KENNYETTO KRONICLE

Foreword

Education, spirit, and companionship - integral parts of the school - are symbolized on our new school ring. As founders of the ring we have learned that it is our school which has taught us the citizenship, leadership, and knowledge so vital for our future success. We, the Class of 1958, have therefore chosen our school ring as the theme of the 1958 KENNYETTO KRONICLE.

MISS MARY F. HULTS

MR. EARL RISHEL

We, the Class of 1958, to show our appreciation for the guidance they have administered and the time and energy they have contributed toward the success of our high school years, dedicate our yearbook to our loyal advisors.

MISS MARY DUGGAN

Members of Class of 1958:

Courtesy has been an outstanding trait of your class. Personal observation and comments from other faculty members lead me to write this statement. At a time when young folks are classed as careless in their contacts with members of society, it is a privilege to have a senior class that displays unusual training in common courtesy.

As leaders of the student body, you have been an inspiration to the underclassmen. Your 1957 soccer team was predicted as average. The players didn't know that, so they won the Tri-County Soccer Championship. That is the type of inspiration that we need.

Congratulations and best wishes to you in all of your future plans.

In appreciation,

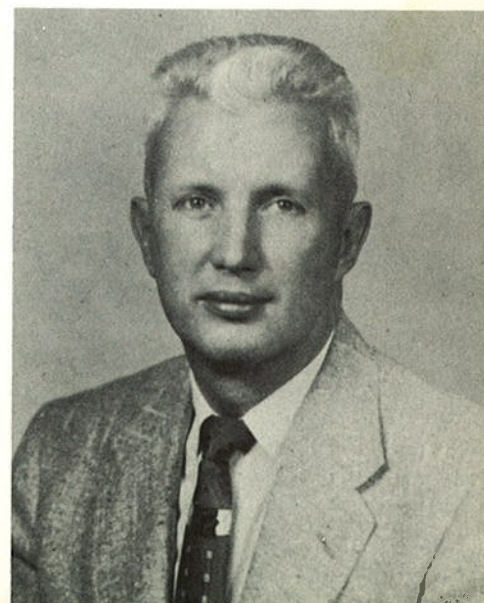

T. R. Townley
Supervising Principal

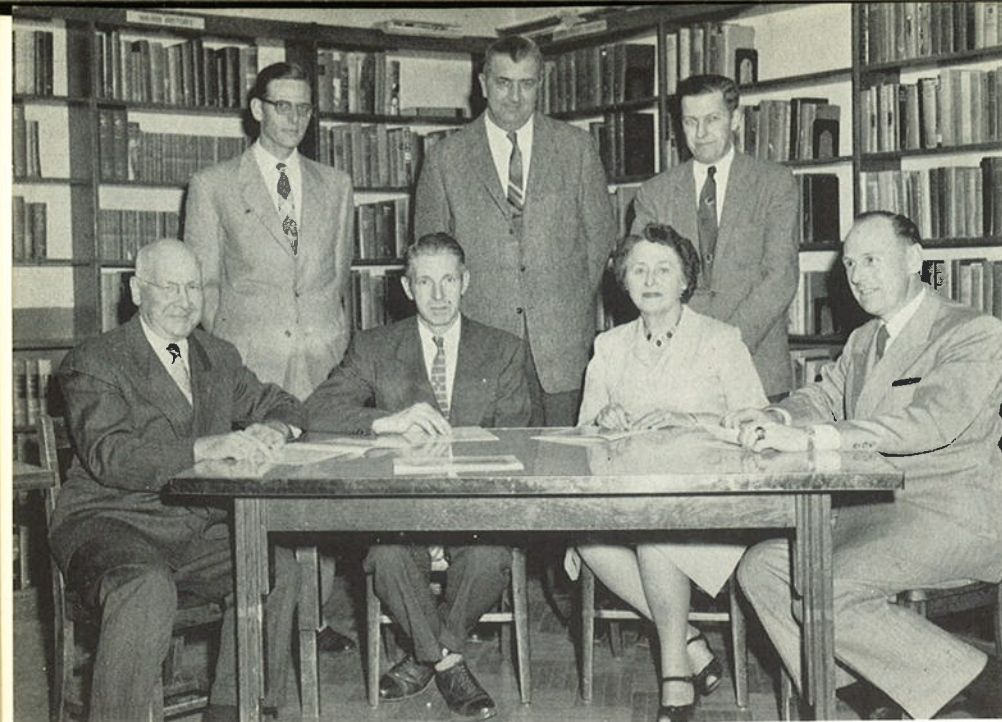

In these trying times of world unrest and sputniks, you the graduating class of 1958 will be faced with momentous decisions. It is our hope that you have learned to reason and to discriminate between the true and the false. Conflicting ideologies and beliefs, and mounting pressures will make it essential that you weigh these decisions carefully in the light of all known facets and that you behave like the intelligent citizens I know you to be.

It has been a pleasure to have worked with many of you, and to have watched most of you grow and mature. . . not only physically, but intellectually, in a manner that leaves me assured there is little to fear that our way of life and our freedom will be maintained.

With sincere best wishes for a happy and prosperous future.

Michael Chouse
Secondary Supervisor

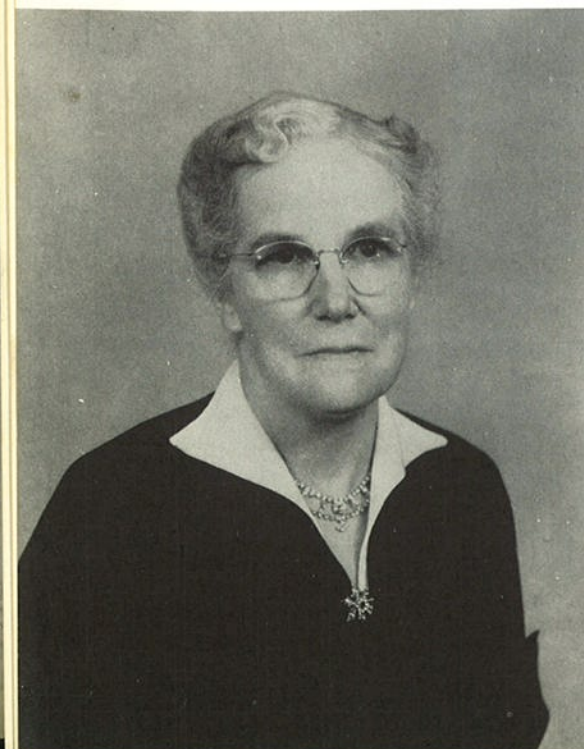

Board of Education

Seated: Mr. Townley, Mr. Reed, Mrs. Wallen, Mr. Ginter. Standing: Mr. Minkler, Mr. Kissinger, Mr. Ley.

Setting up new policies and giving your time and effort freely...these are the obvious duties you performed...but we recognize a greater value and service ...guiding us, inspiring us, making us want to be satisfied with nothing less than a job well done.

History

Here we are, sophomores meeting for the first time with our advisor, Miss Hults. We elected, to lead us in our first year of high school, Ray Woodward, president; Pete Auty, vice president; Mary Pitt, secretary; Mike Porter, treasurer; Ed Oathout, reporter; and, Student Council representatives, Carol Lockrow, Jean Hopes, and Paul Pronsky. Our "Basketball Bounce," the selling of stockings and cheer books, supplied us with our chief income which was to pave our financial way to Washington.

Guided by Miss Hults and Mr. Rishel, our advisors, we, "jolly juniors," chose John McCrevey as our president; John Agnostopulos, vice president; Mary Pitt, secretary; Joan Pitches, treasurer; and Bill Malec, reporter. To Student Council we sent Carol Lockrow, Ed Oathout, and Peter Auty. Aiming for a larger treasury, we sold pens, magazines, and sponsored the checkroom at basketball games. Our prom, "Some Enchanted Evening," and the establishment of our semi-annual Barn Dance were two of our biggest events. Then the time came. . . our rings were here. The hours of figuring, debating, and deciding were over. We were wearing the finished product. . . the Broadalbin Central School rings.

In September 1957, we were reunited as Seniors. Almost immediately we started working on our yearbook and Senior Play, "Quit Your Kidding." The dances, movies, refreshments at basketball games we sponsored, and the pencil and paper sales were all classified as successes. Our officers for our last year at B. H. S. were: Mike Porter, president; John Agnostopulos, vice president; Joan Blood, secretary; Marilyn Crandall, treasurer; Gail Shufelt, reporter; and Carol Lockrow, Bill Malec, and Pete Auty, Student Council representatives. Senior sweaters and the trip to Washington completed our high school years.

With heads held high, we leave to enter a vast new experience. And so. . . B. H. S. . . . good-bye.

"What a time! What a civilization!!!"

"Full of fun and mischief too; doing things she shouldn't do."

"I laughed! I laughed! Until I nearly died!"

"So little done, so much to do."

"Silence is a virtue, for those who are wise."

"Why should the devil have all the good times?"

"I believe in saying what I think and thinking what I say."

"A little time for laughter."

"Live, love and be merry."

"I may appear modest and meek, but always remember, still water runs deep."

"God is my refuge and my strength."

"Athletic, witty and full of fun, she's made a friend of everyone."

"Work doesn't do itself."

"So bright, so cheerful and so gay; this is Jean's winning way."

"Promise is most given when the least is said."

"Lois in her ways quiet, will find success in her future days"

"I have often regretted my speech, never my silence."

"There is nothing so powerful as truth - and often nothing so strange."

"It's nice to get up in the morning, but it's nicer just to lie in bed."

"Work never hurts a man."

"Merry as the day is long."

"Pleasure before business."

"Our horizon is never quite at our elbows."

"Beware of the strong, silent type."

"Life is not life at all without delight."

"Silence is golden; I think I'll try it sometime."

"Men may come and men may go, but I'll go on forever."

"All the great men are dying lately; and I don't feel so good myself."

"I'm willing to admit that I may not always be right, but I'm never wrong."

"Anything worth doing at all is worth doing well."

"Sigh'd and look'd and sigh'd again."

"He who invented work should have finished it."

"To thine own self be true; thou cans't not then, be false to any man."

"To you she may seem modest and meek, but always remember still water runs deep."

"Where did you get your eyes so blue? Out of the heavens as I came through."

"A genius is born not made."

"Money makes the man."

"Have all the fun you can while you're young."

 I, Mary Pitt, leave my air of sophistication to Joan Asfoury.
 I, Mike Porter, leave my ability to get in trouble with Miss Jaques to Pete Biszko.
 I, Paul Pronsky, leave my ability to write as illegibly as possible to Raymond Tomlinson.
 I, Phil Quinn, leave my ability to get into trouble to Paul Wilder and John Heald.
 I, Nancy Richards, leave my ability to reach 6 feet to Carol Ann Renda.
 I, Clifford Satterlee, leave my ability to shoot hook shots to Bob Winnie.
 I, Gail Shufelt, leave my ability to take and stick with high school math to Carol Kobischen.
 I, Geraldine Stoutner, leave my ability to receive letters from someone in the service to Donna Fisher.
 I, Shirley White, leave my ability to be constantly confused to Dana Thompson.
 I, Ray Woodward, leave my ability with a 1948 convertible to Butch Swartz.
 I, Richard Zabawczuk, leave my ability to take two lunch periods and not get caught to Leonard Stangle.
 The Senior Class leaves Miss Duggan, Miss Hulst, and Mr. Rishel hoping they will recover soon.
 We, the Class of 1958, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make our last will and Testament.

MR. CHARLES WARREN

In Memoriam

To the memory of our friend who . . . was at every game. . . knew us all by name. . . always drove our bus. . . no matter where we turned was always there. . . busy. . . "Charlie."

We've seen him in the downstairs hall.
We've seen him on the bus.
And everywhere he ever worked
The work was done for us.

Carol Gorthey

And you say that you don't normally see these . . . er. . . students. . . around the campus? Ridiculous! They're merely normal, happy, and care-free young journalists rejoicing at the completion of another yearbook. . . your 1958 Kenyetto Kronicle. You have a complaint to make? Due to circumstances beyond control, please address all complaints to Ye Olde Nut House, Broadalbin, New York. Deceased members may be found under all tombstones with epitaphs saying, "WE HATE YEARBOOKS!"
