A Message From The Principal

A large part of what makes Broadalbin-Perth High School such a special place is the students. We have an extremely involved and caring student-body that has worked to make their school experiences truly unique. The pages of this yearbook are filled with evidence of these experiences. I hope this yearbook is able to serve as a positive reminder of your high school experience. There is no place I would rather be than Broadalbin-Perth High School and that is because of our students.

Pink Out

As many of you know, October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month. The W-P boys' varsity soccer team is wearing pink this evening to acknowledge the important battle against this disease. According to the American Cancer Society, about 190,000 new cases of breast cancer are expected to be diagnosed in 2017 and over 40,000 women will die from breast cancer this year.

Tonight's game has been dedicated to individuals that have taken this disease head on and have beaten it or are currently battling it. They have been a source of strength and inspiration to many and their courage gives us all hope.

All proceeds collected this evening will be donated to the American Cancer Society.

SADD HAUNTED HOUSE

SADD stands for students against destructive decisions. It promotes safe, fun events. The activities raise funds for the post prom event.

The SADD haunted house has been a Halloween favorite at BP for over 15 years!

The Haunted House raised $900 for post prom!

This year's Haunted House terrorized over 250 people of all ages.

Key Club members wanted to help out Madison Oechler and her family during her recovery, so they decided to sell purple Maddy Strong t-shirts and hearts, in honor of her favorite color, throughout school and at the boy's basketball game. The BP Lion's club, along with the BP Lion's Club Liaison, Ricky Kaufman, presented Key Club with a generous donation on at the basketball game. The fundraiser was a huge success!

Disney Aladdin

Welcome to Agrabah, city of enchantment!

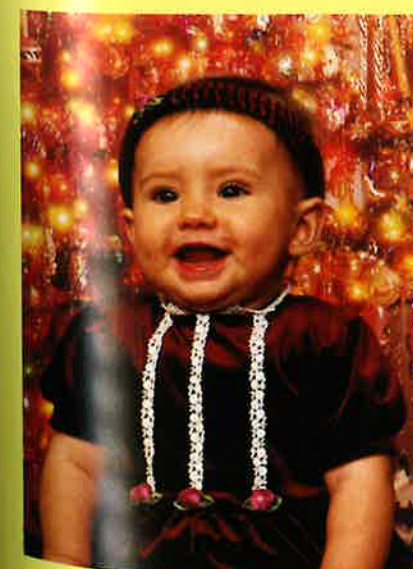

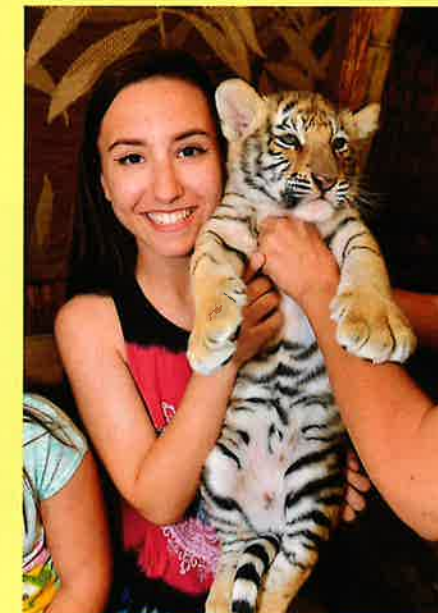

Be My Baby

Kayla D. Weaver

Dear Kayla,
Some people in this world are going to tell you how you are supposed to feel, act or be.
And you, my sweet girl, are going to get very scared.
Your stomach will knot and you may feel sick.
Your mind will race with thoughts.
And your voice, you believe you have lost your voice forever. BUT here's the thing-
YOU HAVEN'T.

Dig down deep, my girl, and your voice will not fail you.
It may falter, but it will rise with the strength of your conviction.
You may be scared but you are BRAVE and your voice MATTERS.
It's time to use it now.
You must understand that you can feel, act or be however you choose,
No one has the right to tell you otherwise.
Embrace your brave, for you are fierce and there is no one that can take it away from you.
Love you, ALWAYS.
Mom & Kara

Words cannot describe how much you mean to us! The day you were born our family was complete. What would we have done without your childhood care-free ways and humorous personality? We are so proud of the woman you have become! You are one of the most determined, fearless, genuine people we know. Your courage is evident in any obstacle you face. You NEVER give up no matter what the hurdle is. You encourage everyone around you to be the best that they can be. Lastly, you are faithful to your family and friends, always respecting their unique personalities and perspectives. We are blessed to have you in our lives and thank God for you every day. We love you more than words can ever say! You will be a success in whatever you do just by being true to yourself.

Mr. Tomlinson

Superintendent

BP Seniors, congratulations to all of you! Please know how proud I am of you for finding your way through this crazy journey of life in Broadalbin-Perth. Over the past four years each and every one of you chose your own path; celebrated and suffered the consequences of your decisions. Life is full of challenges, you will win some and you will lose some. Your life won't be defined by how smart you are or the amount of money that you make, but how you chose to love and treat others. Be empathetic, humble and kind. Good luck and know you will always have a home in Broadalbin-Perth.

Some Parting Words From The Class of 2018

Just do the work. You don't want to be stuck in this place any longer than you need to be. Jared Preston

Get as much of your classes done so you can leave early. Kyle Ropeter

Just take it step by step and day by day. Serena Bevington

Enjoy the time you have left. You might wish it was over now, but you'll learn to cherish it later. Lucas Coon

Befriend your teachers.
They can help you like you wouldn't believe.
Antonio Bucciferro

Your last few years of school go by fast; don't waste your time. Go to games, join clubs, and make new friends. Just let loose and enjoy your time because when it's over, you'll realize these were the best times of your life. Cassandra Hill

These are some of the most memorable years of your life. Take the time in high school to enjoy the time you have because once you leave here, you will have to start supporting yourself. Don't think that high school doesn't matter because these are the defining years of your educational life. High school lays the framework for college, so if you don't try your best you may close doors for yourself in the future...Have fun but do your best. Brendon Gladman

I've always wanted to be a senior, and finish high school, but now that I am one, I look back at all the things I wish I did. Have fun and make sure you keep up on your work. It matters once you're looking into your future and realizing you will no longer be a part of a high school. Leaving this school and moving away was harder than I thought, so make sure to live every moment. Jordyn DeNeuville

My best advice to other students is to not talk when someone else is talking and do not distract others.
Donnie Ericksen

Play fortnite, eat chicken wings, and when there's smoke, there's fire.
Which is probably my mistake. Zach Rinehart

Enjoy school while you're in it because when it's over, life stinks.
You lose your friends and work until you die. Josh Cromling

If today is a failure, then tomorrow is always a day for success. Andrew Morey

High school is the best of time and the worst of times. Basically not fun-it drags on and seems to never end 'til you hit your senior year. Then you start to respect the process of getting through school. You do your work and hand it in on time and you will pass; just do your work. As a senior, take senior year seriously as it is the last time you might see all your friends and favorite teachers. There are a lot of last time things going through your senior year.
Take everything that is thrown at you and make it positive. Honestly, I enjoyed my senior year. I'm happy, always smiling and enjoying the months I have left of school. Enjoy the last minutes and hours of high school because you won't notice what you missed out on 'til it's gone. Bill Montgomery

Live and learn. Be young and dumb or you'll never be old and wise.
Dylan Rulison

Take risks and have fun now.
Sometimes the worst ideas make the best memories. Have fun while you can.
Mathew McNeil

Work hard but enjoy your time because it goes by quick and you may regret not enjoying it as much.
Your high school years will fly by and soon you will be heading to college.
Alyssa Mosher

Get smart, learn things, have fun, find da wae. Robert Opalka

Make sure you actually listen to your teachers when they tell you about quizzes. They give you plenty of time to study.
Austin Mulvena

Taking part in extra-curricular activities is a great way to make friends and discover passions you never thought you'd have. As someone who goes from Jazz Band to Drama to Pep Band all in one day, I can tell you it's a great way to spend your time. CJ Hughes

Time goes by too fast. Work hard and make the most of it. Alexis O'Dell

Time flies by fast when you enter high school from start to finish. Robert Dingman

Take drama. You can make a lot of friends and it's good to be a part of something.
Don't distance yourself from people. Don't listen to bullies. Jake Holland
