MRS. MARY HAZARD SAWYER

In Tribute

DEAR MRS. SAWYER:

The graduating class of 1943 does hereby dedicate this Year-book to you. Your outstanding quality of leadership, love of children, your willingness to share your time to help others have made you one of the most beloved persons in this school and in this community.

We are very proud of our choice and hope you will always remember us as your lasting friends.

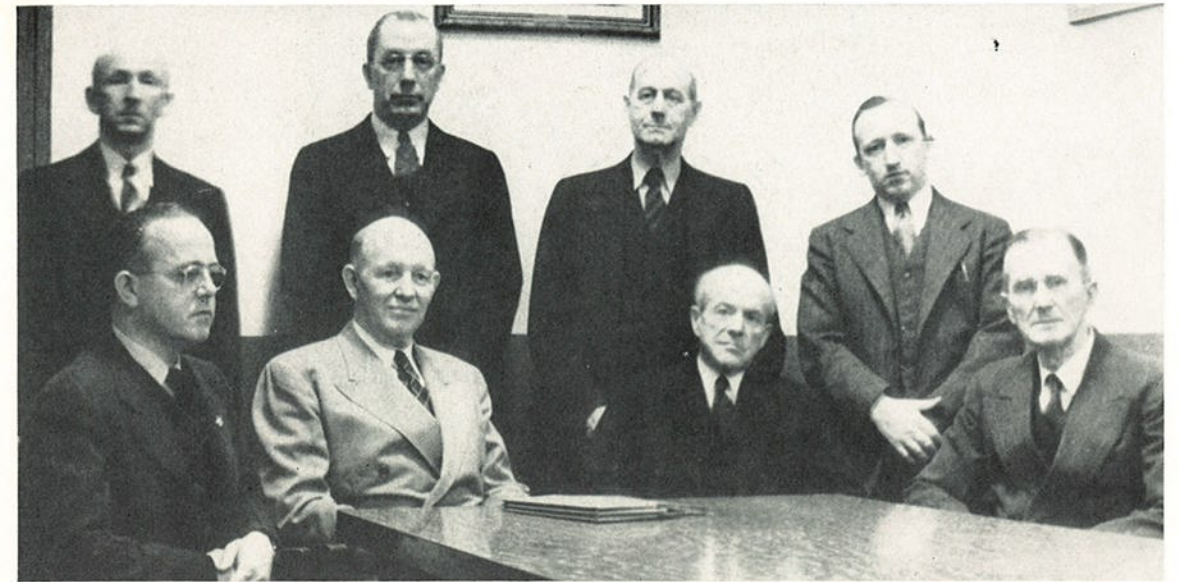

Sincerely,

THE CLASS OF 1943.

CLASS HISTORY

In the year of 1939, this Senior Class entered Broadalbin High School. Of course, we were all very much pleased with ourselves at being Freshmen, but when initiation rolled around, some of our ideas were soon changed.

There were about sixty-five members when we all started out as lowly Freshmen. Now the membership has dwindled down to twenty-six. Our officers that first year were: President, Anne Hrinishin; Vice-President, Catherine Olmstead; Secretary, Roger Chase; Treasurer, David Olmstead.

It seems that this class of '43 has had the most exciting and also the most discouraging time. We couldn't even agree on one thing. Well, the only thing we all agreed upon was to disagree. During our glorious first year at High School, we sponsored a Freshmen Dance.

In our Sophomore Year, Cecile Hapeman became president, with Dave Olmstead to assist. Anne Hrinishin and Bill Smith were our secretary and treasurer, respectively. When our Junior Year rolled around, we elected Roger Chase president; Alan Seward, vice-president; Barbara Jennings, secretary, and Vivian Christopher, treasurer.

Our Senior officers are: President, Alan Seward; Vice-President, Barbara Jennings; Secretary, Anne Hrinishin, and Treasurers, Dave Olmstead and Sophie Adamkoski. Not much has happened concerning our money making prospects, except the Indoor Carnival we had when we were sophomores; the Senior Play, "Don't Take My Penny," and a few movies.

Upon graduation, I speak for myself as well as for the other members of the class, we will never forget these four years in high school. Some of them were pretty hectic and yet, they were fun. We all hope we have not left too bad an impression on the faculty.

RETHA VAN DER SLUYS.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of The Broadalbin High School of the Village of Broadalbin, in the County of Fulton, and the State of New York, do make, publish, and declare this, our last will and testament.

We direct that our just debts be fully paid and satisfied after our departure. The bequests are as follows:

I, Sophie Adamkoski, leave my intelligence to Hilda Eaton. Keep up the good work, “Hid.”

I, Anna Barna, leave my letter writing to soldiers to Marjorie Benedict.

I, Betty Bertrand, leave my bashful little ways to Evelyn Voorhees.

I, Roger Brooks, leave my ability in Mechanical Drawing to “Bucky” Weaver.

I, Roger Chase, leave my wittiness and bright sayings to Eugene Christopher.

I, Vivian Christopher, leave my ability to give “short ones” to Helene Smith.

I, Katherine Clark, leave my corny jokes to anyone who can see through them and get a laugh from them.

I, Phyllis Dake, leave my quietness to “Red” Coloney.

I, George Farley, leave my dry humor to Morrey Goodbread.

I, Jack Farley, leave my ability to get to school on time to “Sonny” Breen.

I, Anne Hrinishin, leave my love for Harry James’ music to Marina Petoff.

I, Barbara Jennings, leave my cute little giggles to Winifred Jeffords.

I, Jack Kenyon, leave my story writing to anyone who can do as well as I have.

I, Florence Leonard, leave my shortness to Paula Kross.

I, David Olmstead, leave my red hair and freckles to Guy Pistilli.

I, Elizabeth Orlowski, leave my ability to get along with everyone to Pat Lee.

I, Roger Petoff, leave my athletic ability to Charles Warren.

I, Philip Pistilli, leave my address book to the Freshmen boys.

I, Janet Sawyer, leave my ability on the clarinet to Marion Baker.

I, Alan Seward, leave my “Book of Sarcastic Sayings” to anyone brave enough to use them.

I, William Smith, leave my height to Donnie Sherman.

I, Helen Solomaschuk, leave my ability to wear sweaters to Marguerite Tyler.

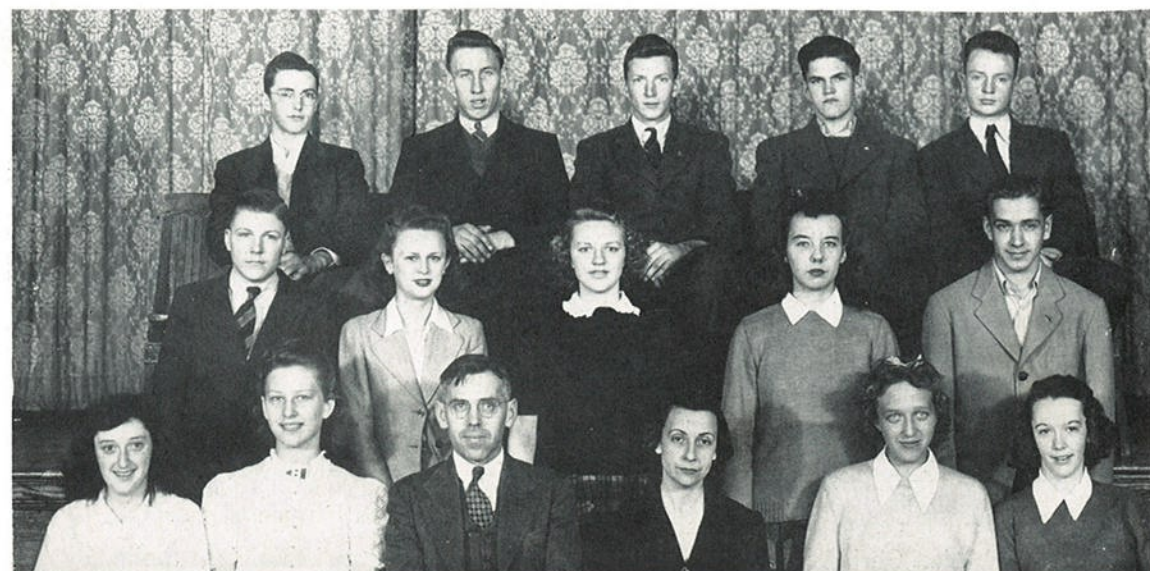

I, Beverly Thorne, leave my artistic dancing to Nellie Nadwocki.

I, Richard Tomlinson, leave my popularity with the girls at Vails Mills to Calvert Lingenfelter.

I, Beulah Vandenburg, leave my ability to get along with Miss Elwood to the Juniors.

I, Retha Van Der Sluys, leave my ability to play the piano to my sister, Ernestine. Carry on “Sis.”

STORY

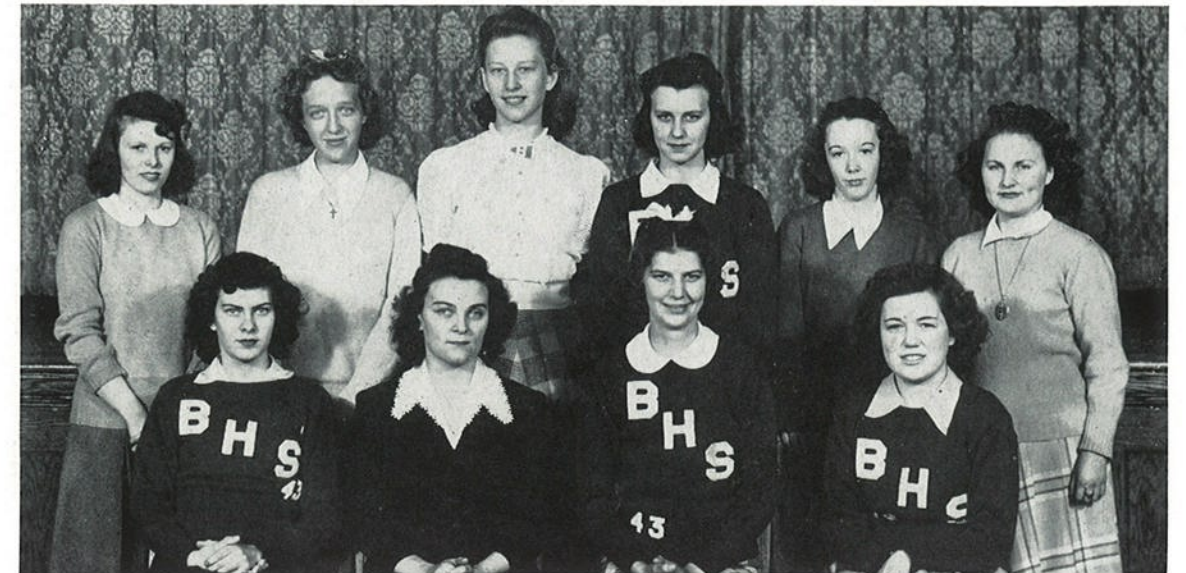

"I don't want to lose her to Hollywood; I want to keep her right here," was the plaintive comment of Kerry Harper to his friends, Greg and Gram. Penny Pringle, his girl, had just deserted him to become a movie star. She is sure Harrison Day will choose her to play the part of Dimity West. Joanna, her girl friend, helps her practice throughout the play.

In this problem the parents, Lydia and Caleb, were so preoccupied with their own activities that they were unaware of their children's problems.

Sally, the maid, also had hopes of being chosen to play the part, but at the end decided she would rather be Mark's wife and help him on his farm.

The coming of Harrison Day proved to everyone that neither Penny or Sally was to be chosen, but Mavis. Penny bestowed her blessings upon Mavis with her oft-repeated "Are you prepared to suffer, are you prepared to sacrifice, are you prepared to climb the dizzy heights alone? Then here's to fame—and you!"

BASKETBALL

Broadalbin's powerful basketball team won its sixth straight basketball championship in the Tri-County League, turning aside all league opposition and losing but two hard fought games with a strong Johnstown team.

Because of the transportation difficulties, the season was cut to 15 games and no class sectional championships were held. Hampered by many injuries and enlistments in the armed forces, Coach Bill Stillman was forced to change his lineup considerably. Halfway through the season George Petoff and Dick Cruthers were called into active duty with the Army and Naval Air Forces, respectively. Bill Smith was also lost to the team because of an operation for appendicitis. Roger Petoff was missing from six games because of a severe attack of pneumonia.

The team was sparked by the high scoring of Captain Jim Underwood who sank 150 points. The following are the individual scoring records:

Charles Warren.....	96
Jack Farley.....	75
George Petoff.....	40
Richard Seeley.....	36
William Smith.....	32
Roger Petoff.....	26
Robert Breen.....	24

BILLY BROWN

LAWRENCE KISSINGER

IN MEMORIAM

We will never forget Billy, his pony and his love for athletics.

Our Billy, we remember best perhaps, for his quite special smile. It began slowly with his eyes and by the time it was really going good it included his whole face. It seemed as though he turned the pockets of his soul inside out when he smiled.

We will always remember Lawrence for his reserved and lovable ways.

In our class play we never gave "The Prize Zinnia" but, as long as one of us has a memory, we will recall "Billy, the Cop," and "Lawrence, the Little Red Hen," solemnly and intently cluck-clucking all over the place. Such a smart little "Red Hen."

Mrs. Helen Paris.

GET ON THE BEAM FOR SUMMER

Simply super! The kind of clothes 'teens-on-the-beam' want most for Summer through Fall. Chesterfield coats, wear-everywhere suits—beau-catching dresses, too . . . all at our low prices.
