your quest to be heard and for change in the "system." You all cared very much about the culture of your high school and you worked hard to change it for the better. As you go forth, carry your voice for change with the knowledge of the responsibility and sense of accountability that comes with it. Always show empathy, humility, and kindness in all you do. Good luck and know you will always have a place to call home in Broadalbin-Perth.
~Mr. Tomlinson

Mr. Brooks
High School Principal

I hope you are able to look through this yearbook and be reminded of the great memories you have made during your time at Broadalbin-Perth High School. Every school year is defined by many memories...Homecoming, a favorite class, the sports you played, clubs you joined, musicals you were a part of, and friends you made. As you look back on the 2019-2020 school year, this yearbook will help serve as a reminder of those great times. Please enjoy your Broadalbin-Perth High School yearbook for many years to come.

Dia de los Muertos

El Día de los Muertos is celebrated in Mexico and several other countries in Central and South America. Celebrated from November 1-2, the festival honors loved ones and family members who have died. Families have picnics in graveyards in order to spend time with those who have passed on. The BP Spanish Club held a costume contest entitled "Calaveras vs. Cadáveres" in honor of the Day of the Dead this year. Other students from Spanish classes created altars, sugar skulls, and ofrendas to celebrate this day.

The first annual Holly Jolly Smash was held this year on the last day of school before break. Eighteen players competed, and many more watched and cheered on their favorites, in the double elimination tournaments. When the dust cleared, Joe Simonds beat Ben Nellis in a comeback win in the final. Congratulations to all of the competitors, as well as to Mr. Eipp for arranging this tournament!

Congratulations!

Where have the years gone?

I can't believe my baby boy will be leaving the nest. You will be missed a ton.

I was blessed to have you. You are my kind--hearted and loving boy. You are such a wonderful person, and we look forward to watching all your accomplishments in college, and as a grown man. You have a great mind to be anything you want to be, you have such a gentle heart to feel, and the patience to wait until the time is right to achieve your goals. We know you will do great things.

As you end your high school years and start your next journey always remember:

TO BE TRUE TO YOURSELF
FOLLOW YOUR DREAMS
NEVER GIVE UP
HAVE FUN
LIVE LIFE TO YOUR FULLEST:

We will always love you and be here for you, but most of all remember GOD.

He will lead and guide you through. It is your LIFE. YOU LIVE IT.

LOVE YOU,
MOM AND DAD

Matty,
Where did the time go? Feels like only yesterday we were sliding down the hill with the wagon, hitting baseballs in the yard, and getting Ma super annoyed. It is insane how time flew and now it is you who is graduating high school, moving up in the world. Throughout the years I have watched you grow into a sarcastic, highly intelligent, fart-lovin, respectable boy of good character. Between your patience with people, admirable leadership skills, overall integrity, and the ability to stay true to yourself is something you should be proud of. Only few people possess these qualities.

For your future, I wish you nothing but happiness, a lot of laughs, success and for you to wake up everyday and love who you are and do what you love. You have a very promising future. Do not pressure yourself too much, it is only the beginning and you are still very young. Work hard for all the things that you want and I promise the blessings will come. Good luck in college Matty, you're gonna do great and succeed in life, regardless of where it takes you.

Love you.

J

We are so proud of you and just know the future holds wonderful opportunities for you. You have a strong work ethic and you know what it takes to be successful. Don't ever question your ability to do anything that inspires you-You CAN do it. We know you will be successful in whatever you do in life and cannot wait to see where your road leads. We will be there for you every step of the way!
