FORWARD . . .

Night has its special meaning for all . . . for the Seniors, fulfillment . . . frothy formals swirling in the fantasy of "Carousel" . . . changes all about us . . . a new yearbook . . . a new school . . . our Senior Play . . . and for all . . . anticipation . . . cheerleaders urging our players on to victory . . . masquerading for Halloween . . . the Snowball Hop . . . all these an integral part of our "Rendezvous with Night" . . . They encompass the spirits, joys and hopes we will all look back upon with fond memories.

Come . . . let's have a "Rendezvous with Night!"

NIGHT OF PLANNING OUR FUTURE . . .

SEATED: Mr. Ginter, Miss Coe, Mr. Reed, President; Mr. Kissinger. STANDING: Mr. Townley, Principal; Mr. Minkler, Mr. Ley.

THE SCHOOL BOARD . . .

WE DEDICATE . . .

. . . TO YOU, OUR LOYAL ADVISERS . . .

As each of us prepares to embark on his own career - some on our way to college, others to enter life's busy cycle - we pause a moment to express our gratitude to you who have guided us unfalteringly through storm and calm, until we finally have reached our goal.

Your support has not only been moral, but you have been there beside us, working in the cafeteria, chaperoning our dances, helping plan our talent shows, to mention only a few of our successful ventures in which you played such an important part.

To show in some way our appreciation for all that you have done for us throughout the years we dedicate this, the 1959 KENNYETTO KRONICLE, to you, Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. Stillman.

T. R. TOWNLEY - Supervising Principal

To Members of Class of 1959:

Our little classmates of grade two of the Broadalbin Grade School in 1948-49 have become the Seniors of 1958-1959. I can still recall you vividly in those rooms on the top floor of the Grade School under the direction of Mrs. Letha B. Leslie and Mrs. Myra DeLorme. According to the Kenneyto Kronicle, only twenty-three of the original group are members of our present Senior Class; however, twenty-seven new members have joined your ranks during the decade.

You have been a very stimulating, resourceful group through your entire school career. Cooperation has been one of your outstanding traits. We sincerely wish each and every one of you the best of success and good health to enjoy it.

Sincerely,

T. R. Townley

Supervising Principal

MEMO FROM THE PRINCIPALS . . .

MICHAEL CHOUSE - Secondary Supervisor

Written in countless yearbooks, the expression, "With sincere best wishes for a happy and successful future" is certainly neither new nor original, but it expresses most adequately a deeply felt sentiment.

I'll miss this class of 1959. Many of you I've grown to know intimately; all of you I've observed and tried to know well. In retrospect, some of you have been a trial - but those instances become lost in the profusion of pleasant remembrances. You've been individuals, unafraid to express your thoughts and feelings, and yet you've been understanding, co-operative and loyal; you've known the difference between conformity and respect for rules and regulations; most of all you're our hope for the future. May your judgements be sane and unprejudiced, and may the world you help make, contain as much humility as pride.

So to this the class of 1959, for reasons tinged with a little personal pride mixed with the sorrow of parting, I say, "Au revoir," and may the life confronting you be as joyous and fruitful as you've envisioned it.

PROPHECY

"REUNION 1969 FOR B.H.S. CLASS OF 1959"

Here in the Broadalbin Central School auditorium we are holding the reunion of the class of 1959. Presiding is Doctor Ned Deuel, who was president of the class.

As the guests arrive, Dr. Deuel announces them and their occupations. First to arrive is Mickey Ammerall, wife of a famous farmer in Fletcherville, Iowa; next we see Shirley Bowler, the English teacher at Saturn Central School; here we see Sylvia Benware, the famous evangelist in Mars, escorted by Ronald Hollenbeck, the first farmer on the moon. Next we see Pat O'Mara, Society's First Lady after she married a millionaire.

As the reunion progresses, the food gets poisoned by Dick Goebel, a submarine technician, and the famous engineers Pete Bishko, Bill Paris, Larry Gay, Roger Ahrens, and Ray Tomlinson become ill. Nurses Joan Stillman, Frona Hoyt, Carole Fountain, and Carol Gasner call the president, Bob Crouch, to send us aid. Soon Generals Sweet, Swartz, and Neahr, top brass of the Air Force, arrive and find out this is their class reunion. The Navy sent Commandant Ramsdell just in case. General Harvey Ferguson and his men, David Beatty and Robert Hamm arrive to show the Army's strength.

Other famous graduates of the class of '59 are: commercial artist Carol Kobischen; paratrooper of the Steve Canyon Show, George Phillips; and the famous satellite news photographer, John Leslie.

Here comes the "Glamour Girl of 1969," Lona Vezina, with her escort, the multi-million dollar playboy and racketeer, Gale "Sharky" Shaw. Behind them we see Phil "Hoffa" Pearo, president of the "teamsters". Architect Linda Chouse and her escort, history teacher on Pinius 7, Richard Kelly are here too. Business Executive Ed De-Rocker is here with Sondra Sturm, the kindergarten teacher now teaching high school at Little Rock. We see Carolyn Lingenfelter, secretary to Bernard Baruch. Actress Linda Cornell; her copywriter, Freda Fredrick, and secretary Donna Fisher are here too.

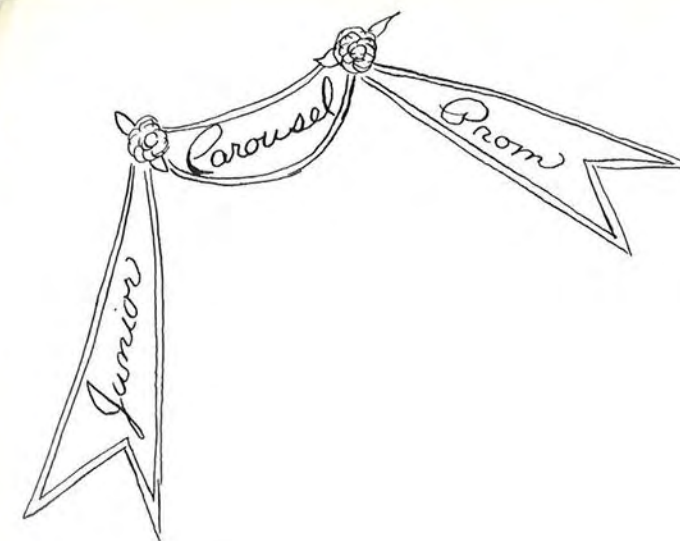

The well-known inter-planetary physical education teacher, Dana Thompson is here with her one thousand five hundred-ten children and their school teacher Sharon King. Entering now is Bob Cloutier, famous farmer and rum-runner. Quiz show winner Phil Shaw is here, and typist Marion Loveless is getting an interview with him. About the last to arrive are Don Frank, personnel administrator, Len Stangle, and Grover Cleveland, famous rocket mechanics and bicycle fixers. Joann Zabawczuk and Joan Seelow, both housewives are here also.

The reunion is complete and everyone is here including Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. Stillman, advisers of the class of '59, now retired teachers.
