Our School

From its vantage point on the hill over looking the village of Broadalbin and the distant Adirondack mountains our school has left a rich imprint on our lives. We shall always cherish the memories of the many days spent within its walls and on its attractive grounds.

The students of the Class of 1955 have earnestly tried to present a pictorial history of the year's classes, organizations and activities; to make an annual which in the years to come would enable us to recall those days of our youth full of excitements and friendships, joys and disappointments at this "our school."

Dedication

We the class of 1955 sincerely dedicate this edition of the KENNYETTO KRONICLE to our patient class advisor, vice principal and teacher, Mr. Michael Chouse.

Class History

In September 1951, a group of bewildered Freshmen met with Mr. Chouse, advisor, and elected Lawrence Eaton, President; Verlene Wilcox, Vice President; Donald Cook, Secretary; and Charlene Capron, Treasurer. We sponsored a Leap Year Dance, which started us on our way. Food Sales were our main source of income.

During our Sophomore year, our class raised additional funds for our future needs, by having hayrides, dances, and food sales. The class officers were: President, Harry Cooper; Vice President, Shirley Salak; Secretary, Marjorie Priest; and Treasurer, Verlene Wilcox.

In our Junior year, with President, Andrew Miller; Vice President, Shirley Salak; Secretary, Charlene Capron; and Treasurer, Luanne Fuelleman, we entertained the seniors with a beautiful prom. In March we received our rings. Our money making activities included: magazine sales, a hayride and dances.

In our Senior year, the following served as officers: President, Andrew Miller; Vice President, Charlene Capron; Secretary, Margaret Sawyer; and Treasurer, Marjorie Priest. Our many activities included: Senior Play, "Beauty and the Beef," dances, selling paper and pencils, refreshments at the home basketball games, movies in the gym, various assortment on merchandise, and purchasing our Senior sweaters. We are now looking forward to our wonderful trip to Washington, on Memorial Day.

CLASS MOTTO: Never believe the impossible,
 Never regret the past,
 Do not long for the unattainable.
